Lowell Men Arraigned in Federal Court

FOUR LOWELL MEN ARRAIGNED ON SECRET INDICTMENTS

Edward R. Tryon, Harry P. Doherty, Fred G. Leary
and William G. Gray Plead Not Guilty to Charges of Using Mails to Defraud and Conspiracy

BOSTON, April 23.—Four Lowell men were arraigned in the federal district court today on secret indictments charging use of the mails to defraud and conspiracy, in connection with the operations of the Tryon Knitwear Corporation. They are Edward R. Tryon, Harry P. Doherty, Fred G. Leary and William G. Gray. They pleaded not guilty and were held in $2500 bonds each for trial. The government charges that the concern sent circulars to persons in all parts of New England in which it guaranteed to buy all stockings made by purchasers of its knitting machines and wool. The further charge is made that it was impossible to make stockings with these machines, which sold for $78 each.

COMPLAINTS WERE DISMISSED HERE

The four defendants were arrested in Lowell several months ago on a complaint sworn by Byron S. Hall, a post-office inspector. They were represented by former Mayor James D. O'Donnell as counsel. After many continuances, they were finally arraigned in the federal district court here before United States Commissioner Richard Brinkworth Walsh. Mr. O'Donnell at the time urged dismissal of the complaint, citing the fact that the prosecution was not represented in court, although due notice of the arraignment had been given. Mr. O'Donnell further pressed the point that the defendants had been put to a great expense and loss of time by the many continuances, as well as being under a cloud of suspicion among their fellow townsmen. Commissioner Walsh, after hearing Mr. O'Donnell, dismissed the complaint. At the time the commissioner made it plain that his action would have no weight or effect should a federal grand jury decide to indict. It was stated that the many continuances were asked by the government in the belief that an indictment would obviate the necessity of local arraignment. Failure to indict within what was thought a reasonable time and failure to press prosecution prompted the commissioner to dismiss the complaint.

VOTE TODAY ON BONUS BILL

Senate Convenes Two Hours
Earlier Than Usual to Expedite Action

Each Speaker Limited to 15
Minutes—Dispute Over
Amendment

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Convening two hours earlier than usual the senate pressed toward a vote today on the soldier bonus bill with each speaker limited to 15 minutes.

The principal controversy centered on the amendment for inclusion in the bill of a cash option provision, offered by Senator Cappelletti, democrat, New York. Although drafted by democratic members of the finance committee, the amendment was not submitted by them, leaders said, because they feared its adoption would prevent enactment of a bonus bill. Republican leaders had said they would vote to sustain a presidential veto if the bill carried the cash option proposal but would vote to override a veto if the insurance plan should be disapproved by the executive. The pending bill, reported to the senate by the finance committee, substituted as passed by the house, would allow cash payments to veterans not entitled to more than $50 in adjusted service compensation and 20 year endowment insurance policies to others.

The Cappelletti amendment called for a cash payment in full to veterans preferring it to the insurance. Such a Successful Teaching of French Language is Recognized by French Institute

Miss Adelaide Baker, head of the French department of the local high school, was presented a gold medal and ribbon at an assembly of the school at 1 o'clock this afternoon by Headmaster Henry H. Harris on behalf of the French Institute in recognition of her remarkably successful and unusual career in teaching the French language.

The French Institute is an organization formed for the purpose of spreading a knowledge of the French language and culture and Miss Baker is the first teacher in the public school of this country to be so honored.

The following personal letter from the French Institute was read:

Because of the appearance of federal prohibition agents before the federal grand jury in Boston, today's session of the court of U. S. Commissioner Richard B. Walsh was continued to next Wednesday. Several cases marked for hearing were postponed.

proposals would require a larger immediate outlay by the government than the straight insurance proposition and the amendment provided for issuance of $1,500,000,000 bonds under the second Liberty loan act to take care of the payments.

HIS 90TH BIRTHDAY TODAY

ON HIS 90TH BIRTHDAY TODAY, CHAUNCEY DEPEW, FAMED RAILROAD AND POLITICAL FIGURE, SEES HIMSELF AS HE WAS HALF A CENTURY AGO.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Ten years from today, Chauncey M. Depew may start playing golf, but just now when he's only 90 years old, any break in his daily routine at his office would prove uncomfortable, he said yesterday.

The veteran railroad man, after-dinner speaker and former United States senator, celebrates his 90th birthday today, planning to spend it as any other day. He arrives in his office about 10 o'clock each morning and leaves between 4:30 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Yesterday after saying he expected to pass his next ten years just as sensibly as he has the last 80, he took his ex-

CLAIMS HUSBAND
ASSAULTED HER

Mrs. Domonika Ignatowicz of 153 Lawrence street, called at the outpatient department of St. John's hospital this morning, to have numerous minor lacerations treated. Questioned by hospital officials as to the cause of the cuts, she said her husband had assaulted her with a knife. The police were notified by hospital officials and later arrested the victim's husband and booked him at the station on charges of drunkenness and assault and battery. He will be arraigned in district court on these charges tomorrow morning.

CONFERENCE ON TRUNK SEWER PROPOSITION

The state board of health has invited City Engineer Stephen Kearney to a conference next Monday on the trunk sewer to the sea project. Mr. Kearney when the plan was broached a week or so ago, stated the expense of such a project would be colossal and make it impracticable. He received a letter today from the state board inviting him to get a time when he could confer with the board and go over the matter in detail.

"As I said at the outset I am open to conviction that my views are incorrect," said Mr. Kearney. "For this reason I am more than pleased to accept the suggestion of the board that I go to their office and go over the matter with them. I am writing them today stating that I can go down Monday. Naturally I am very much interested in the plan and look forward to considerable enlightenment as a result of my visit. I shall go there with an open mind and expect to acquire much information that will be of value to the city."

TWO EXPRESS
TRAINS COLLIDE

30 Persons Killed and 50 Injured—21 Bodies Removed From Wreckage

Each Train Driven by Two Large Electric Engines—
Four Engineers Killed

BERNE, Switzerland, Apr. 23.—Thirty persons are reported to have been killed and 50 injured when the Zurich and Milan expresses collided near Bellinzona this morning.

Twenty-one bodies had been removed from the wreckage early this afternoon, most of them so badly burned that identification was impossible.

Americans on One Train
Each train was driven by two large electric engines, all four of which were wrecked and the four engineers killed. It was the worst train disaster in Switzerland in more than 20 years.

Both trains had some foreign passengers, coming from or going to Italy. Four Americans were reported to have been in the sleeping car on the train from Italy which car was less damaged than the others.

The Italian train had on board some French and English passengers in addition to 45 Germans and 52 Italians.

MARTIN CONWAY DEAD

Well Known Deputy Sheriff
Passed Away Suddenly
This Morning

Death Came Without Warning in Clerk's Office at Gorham Street Court House

Martin Conway, deputy sheriff and court officer for Middlesex county, and intimately known from one end of the county to the other, died suddenly at 9:40 o'clock this morning in the clerk's office at the court house in Gorham street.

Death came without warning while he wore the uniform of his service and the badge of his office and simultaneously with it there came a distinct shock to the many who knew him as a man of sterling character with a heart as large as the world in which he lived.

Occurring just before the morning session of the superior civil court, to which session he had been assigned as a court officer since it opened here. Two weeks ago, his death had a most depressing effect. Court could not go on and Judge Richard W. Irwin suspended until tomorrow. In his brief address to the jurors, court atten-

BIG RELAY CARNIVAL

Six Lowell Boys to Compete Against Country's Best High and Prep Runners

Interest in Meet at High
Pitch—Sun Sends Special
Representative

Tonight the Federal express out of Boston will carry the six Lowell high school track team members who on Friday and Saturday will represent the school in three relay events at the Pennsylvania Relay Carnival at Franklin Field, Philadelphia.

The boys taking the trip are Capt. Whit. Pearson, Jim Daley, Joe Slavin, Ernest Latham, Dave Latham and "Dutch" Burke. They are in charge of Headmaster Henry H. Harris and Coach George F. Haggerty. They will compete against the best high school and prep school runners in the country in the one-mile, two-mile and medley relay events; the medley on Friday afternoon and the one-mile and two-mile on Saturday.

This is the first trip of any magnitude ever taken by a Lowell high school athletic team and interest in the outcome of the races in which the local boys will compete will be at high pitch on the days of the carnival.

That they have earned the trip to Philadelphia goes without saying. As result of the most successful indoor track season in the history of the school, the invitation to participate in the carnival, along with 400 other high and prep schools, was accepted without hesitation. It is not the establishment of precedent, for only teams of the highest grade are invited to participate and then only after their worth has

LOWELL HIGH TEAM
MEETS SOMERVILLE

The Lowell high school baseball squad, confident after its impressive 17 to 2 victory over Townsend in the opening game of the Season Patriots day, lined up against Somerville high in Somerville this afternoon.

In tackling the Somerville nine at this early date, Coach Liston's team was pitted against one of the strongest aggregations in the state. In McFadyen, the boys down Boston way have the greatest school-boy twirler in these parts. It was felt that he would start against Lowell.

Before leaving town this noon, Coach Liston indicated that he would send Mike Gibbons to the mound. Against Townsend, Mike retired 10 batters via the strikeout route and allowed but a solitary safe blow in six innings. Carr was scheduled to be on the receiving end, while the remainder of the lineup was the same as that which battled against Townsend.

EXTENSION COURSE
AT HIGH SCHOOL

The university extension course in automobile starting, lighting and ignition, conducted by John J. Gillice will be held in Room 324 on the third floor of the high school this evening. Instead of in Caburn hall. The transfer is made necessary in view of the fact that the high school debating society is to hold a debate in Caburn hall this evening. Members of Mr. Gillice's class are requested to use the middle entrance to the building.

CAPT. WHITMAN PEARSON

IS DEFENDED

L. V. Beaulieu, Former Attorney for Gordon Campbell
Testifies at Hearing

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Reopening its inquiry into the charge of the indictment of Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, by a federal grand jury in state, the special senate committee today questioned L. V. Beaulieu, formerly of Great Falls, Mont., but now of Los Angeles, Cal.

Beaulieu was until last September, attorney for Gordon Campbell, the Montana oil man indicted with Senator Wheeler. He waived immunity, and testified that Wheeler had told him specifically he had informed Campbell he could have nothing to do with Campbell's government land matters. The charge in the senator's indictment is that he accepted money for appearing before the interior department in such cases.

The statement of the witness was admitted to the record after Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, first had questioned whether it was "hearsay" evidence, but later had waived the point. Wheeler told him in "strong western language," Beaulieu continued, that he knew nothing about government permits and had told Campbell he would handle only state court cases. He denied any knowledge that Wheeler performed, agreed to perform, or been paid for any legal services to Campbell in connection with any federal question. As chief counsel for Campbell, he said, he had "reasonable ground" to claim that he knew fully about Campbell's legal affairs.

dants and others gathered there the presiding justice spoke feelingly of the sudden call which had come to one of the county's most faithful servants by saying, "Gentlemen, we simply cannot turn our minds to serious business today."

This morning at his office at the U. S. Cartridge Co., where he was head of the labor department and of the safety-first division, Mr. Conway seemed in good health. He came to the court house at 9:30 o'clock and after changing into his court uniform went into the office of Clerk Roger Hurd and sat down to chat with Mr. Hurd and Attorneys Larkin T. Trull and Fren N. Wier. Suddenly he stopped talking, appeared to keep for breath and was gone. The transition from life to death was but a matter of seconds. The men with whom he had been talking tried frantically to revive him and called in a physician, Dr. P. A. Edmunds of Woburn, who happened to be in the corridor, but he could do nothing. Rev. J. J. Heffernan of St. Peter's church across the street hurried in to administer the last rites of the church and the medical examiner, Dr. Marshall L. Alling, responded at once to a telephone message. He pronounced death instantaneous and due to apoplexy.

As soon as Judge Levin reached the court house he was told of Mr. Conway's death and at once said court would suspend for the day. He called in the jurors, but before dismissing them spoke of Mr. Conway's service for the county and his own acquaintance with him. He felt the loss keenly as one who loses a personal friend.

Although Martin Conway's home life was spent in North Billerica, where he was born and always lived, he was in many respects a Lowell citizen, for in the city he had scores and scores of friends and acquaintances. His work as a deputy sheriff extended his friendship circle throughout the county and in all of its towns he was known and respected. He served the town of Billerica as a constable and policeman for 25 years and for a time held the position of police chief. He also spent one year as a member of the board of selectmen. He was honored and respected by his neighbors and his integrity of character ever was above reproach. His word was binding and he never swerved from the precepts of honesty and fair dealing.

At the outbreak of the World war in 1914 Mr. Conway went to the U. S. Cartridge Co. and organized and directed as chief its most efficient police force of 40 men. He knew men and how to handle them and the absolute absence of trouble at the plant during the days of the war and intrigue is positive proof of his system and ability. After the war he continued in the employ of the Cartridge Co. and was placed in charge of the labor department as manager and also was head of the safety-first division. He spent some time at the plant daily.

Gerald Cahill, manager of the plant, said this noon that Mr. Conway's death is a distinct loss to the company. "He was a fine man—one of the very best," was Mr. Cahill's comment and tribute, "and his record here was a splendid one."

His appointment to the position of deputy sheriff came on Nov. 6, 1914. Much of his work was done in connection with the office of Sheriff George P. Stiles and their business connections ripened into a very close and intimate friendship. Mr. Stiles was visibly moved by his sudden death today and was in the court room just beyond the clerk's office when it happened.

Mr. Conway made his home at Fordway Lodge, North Billerica, where he lived with his daughter, Elizabeth P. Conway, a teacher at the Lowell high school. Other relatives who survive him are two brothers, John and Capt. Thomas F. Conway, fire department electrician and fire alarm superintendent, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Reilly of Lowell and Mrs. Thomas J. Callahan of North Billerica.

His fraternal connections included membership in Lowell lodge of Elks and the Royal Arcanum.

The body was taken to North Billerica this afternoon by Undertakers Higgins Bros., who will announce the time of funeral later.

WILL CONFORM TO DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW

Announcement is made by the management of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, effective 2 a. m. Sunday, April 27, and continuing until 2 a. m. Sunday, September 28, the train schedules of the New Haven will be changed to conform to the daylight saving law of Massachusetts and the daylight saving ordinances of the city of New York and many other cities through which the company operates. The law requires the operation of trains upon a standard of time as fixed by congress.

Effective during the period of daylight saving, the hours of all offices, including freight offices, shops, storerooms and other departments will be set ahead one hour. In other words, offices now opening at 8:30 a. m. and closing at 5:30 p. m. will open at 9:30 a. m. and close at 6:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

ESCAPE FROM ARMY PRISON

Four Men Cut Way Through Steel Ceiling and Flee From Prison on Fort Banks

Were Serving Time for Desertion, Fraudulent Enlistment and Prison Escapes

ROCKFORD, April 22.—Cutting their way through a steel ceiling, four general prisoners at the army prison on Fort Banks, Boston harbor, escaped in a rowboat early today. The men were serving sentences for desertion, fraudulent enlistment and prison escapes. A corporal making his rounds at 2:30 found that Arthur L. McGuire of Holyoke, George B. Du Rother of New Bedford, Robert G. Brodie of Bridgeport and Albert M. Tolland of Portland, Me., were gone from the cell they occupied together. They had picked the lock of the cell door, cut through the ceiling and escaped. A rowboat which had been left without oars was missing from a nearby pier, and a general alarm was sent to Deer Island, a mile away, and to the mainland.

McGuire was serving time for three desertions, Du Rother for desertion, Brodie for desertion and fraudulent enlistment and Tolland for fraudulent enlistment and prior escapes.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MISS DONOHUE

Fellow women employees of Miss Edith Donohue of city hall last night honored her with a surprise party at the Marlborough and presented her with a purse of gold. About thirty of the fair attendants at the hall were present at the affair and convivially reigned supreme. The dining hall was tastefully decorated with pink and white color scheme.

Miss Donohue, who is at present in the city auditor's office and was formerly in the office of the assessors and the city treasurer, is to be married on May 12 to Peter Gill. The Misses Elizabeth Donohue, Alice Sullivan and Alice McCarthy provided a musical program of rare charm and merit. The committee in charge of arrangements for the affair comprised the Misses Susan A. Fyne, Elizabeth M. Donohue and Margaret Blackburn.

Awards for Motor Vehicles For City Departments

awards would be approved by him when forwarded to his office by purchasing agent. The mayor had been advised of the awards and verbally has approved them.

"In making the fire department award, which was not to the low bidder, I was influenced by the recommendation of the chief of the department and the fact that the bidder was a local man," said Mr. Donnelly this noon. "Chief Saunders, in his program for standardization of department apparatus, has strongly favored the recommendation of Whites. The fact that his recommendation should be taken at its face value."

"The chief has explained to me what standardization of the department means as a step forward. He has gone fully into the principle of ready access to spare parts by buying standard apparatus. We visited other cities and I am convinced the award is made as most likely to be to the best interests of the city at large. The white concern is ready to give rapid and satisfactory service in the event of trouble and an exhaustive investigation has convinced me that Mr. McCann is entitled to the award."

The THIEF that is hard to catch

Ordinary thievery is easily detected. But not the theft of nerve energy. Healthy eyes use only 10% of the body's nerve force while overstrained eyes sometimes steal 50%. Exhaustion or breakdown results.

To prevent this subtle thievery—

I Offer Girls

My aids to beauty, and to woman youth
By Edna Wallace Hopper

I had a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world with me to find the supreme beauty helps.

They made me a famous beauty. And now, after 40 years in the limelight, they keep me a beauty still. Other girls, in these same ways, run multiply their beauty. Other women can, to old age, keep their youthful bloom. I want to help them do so. The very helps that France gave me are now at your command.

I am very—very busy on the stage. But I am taking time to tell you the secrets of my beauty and my youth. And I hope the time will come when girls and women by the millions will enjoy what I enjoy.

32 helps in four
I found 32 things that women need to keep them at their best. French experts combined them in four applications. These beauty and perennial youth were made very easy for me.

One is my White Youth Clay. Not like the crude and muddy clays so many use today. This clay is white, refined and dainty. Twenty years of scientific study have made it amazingly efficient.

I use White Youth Clay to purge my skin of all that clogs or marks it. It gives me that rosy, baby-like complexion, blackheads or pimples, oiliness of blemishes are unknown to me. It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, keeps the face skin ever like a girl's.

One application of my White Youth Clay brings almost unbelievable results. Many women seem to drop ten years. Continued use does marvels, as

"The Song of Love," in which the star appears as a dancing girl who falls in love with a French officer. Miss La Plante is seen in "Excitement," a picture story, the title of which reflects just what it is—excitement. They will be seen for the last time today. Beginning tomorrow and continuing the last three days of the week the bill will include Bebe Daniels in "Daring Youth," the story of a wife who was tamed by a desperate husband; and Herbert Rawlinson in "The Dancing Cheat."

"Daring Youth" is a story of modern marriage, in which Bebe Daniels portrays the role of the young wife and Norman Kerry the young husband. From a modern angle the film is said to leave no want unfilled in the way of excitement, action, comedy, and heart interest. True to its twentieth century title it depicts the love affairs of a young married couple who have decided to live apart several days of the week in order to keep themselves from tiring of each other. Excellent as the arrangement may seem, it results only in a series of complications and misunderstandings that call for the services of a Disraeli before matters are diplomatically straightened out.

"The Dancing Cheat" starring Herbert Rawlinson and Alice Lake, is a new brand of screen entertainment in which the stars are seen in characterizations of a new sort. You will like it for its romance, thrills and tense moments. It's the story of a dancer of fiery passions, flaming hates and feminine foibles. Don't miss it.

B. K. KEITH'S THEATRE
Miss Teria, the wonderful device which talks, acts and sings like a human being, is the unusual feature of the bill at the B. K. Keith theatre this week. And everybody who attends is at liberty to submit a guess as to just how the effects are obtained. It is an act which has an air of complete mystery. The Four Rubini Sisters are artists to their finger tips, and their work on the piano, violin, cello and flute is wholly delightful. One of the most unusual of blackface turns which the stars are seen in is "Con Town Divorcens," in which King and Irwin appear. Other good things are: Ed Lowry, comedian and dancer; Newman and Meehan, in a delighted comedy act, and Downey & Clarine, makers of a variety of entertainment. The picture is "Innocence," with Anna Q. Nilsson and a great cast.

RIALTO THEATRE
"East is West and West is East" the saying goes but in Florence Vidor's new picture which will be shown at the Rialto theatre the latter half of the week, the two do meet and they fall in love. The title of this new Associated Exhibitors' attraction is "Conquering the Woman" and Florence Vidor and Dave Butler are the co-stars. "Conquering the Woman" is a romantic drama from the novel "Kidnapping Galle" by Henry C. Rowland. It tells an interesting story about a spoiled society girl, perfectly interpreted by Miss Vidor, who acquires a foreign and "up-stage" manner and a titled fiance, which is not at all pleasing to her father, a real American business man with lots of red blood in his veins. To break his daughter of this "ritzy" craze and to make her dis-

Mailman Comes 'Oftener in Alaska Now

START YOUR BODY RIGHT

A sign of envy escaped Mr. Mann of Anytown as he scanned the pictures of bulging biceps and muscles in the How-to-Be-Strong ads.

While thus enviously considering what might have been, but wasn't, the physical director glanced over Mr. Mann's fat flanked shoulders and smiled at the photos.

"That stuff is all right for the boys who want to parade upon the bathing beaches," said the director. "But what the average person needs, and is capable of achieving, is a set of muscles that work smoothly."

"Get lots of muscular exercise, of course. But the principle behind such exercise is not to look like these Adonis birds. Strong muscles do give a man a comfortable feeling."

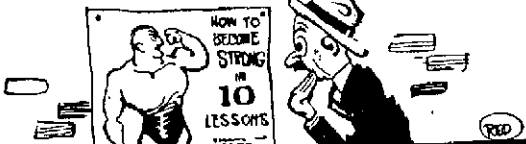

"But, physiologically speaking, this will automatically tone up."

Is the point; a muscle is a series of fibers made up of even smaller ones and through these run tiny veins and blood vessels. When a person exercises he contracts the muscle and this relaxes it. The contraction squeezes out blood that has been standing there, like a wringer squeezes water from clothing. With the relaxation fresh blood comes in. The result is a good, healthy cleaning out of various blood-containing chambers.

"That's what you want to think about in muscular exercise."

"So, whether you wind up by looking like a statue of Apollo isn't important. The point is to start your body out in the morning with a good fresh supply of blood in the muscles."

"And, while so doing, the muscles will automatically tone up."

MATRIMONIAL

Dr. Reginald Lafontaine of Grand-Mere, P. Q., and Miss Alice Rochette, daughter of Mr. Gedeon Rochette of Mt. Vernon street, were yesterday morning united in the bonds of matrimony at a nuptial mass celebrated in the chapel of St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. Louis Bachand, O. M. I. Mr. Gedeon Rochette, father of the bride and Mr. Horimidas Lafontaine, father of the bridegroom, attended the couple. The bride wore a costume of blue charmeuse with squirrel neck-piece, and a blue hat. She carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father by the D. L. I. Page company. A reception followed the breakfast, following which Mr. and Mrs. Lafontaine left on an extended wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City. They will make their home in Grand-Mere, P. Q. Among the guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Horimidas Lafontaine of St. Bartholomew, P. Q., Dr.

Philippe Chenevert of Lawrence, and Mrs. Chenevert.

Seigney-Berube
At a nuptial mass celebrated at 7.30 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Jeanne D'Arc's church by Rev. Charles Denzot, O. M. I. D. D., Mr. Emile Seigney and Miss Cedulire Berube were united in marriage. Mr. Omer Seigney, father of the bridegroom, and Mr. George Berube, brother of the bride, attended the couple. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe. Her veil was held in place by a crown of lilies of the valley and she carried bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 15 Jordan street. Mr. and Mrs. Seigney left during the afternoon on an extended wedding trip and upon their return they will make their home in this city.

REMOVING RUST
Fine emery paper will remove rust and roughness from iron. Sweet-oil or rottenstone will clean them.

It's cold in Alaska. But Pilot Eielson, who carries the mails for Uncle Sam, doesn't mind it in the least. Here he is getting set to take off on one of his trips.

WILLIAM WOOD DENIES RUMORS OF ILLNESS

Wild rumors circulating in textile and financial districts in many industrial centers of New England, including Lowell yesterday and last evening, to the effect that President William M. Wood of the American Woolen company, was seriously ill at his home in Shawshen and that a change in the corporation's executive personnel was impending, were disposed of promptly and good-naturedly by President Wood himself, last evening. In the following statement to The Lowell Sun over the telephone from his Shawshen residence:

"I am not suffering from any illness any more than common ailments affecting ordinary folks at intervals during lifetime. I am resting at Shawshen and am not at all indisposed or incapacitated, as reported. I am talking to you now. Do I talk like a sick man?"

Mr. Wood appeared to be in a mood far from down-hearted when he came to the telephone in response to a call from The Sun office and laughed into the transmitter before inquiring for information about the source of his reported illness.

"I know you newspapermen want the news and I am always ready to give it to you about myself or the American Woolen company. If there is any to give," Mr. Wood replied, when he was informed that Lowell's textile world was anxious to know the truth, and particularly that section of Lowell where employees of both sexes labor under the American Woolen banners at the Day State mills on Faulkner street.

Mr. Wood appeared to be deeply interested in the report that emanated in either Boston or New York, and declared that he had not heard of it before.

At the request of the president, The Sun man read from the Boston despatch that contained a summary of some of the reports fluttering about Boston financial circles about American Woolen company financial and industrial affairs, and announcing that rumors had it that President Wood was "incapacitated" and "in charge of executive personnel" was impending.

Mr. Wood promptly denied the reports referring to illness and executive changes, and declared it was "all news to him, as usual."

He explained his reasons for being in Shawshen at this time. He has been resting at Palm Beach nearly all winter, and has only recently returned to his Shawshen home—always his favorite recreation place, except in the colder months of the year. Today, he finds Shawshen ideal for securing the proper seclusion that a man of his many activities in the woolen and worsted cloth trades of America and the world, must have frequently in order to keep the pace industrial.

EARLY NEWS FLASHES BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Coolidge returns to Washington from New York city where he addressed annual luncheon of the Associated Press.

Democratic members of senate finance committee present minority report on tax bill, demanding Stimmons income tax schedule in place of Mellon rates and modification of corporation and estate taxes.

John C. Coolidge, father of president, walks half mile to "listen in" on neighbor's radio to his son's address at the Associated Press luncheon in New York city.

Sir Richard Squires, resigned premier of Newfoundland, and three officials under his government are arrested at St. John's, N. F., on charges growing out of investigation of Squires' administration.

Former Attorney General Daugherty statement denies emphatically many of the allegations made against him at the hearings of the committee investigating the department of justice, and declares that President Harding was nominated and elected "the freest man that ever stepped across the threshold of the White House."

TAXIS THAT CARRY LIABILITY INSURANCE

In reference to an item in yesterday's Sun, relative to some cars in the taxi business, that do not carry liability insurance, Manager Desautel, of the Yellow Taxicab company, states that he has nine cars in the service in this city, and that they all carry liability insurance through a local agency. The manager of the Red Line Taxi company also informs The Sun that he carries liability insurance for the cars he has in the service. Some others also carry such insurance.

BETTER MOVIES HIS HOBBY

George W. Bingham, though 78 years old, still is working for better movies. He has just perfected a new spruckless camera and projector that uses perforationless film. It will permit the use of a single film for three years, he declares, while the life of a film is now three months. Bingham has been in the movie camera game more than 20 years, starting in the old Vitagraph days.

FIRE IN PRESCOTT STREET

An alarm from box 26, located in the square, at 8:30 o'clock last night summoned apparatus to a shoe shine place at 14 Prescott street, where a short-circuited motor had set fire to a small amount of inflammable matter. The fire was discovered by Officer Owen Conway, who sounded the alarm, and then investigated. The fire had practically burned itself out before the fire apparatus arrived and a single chemical was sufficient to extinguish the remaining flames. The damage was slight.

Cages containing cradles are a novel suggestion for the use of city babies.

SOCIAL HOUR CAMPERS HOLD DANCING PARTY

Lincoln hall last night was the scene of a pretty dancing party held under the auspices of the Social Hour Campers, a group of local young men who have a camp at Lakeview. A large number of friends of the campers were present and enjoyed the dancing and music until midnight.

The officials of the party were George Brennan, general manager; John Linn, chief aid; William Shea, Charles Irwin and William Graham, assistant aids. The club officers follow: John M. Spillane, president; William A. Gray, secretary; Edward P. Ryan, treasurer.

She Says:

"I Am Thin"
Her Friend Says:
"She is Far Too Thin"

If she only knew that she could put on at least a pound of good, healthy flesh in 30 days she wouldn't be worrying about her peaked face and run-down looks.

She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the ill-smelling, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before.

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, creates appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and chases away nervousness.

But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it for doctors are prescribing and the people are fast learning that they can get better results with McCord's Cod Liver Oil Tablets which lack the greasy, greasy taste of the fishy stuff. A.W. Dows & Co., Fred Howard, and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for it.

It's a wonderful upbuilding medicine for children, especially after sickness, and sixty tablets only cost 60 cents.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist will gladly return the purchase price.

DEBATE TONIGHT AT LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL

The annual debate between the Lowell and Lawrence high schools will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in Co-burn hall. The subject is, "Resolved."

That the Johnson bill now before congress should be passed." Lowell will be represented by Alphonse Arlin, Angus Fleming and Merrill Calkins, with Maurice Kiegerman as alternate; all members of the Frederick T. Greenough Debating society. Supt. of Schools Hugh J. Molloy will preside and the judges will be Orel Dean, Capt. Wilfred Walker of Woburn and Arthur Ray. Prior to the debate, the regimental band will entertain with several selections and Miss Queena Douglas will provide a musical novelty. At the conclusion of the debate, a social and dance will be held under the auspices of the local debating society with the Lawrence team and delegation as guests of honor.

How I Regained Strength to do My Work

MRS. C. M. MARUKO
221 CENTRAL PARK, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

GIRLS work in mills, offices, factories, stores and kitchens all over this land, often far beyond their strength.

Frequently such a girl is the only bread winner of the family, and she must toil on, even though her back aches, she throbs with pain, has headaches, dizzy spells, is all dragged out and utterly unfit for work.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound builds health and strength for such women, as is evidenced by the many grateful letters which are received, attesting to the value of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.

How This Young Woman Got Relief

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and a displacement. This troubled me a lot when I walked and when I was sitting down and I had to stay away from work a great deal. It made me weak and nervous too. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound from one of your booklets and read about how it had helped so many. It has done so much for me I now recommend it to others. I am able to work in the factory now and can walk back and forth to work and enjoy it. I am very glad to have you use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. M. MARUKO, 221 Central Park, Rochester, N. Y.

Another Woman's Experience

LUDINGTON, MICH.—"I suffered every month and was very irregular, had headaches all the time, was thin and pale, with no appetite. I had taken all kinds of medicines and every doctor told me I would have to face an operation before I would be well again. I was only a working-girl, doing factory work, and I had to stay at home so much that I was getting rather discouraged. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I did so with good results. I am now feeling fine. I have started to be more regular and gaining in strength and weight also. I have advised all my girl friends to take your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. THERESA McDONN, 426 S. Rath Avenue, Ludington, Michigan.

CORN

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit. Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calms, without soreness or irritation.—ADP.

PERIOD FURNITURE

Robert and James Adam were architects, but their furniture is best known today. Their influence prevailed between 1762 and 1785. Theirs was a classic, architectural style based on antique detail. The chair above is a combination of Adam and Chippendale. The Adam character is the delicate fluting, low carving and the straight square legs. The back is chiefly Chippendale, except the fluted top piece. Rosettes and festoons are other characteristics of Adam furniture.

Comfort for All Rheumatics

Rheuma Gets to Work First Day—Drives Out the Poisonous Uric Acid and Brings Quick Relief

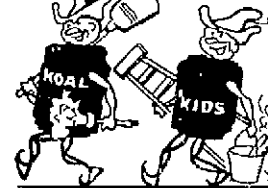

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma. Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family.

Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys, rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia.

It is a wonder worker; it never fails, never gives up until every trace of uric acid poison is expelled from the body.

TO GIVE CONCERT AT SANITARIUM

A group of entertainers, members of the Y.M.C.A., will visit the Essex Sanitarium Thursday evening and give a concert for the entertainment of disabled veterans of the World War, many of whom are Lowell boys, who are invalided there. The committee in charge consists of Rep. Thomas J. Corbett, John McCarry, Joe Flinnerty, John Shea and John O'Connell, and the entertainers follow: Miss Alice Dacey, Steve Conway, Mabel Hogan, Bernina Chiquette, Dorothy Nolan, Madeline McLaughlin, Joe Kelly, Frank Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angelo, James Cor-

AT THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN SCHOOL

"Constantine Duelle Jones," a three act comedy was presented in the assembly hall of the Lincoln school last night by members of the alumni as the special feature of the first annual "alumni night."

The affair proved to be very successful as the hall was filled with past graduates who, prior to the presentation of the play, renewed old school day acquaintances. The play was under the direction of D. Murray Cummings, master of the school, and Misses M. M. Kelly, A. C. Gray and J. T. Frawley.

The play is unusual in that it has no star, each part affording big lines and the alumni actors proved their ability by putting over their lines in a splendid way. Those taking part in the play follow:

TALK ON CONSTITUTION

Fourth in Series of Lectures

Pupils

Joseph P. Quinn, a member of the K. of C. lecture team which has been discussing various phases of the constitution for the benefit of the pupils of the Lowell high school, delivered the fourth in the series of illuminating discourses in Room 137 of the high school last evening, his subject being: "The Undoing of the Constitution."

Mr. Quinn, who will repeat his lecture in K. of C. hall at the conclusion of the regular business session tomorrow night, treated his subject in a clear and scholarly manner, impressing on his interested audience the many fine points embodied in the famous document.

In opening, Mr. Quinn gave a summary of the many movements now on foot to amend, change or ignore the constitution and particularly those movements which are directed against the authority of the supreme court. After briefly sketching in its historical background, he continued:

A man who had always enjoyed good health and who suddenly finds himself ill, begins to hear many things

of which he had previously worried little about, his "constitution"—and so, today, in an effort to heal the ills of our body politic, the quacks and respectable practitioners alike are prescribing for our national constitution. It is not surprising, therefore, that as a consequence the constitution is suffering from its friends and from its enemies, as it shall continue to suffer until we learn to let it alone.

In the last congress, which in this respect was little different from those which immediately preceded it, there were 109 bills and joint resolutions proposing to amend the constitution and since the first congress there have been approximately three thousand such attempts. What are the sources of this agitation and in what proposals does it find expression.

Setting aside the desire for change merely for love of change, there are other powerful forces at work and before we deal with fine theories we must face the cruel and unescapable logic of fact. The United States of 1924 is not the United States of 1787, nor is the temper of our people today what it was then. When the delegates of the original colonies met they had just escaped from the tyranny of an imperial and autocratic government without conscience. In their wisdom and out of bitter experience they erected in their constitution every possible safeguard that seemed to them practicable against too great a centralized governmental authority, going farther than any people had ever gone before or have since gone towards letting the people govern themselves. They reserved to the federal government only such incidental powers as are inseparable from its very existence. If you lose sight of this hard fact all the talk in the world about the constitution will not help you. The American constitution was designed first and foremost as a protection to the people from the possible injustice of their own federal government; if it has failed in any important particular, it has failed because the people have permitted the government at Washington to forget this fact.

Today instead of guarding against the possible autonomy of our federal government we are throwing over voluntarily on the federal government purely state functions. Governor Smith of New York and Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania have largely put the restriction and regulation of the liquor traffic up to the president and congress; industrial disputes have been similarly dealt with; the Mann act gives the federal government a limited regulation of public morality; were it not for a recent ruling of the supreme court, the federal government would have had the power to prohibit child labor in all states. There is also a sinister movement to put the supervision and conduct of education into the hands of a federal department and so on all down the line. If we continue to throw state burdens on the federal government we shall be going far away from the ideals of a republic and may erect instead a super government of departments and bureaus without number in which the constitution in time will have ceased to be a living thing and will become merely a piece of parchment in a glass case in the congressional library, of no use to the people as a shield against federal aggression. A few days ago I was pleased to read a warning by President Coolidge who urged the states to get back to their own legislative business.

Is there not abroad, too, a widespread movement to go light and to be less self-assertive on the strong national influences that made the United States a great democracy? Have we not all heard American men and women of much influence assert that our ideas of patriotism are old-fashioned and out of touch with the times? Is there not afoot a strong widespread and well-endowed movement to dilute our traditional American idealism with a weakening international sentimentality. When college professors, powerful preachers and eloquent propagandists tell us that it is not good taste to read the Declaration of Independence on the Fourth of July, and urge us to put the soft pedal on the "Star Spangled Banner," is it strange at all that the

BETTER WIVES AND MOTHERS

The emancipation of women as evidenced by the evolution in dress from steel stays that made a woman's waist and the long street sweeping skirts to the sports clothes of the present day has certainly had its effect upon the health of women. With proper attention to diet and exercise a race of better wives and mothers is assured by it. If, however, efforts develop as evidenced by irregularities, headache, nervousness and irritability, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be depended upon to overcome them. Thousands of women testify to its success.—Adv.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bed-time.

Thousands take them every night just to keep them right. Try them, 150 and 250.

NATIONAL BALLOON RACE

Pilots Ready for Big Event at Kelly Field, Texas, TC-3 Is Safe

RELEVILLE, Ills., April 23.—The United States army non-rigid dirigible TC-3, which left here yesterday in a flight to San Antonio, Tex., arrived at Scott field, shortly after 8:30 o'clock this morning. The TC-3 had been reported lost early this morning.

Seven Pilots Ready

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 23.—Seven pilots and their seven aides had completed all their preparations early today for the start this afternoon in the national balloon elimination race at Kelly field, except to inflate the great gas bags. This work will not be started until only a few hours before the race, and will be in charge of Lt. Frank Kehoe, hydrogen expert of the United States army in charge of gas activities for the lighter-than-air work at Scott field, Illinois.

The use of natural gas at Kelly field makes it possible to inflate the bags in a short time and because of this, Lieut. Kehoe predicted that new American and possibly world records would be broken.

Favorable weather conditions are predicted and the first balloon is scheduled to take the air at 4:30 p. m. The course is expected to be north-east. To break the world's record of 1835 miles, the winner must travel as far as Bangkok, Siam.

ample from a term on the railroad, since he's been connected with railroads for 59 years.

"I ascribe my long life to my ability to 'switch,'" he said. "I have been in the railroad business for 59 years and have associated with the successful construction men who built up the railroad systems of this country. Nearly all have died early or their health has been seriously impaired."

"A study of their lives has convinced me that it was their inability to get away from the problems that weighed upon them."

Mr. Depew hopes to speak again this year at the republican national convention. At the last one in Chicago he spoke for 45 minutes, and he has been attending them regularly since 1844.

Mr. Depew approves of women in politics, but thinks they take it all too seriously, especially their speeches, for they leave out funny stories and, according to his own statement, he'd rather tell funny stories than be president.

He believes President Coolidge will be re-elected and thinks the younger generation is headed in a direction opposite from the dogs. Some time the skies of life are cloudy, he admits, and often times, there are serious storms, but sunshine "is the prevailing condition."

FRATERNAL NEWS

The regular meeting of Loyal Wampanoag Lodge, I.O.O.F. No. 111, was held in Grafton hall Monday evening. N.G. Fred Corfield presided and a considerable amount of routine business, was transacted. Following the meeting, whist was enjoyed and an entertainment given by Brothers Waterman, Daley, Malmstead and Ferguson.

Wampanoag staff association met in the same hall Sunday morning but owing to the small attendance, no business of any importance was taken up.

Mary E. Smith tent, 23, met last night with President Douglas in the chair. A roll call of officers took place and considerable important business was acted upon.

Monday evening, in Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, a regular meeting of Princess lodge, I.O.O.F. of St. George, was held with Worthy President Susanah Watson in the chair. The lodge voted to attend the St. George day observance in St. John's church, joining with the Sons of St. George on this occasion.

Remarkable Discovery Banishes Gray Hair

Original Color Quickly Appears

Science again has scored a triumph in the discovery of a very remarkable liquid known as Kolor-Bak. If you are gray, just apply this liquid to the hair or scalp and your hair will soon take on the actual color it had in the past. Not a trace of grayness will remain.

Kolor-Bak comes in the form of a clean and colorless liquid, containing properties which quickly restore the lost color to the hair and give it renewed vigor. And note that the one preparation is for all colors of hair. No special solution required for each color—no samples of hair required.

You will find also that after using Kolor-Bak the hair has the same shade throughout. It does not appear streaked, faded or "died."

Every scientist, every physician, knows that gray hair is hair that has ceased to receive its normal supply of coloring matter or pigments from certain tiny cells (called follicles or papillae) in the scalp, because these cells have become inactive from illness, shock of some kind, scalp disease, glandular infection, neglect of the hair, or lack of circulation, etc. But no matter what the cause of the grayness, it is simply amazing to see how it disappears when Kolor-Bak is used. Kolor-Bak is a real substitute for the natural pigmentation.

Kolor-Bak has been proved by hundreds of thousands of people, once gray, now with hair in the original color. Get a bottle today.

HONDURAN REBELS CAPTURE CHOLUTECA

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, April 23.—The Honduran revolutionists have captured Choluteca and routed the counter-revolutionists, says a dispatch from La Esperanza. Sumner Welles, American envoy charged with pacifying the situation, is reported to have suggested an arrangement whereby Tegucigalpa would be turned over to the revolutionists in return for equitable treatment of the defenders of the capital.

FOREMAN IS ARRESTED NEW YORK CONVENTION

Charged With Accepting Money for Jobs in Brockton Shoe Factory

BROCKTON, April 23.—After an investigation by District Attorney Harold P. Williams, William H. Pierce, 10 Douglas avenue, foreman at the Diamond Shoe Co., in the making room, was arrested and charged with accepting money for jobs from five Lithuanians.

The complaint specifies the sum of $160 taken from the five men for giving them employment in the factory. Pierce in district court this morning pleaded not guilty.

CHAIRMANSHIPS OF G. O. P. CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Selections for the temporary and permanent chairmanships of the republican national convention are being given considerable thought by President Coolidge and he is expected to make known his preferences before next Wednesday, when the national committee's subcommittee on arrangements will meet at Cleveland.

The president conferred with a number of political leaders on the subject while in New York to address the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, but desired to consider the matter further here before making a decision. He is understood to be devoting chief attention to the temporary chairmanship, since the man selected for that post usually sounds the campaign keynote.

Former Governor Lowden of Illinois, is regarded by some as a likely choice among those mentioned for the temporary chairmanship. This opinion is based on the expectation that the president will favor the selection of a western or middle western man not connected officially with the administration. Others under consideration are said to include Secretary Hughes, Senator Willis of Ohio, Charles E. Dawes, Representative Longworth of Ohio, Senator Borah of Idaho, former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Governor Hyde of Missouri and Greenback of Michigan, and Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

AWAIT ALL REPLIES ON EXPERTS' REPORTS

PARIS, April 23.—The reparations commission has decided to wait until the answers of all the allied governments concerning the expert committees' reports have been received before meeting again. The replies have not arrived this morning and it is possible the commission will not convene until the beginning of next week.

CENTRAL BRIDGE BILL STILL IN LIMELIGHT

The bill of Lewis E. Moore, engineer for his services as consulting engineer in the historic Central bridge case, continues to be a departmental football at city hall. Approved a few weeks ago by the board of public service the bill recommending and it is possible the commission will not convene until the beginning of next week.

The French delegation is holding the reply of its government and will not communicate it to the commission's secretariat until the others are received.

The budget and auditing commission received the bill this morning from the mayor's office. With the bill came a letter stating that Mr. Moore be given a public hearing on the matter and that the board of public service and the city engineer be invited to appear and tell what they knew of the wheel and axle.

The board took the communication under advisement and the bill will appear, dust in the city auditor's pigeonhole until a decision is reached. The board this morning approved weekly bills amounting to $41,668.83.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL INVESTIGATION

Councillor John W. Daly, chairman of the isolation hospital investigation committee of the city council, has addressed to the city council, his report on the investigation of the isolation hospital. The report was made at a public hearing held at the city hall on Monday afternoon. The committee, headed by Councillor Daly, was organized to investigate the isolation hospital, which is a place where persons suffering from contagious diseases are confined. The committee's report was a lengthy one, covering the history of the hospital, its present condition, and the various problems connected with its operation. The committee recommended that the city should take certain steps to improve the hospital and to protect the public health.

PINCHOT BLAMES 'WETS' FOR HIS DEFEAT

Local Teacher Honored

The president of the institute to Mr. Harris, was read after the presentation. "I have the honor to advise you that the French Institute in the United States has awarded to Miss Adelaide Baker, through its Belles-Lettres section (The French Union), the Institute's Prize Associate medal (with ribbon), in recognition of her remarkably successful and unusual career in teaching the French language, and thus spreading a knowledge of French culture among American pupils, and is one of the chief objectives of the institute.

The city of Lowell, which is noted for its educational advantages, is to be congratulated on having had a teacher of such exceptional attainments at the head of the French department of its high school for the long period of years during which Miss Baker has held that position. Very few teachers of French in the United States have trained so many successful pupils in that language, and, therefore, the institute has selected her for special recognition.

"The institute attaches particular importance to the increase in the study of French in the United States, as its younger generation in the past has been unfortunately handicapped by the lack of knowledge of this language.

"French may properly be called a universal language for it is spoken by almost one hundred millions of people, if one includes in addition to the great French colonies, Switzerland, Belgium, Canada and several of the West Indian Islands, and in addition is the medium for the inter-communication of thought among cultured people all over the world, including particularly the Hispanic American countries where a great deal of business is transacted in French, as well as in Finland, the Balkan states, the Scandinavian countries and the east.

"It will unfortunately be impossible for any member of the executive committee of the French Institute to go to Lowell in the immediate future to present the honorific distinction of the institute to Miss Baker, and I therefore write to ask you if you would be so good as to present the institute in presenting the medal at the spring commencement of the high school. Our board will deeply appreciate your good offices in this connection, and our members, spread all over the United States, will be greatly gratified to know that a person who has so distinguished herself in the direct in which the institute was founded has been endorsed for proper recognition by your authority.

"We take the liberty of forwarding to you the medal and ribbon in case it is agreeable to you to act as heretofore set forth, for which please accept our thanks in advance.

"We would be glad to have you read this letter of commendation at the time of the presentation of the medal to Miss Baker.

"Very truly yours,
"McDUGALL, President."

The honor came as a surprise to Miss Baker and for a few moments she had considerable difficulty in controlling her emotion. She finally succeeded in thanking Mr. Harris for the institute for the great honor bestowed on her.

Miss Baker lives in the Centralville district of Lowell and received her education in the Vermont and high schools of this city and in Paris, France. For the past 33 years she has been a teacher of French in the high school and for many years has had charge of the French department. Her knowledge of French and her ability as a teacher has been recognized several times and she is now a reader for the College Entrance Examination committee.

A second feature of this afternoon's assembly was the presentation of pins and medals to members of the Frederick T. Greenhalge debating society teams who represented the society in the St. Joseph's debate and who are to take part in this evening's debate against Lawrence. Judge Frederick Greenhalge, son of the man for whom the society is named, pins were presented Alphonse Achin, president of the class of 1924; Merrill Calkins, colonel of the regiment; Anna Flennings, president of the debating society; and Maurice Kiegemant who compose the team to represent Lowell this evening, and beautifully bound copies of "The Life of Frederick T. Greenhalge" were presented the following, who compose the team which defeated St. Joseph's school recently: Gerald Quibby, Vincent McLean, James Lindquist and Edward O'Sullivan.

The first feature of the program was the report on the student drive for $200 for the erection of a running track at Alumni field. The amount reported today was disappointingly small and Mr. Harris announced the drive would be continued over the vacation instead of being brought to a close Friday, as was originally planned.

DO NOTHING ADMINISTRATION

While the investigations proceed at Washington, there is no indication as to when they will terminate or reach a finding in any particular case. As a result of the conflicts waged over immigration and other partisan questions, the passage of the tax reduction measure is delayed and thus we have uncertainty, suspense and lack of confidence in business. Apparently congress needs to be convinced that neither capitalists nor the captains of industry are likely to show any enthusiasm in business enterprise or manufacturing, if taxes ranging as high as 58 per cent of their earnings are confiscated by the government. That is one of the chief reasons why business languishes, and yet congress dabbles and haggles over less important affairs. Politics is apparently the chief concern of the administration at Washington today; but the people are waiting patiently for the day of reckoning on which they will have an opportunity to square accounts with the administration that holds the business interests of the country in such a state of uncertainty.

It is time to pull down the oppressive surtaxes and give business a chance to return to normal conditions. This is what the people want; but apparently congress is taking little heed of the industrial depression that prevails throughout the country and perhaps nowhere more severely than in the shoe and textile industries of New England. It would seem that congress is trying to rival Nero in his hysteria of fiddling while Rome burned.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

In his speech before the Associated Press in New York, President Coolidge outlined his stand in reference to the Dawes report and our foreign relations in a very candid and conservative manner.

He very wisely allowed that there is nothing left for the United States to do for the benefit of Europe until the reparations question between Germany and France shall have been settled; and he commended the Dawes report as an equitable basis for such settlement.

The feature of the address was his avowal of an intention to call another world conference for the further reduction of armaments and the promotion of world peace, after the reparations question shall have been settled. He urged business concerns in favor of a policy of participating in financing the works of peace in Europe providing that no funds advanced for such a purpose shall be diverted for the promotion of militaristic movements.

While he held that our first duty is to ourselves, and that American institutions must be preserved, he expressed himself as willing to exert the moral force of the United States in promoting the cause of world peace and the restoration of normal conditions in Europe. He felt that the final adjustment for the liquidation of reparations should be the beginning of a new era of peace and goodwill among the European nations; and he averred that the Dawes report was the greatest step in this direction since the armistice.

The president devoted a considerable part of his address to the question of "service" by government departments, and indirectly he expressed the rather surprising view that instead of faithful officials being numerous in the departments, he felt it rather surprising that they were so few. That view of the situation at Washington may explain the president's complacency; but we doubt whether his equanimity in this respect will be reflected or even approved throughout the country.

BYRON'S CENTENNIAL

April 10 marked the hundredth anniversary of the death of Lord Byron, the illustrious British poet, at Missolonghi in Greece. Although Byron longed to find himself famous, after the publication of "Childe Harold," his popularity in England was of comparatively short duration. For some reason, which has never come to light, he became very unpopular, possibly from his frequent outbreaks of riotous living.

In 1815, he married and from that time his troubles began. His wife left him a year later, although nobody knew exactly why. The tongues of the gossips were busy, however, and various causes were assigned for the separation. Evidently, Byron became disgusted with the shroud and gossip concerning his private life, and he left England in 1816 to return no more. He sailed for Greece and cast himself into the cause of Greek independence, with all his vigor and enthusiasm, although during the eight years after leaving England, he did perhaps the greater part of the literary work of his entire career.

From some of Byron's works, and especially the drama entitled "Cain," it might be supposed that he was something of a skeptic, and that he did not believe in religion of any kind, but, in a letter to his friend Thomas Moore, he distinctly stated that the characters in "Cain" did not represent his personal views relative to religion. He said he depicted the characters as he conceived they would speak under the circumstances in which they were found. Furthermore, it was known that he paid particular attention to the religious education of his daughter.

It was undoubtedly a fact that Byron's great genius as a poet was not appreciated in England until long after his death. Indeed, it is hardly sufficiently appreciated at the present day. It is doubtful if England ever produced another poet so richly endowed with what is known as the divine afflatus, or in other words, poetical genius. This is evident in Byron's style which has an easy and graceful flow, without the slightest appearance of effort. The most sublime passages in his works seem to be the spontaneous burst of inspiration, and it may be said of Byron that everything he wrote was of high literary excellence, while several of his poems such as his "Address to Ocean," "Waterloo," and some others, still stand unequalled in any language, by most critics, he is given second place to Milton, but his was a higher order of poetical genius than that of Milton. The latter derived much of his fame from the sublime subject of Paradise

Lost, just as the moon shines with reflective light.

It was a sad commentary on this illustrious poet, that when his body was returned to England to be placed in Westminster Abbey, the dean of that institution closed the doors against him, and the body was conveyed northward to Newstead Abbey, the ancestral seat of the poet's family. The rulers of Greece where he died, desired that he should sleep in the temple of Theseus at Athens, but his friends felt that he was entitled to a place in Westminster Abbey, which as stated, was denied him.

In the "Prisoner of Chillon," Byron displayed his devotion to the cause of freedom and wherever innocence and virtue were under the oppression of tyrannical power. Byron was their friend and defender. The asperities with which he was assailed are now dead, and on the occasion of his centennial anniversary, it is but right that the world should pay due honor to his name, and his superb genius as a poet.

THAT JAPANESE EPISODE

It seems that certain prominent European officials are ready to take advantage of the slight unpleasantness between the United States and Japan with a view to intensifying the ill feeling on the part of Japan and suggesting a union of the yellow races, against what they term the domination by the white race.

The ex-protector of Japan regrets the insult to his race implied in the exclusion clause of the immigration bill, but he says that war, as a result, is unthinkable and impossible. That was a sensible view of the situation and when the facts in the case are considered, it will be clearly seen that no such action would have been taken by the United States senate but for the arrogant attitude of the Japanese ambassador in writing a letter to our secretary of state predicting "serious consequences" if the immigration bill, as then proposed, should pass. What was all this, but a threat and an attempt to dictate what congress should or should not do, on a question affecting the domestic policies of the government.

Now comes Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik czar of Russia who says that the United States has become a colossal tower of Babel and is trying to digest in its stomach all the huge gains it amassed in the war. He also charges that it is placing aviation and aphylation gas foremost in its military armament, and is developing these destructive agencies, not only for a struggle against Japan, but also against Europe.

From this, it would appear that so far as Trotsky's influence goes, it would be on the side of Japan and against the United States, and possibly, also, against Europe. But the other powers of Europe and Asia are too well informed to be misled by anything said by this dictator, who, in the name of liberty, has outdone the worst tyrannies of all the Russian czars. He is warning the end of his rope in Russia, and for the sake of the Russian people, it is to be hoped that they will cast off the yoke that he has imposed upon them and their country with an iron hand.

Lenine is dead, and it is reported that Trotsky is losing the support of the Russian people, except, so far as he can maintain it, by military force. Bolshevism has proved to be merely a return to barbarism in Russia and its spread would overturn modern civilization. The United States refuses to recognize a country under the domination of such irresponsible tyrants and that is why Trotsky, after repudiating the debts of Russia, strives to misrepresent the United States, despite the fact that, through benevolent agencies from this country, we recently saved millions of his victims from death by starvation.

CHEERING AND HOOTING

Speeches at the coming conventions to nominate presidential candidates, will be broadcast powerfully enough to be heard by about 12 million radio fans.

Don't fail to tune in. It will be an education to follow the circus performances and learn of the "dignity" and high intelligence employed in nominating a candidate for the presidency at either of the big party conventions. It does not seem that there will be much of a contest at the republican convention as President Coolidge has a lead that practically puts the other candidates out of the running.

Good luck to the high school track team starting today for Philadelphia. May they bring back the laurel bays of victory!

SEEN AND HEARD

Speaking of horses, the Prince of Wales' hobby is horses, but this is one hobby he can't ride.

Anything can happen these days. A prominent movie star says she is not contemplating divorce.

A dancer is returning to Russia with 36 trunks. The funny part is they are not dancing trunks.

Coolidge says he will meet the farming problems. Hope he doesn't shake hands and pass them by.

A Thought

We take less pains to be happy than to appear so.—Rochefoucauld.

Wrong Inference

An American, motoring through a small Scottish town, was pulled up for excessive speed. "Didn't you see that notice, 'Dead Slow?'" said the policeman. "Of course I did," answered the American, "but I thought it referred to your town!"

Jenious Competitor

"What kind of a place is your neighborhood town of Torquidity?" asked a recently arrived guest. "Well, I'll tell you," replied the landlord of the tavern at Grudge. "The Ku Klux Klan made a parade there one night last week and the folks called it an 'o'ry.'—Kansas City Star.

The Price of Genius

Actress—Well, of all the nerve. This is outrageous. There was only one box of chocolates sent up to me from the audience. Manager—Well, what of it. What are you grumbling about? Actress—Grumbling—I like that; grumbling, when I paid for five.—Detroit News.

"Information" Desired

Little Elmore, aged 3, who has recently moved from a distant city, responds frequently with Mary, who was her closest chum. A few days ago Elmore received a letter from Mary which said: "Tell me when your birthday comes for I want to send you a present. My birthday is next Tuesday."—Indianapolis News.

"Chris" for Short

"Why do you call your wife Chris?" This was the question put to a gentleman by a lodge brother who had met the lady once or twice. "Because that is her name." "Seems an odd name for a woman." "Well, her folks gave her a floral name. Her full name is Chrysanthemum. Of course, I might use the last syllable, but her husband wouldn't, but she's never mind."

Price of a Wife

Frederick O'Brien, author of South Sea Island adventures, was entertaining friends at his Glendale home with some of his experiences. He shared to remark that one of the islands a wife could be bought for the equivalent of $5. "How perfectly awful!" exclaimed one of the ladies present. "I don't know," reflected her husband, "I suppose prices are high there, just the same as everywhere else."

Iceman Knows

When the iceman came out of the house he found a small boy sitting on one of his blocks. "Here," he roared, "what are you sitting on that for? Get off of it!" The boy raised a tear-stained face. "Was you ever a boy?" he inquired faintly. "Of course I was," said the iceman, frowning. "But—'Ain't you ever play truant?' put in the youngster. "Of course I did," said the iceman. "Now, then, you—'Ain't you got home did your father take a stick at you?' 'Sit where you are, my little man,' said the iceman. 'I understand.'—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

After Deliberation

A young farmer of Clay county, who was soon to be married, was asking his older brother about such matters as getting a license and having the ceremony performed, when the brother asked: "Who are you going to have marry you, a preacher of the gospel or a justice of the peace?" The prospective bridegroom hesitated. "I had a preacher of the gospel," his brother said. "The young man thought of the winking long eye, and he said: 'I was wrong. Yes, and you've been listening to sermons ever since.'—Los Angeles Times.

Musical Dicker

Viscount Glenawly said at a dinner: "The rich are everywhere since the war. A chap called been a dicker or got rich somehow, and the other day a piano was delivered at his estate. A neighbor said on seeing it arrive: 'You're putting on side, man. But you won't keep that thing long, mark me.' Well, the very next day the new-rich dicker wheeled his piano out on a hand cart and started down the road. 'He ho!' laughed the neighbor. 'I told you that you wouldn't keep her long.' 'That your face, you fool,' said the new-rich dicker. 'I'm off for my first music lesson.'—Los Angeles Times.

The Bluebird

I know the song that the bluebird is singing. Out in the apple tree, where he is swinging. Brave little fellow; the skies may be dreary— Nothing cares he while his heart is so cheery. Hark! how the music leaps from his throat! Hark! how there ever so merry a note! Listen a while, and you'll hear what he's saying. Up in the apple tree, swinging and swaying.

"Dear little blossoms under the snow. You must be weary of winter, I know; Hark, while I sing you a message of cheer! Summer is coming! and springtime is here!"

"Little white snowdrops! I pray you arise; Bright yellow crocuses! come open your eyes. Sweet little violets, hid from the cold. Put on your mantles of purple and gold. Daffodils! Daffodils! say, do you hear? Summer is coming! and springtime is here!"

—EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER.

REGISTRATION SESSION

The elections board yesterday added 157 names to the check lists at the result of a thirteen-hour session in the office at city hall. The registration: 11, ward 3, 12; ward 4, 8; ward 5, 11; ward 6, 10; ward 7, 10; ward 8, 26; ward 9, 21; ward 10, 157.

SENATOR WHEELER'S PROSECUTORS

Here are first pictures of the three men instrumental in obtaining indictment of Senator B. K. Wheeler, Montana senator and prosecutor in Washington investigations. In the center is John L. Shattley, U. S. attorney for Montana, and Ronald Higgins and W. R. Meigs, his assistants. They gathered and presented to the federal grand jury in Montana evidence which resulted in Wheeler's indictment.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

There was much hilarity exhibited at the meeting of the Lions' club yesterday noon when announcement was made that the 60th member had been acquired in the person of John Fraser. According to the constitution of the international association of the Lions' clubs, an associate club cannot secure a recognized charter until a membership of 60 has been attained. The local organization, organized but a few months ago, rejoiced yesterday when Mr. Fraser presented himself at the regular weekly meeting and was "admitted" into the ranks. With his initiation, King Lion Bartlett forwarded a charter application to international headquarters, and a record of the application is expected shortly. The service of the club, a big "Charter night" will be held in Liberty hall of the Memorial Auditorium.

The police department gave a fine example of preparedness Monday evening, when a boat and a crew of officers were rushed to the Centralville bank of the Merrimack river about five minutes after a man had leaped over the railing of Central bridge. The apparatus was on the scene before the residents in the vicinity had been made aware that a mishap had taken place. Among the first to arrive was Supt. Atkinson himself, who supervised the work of dragging the darkened waters.

Lowell Knights of Columbus are still talking about the marvelous social abilities of Hon. George Henry Bolvin, A.M., of Canada, who delivered a stirring address in the local council's rooms Monday evening. It often happens that speakers become more or less lifelike to an audience, especially when speaking at great length. This was not so in the case of the distinguished Canadian visitor. After he had been talking for about an hour, he glanced at his watch and decided that it was about time to stop. "Go on," he roared the large gathering, and Hon. Mr. Bolvin continued for another hour, always pleasing and interesting. He promised to return to Lowell some time again.

With the departure today of the Lowell high school track delegates to the Pennsylvania relay carnival in Philadelphia comes the announcement that James Daley, captain of the team during the past indoor season, will matriculate at Exeter academy next fall. The New Hampshire institution should consider itself indeed fortunate in securing as talented an athlete as the speedy Lowell boy. He is a star in track and in baseball. Exeter's gain, to be sure.

The hall stones that hit my window as I pounded away at the typewriter yesterday afternoon were the biggest in size I have ever seen. Looking down on the street I found here and there to escape the miniature cannon-balls occasioned by the frozen raindrops. I thought it all, however, Harry Maron, traffic guardian in the square, remained at his post and smiled.

Uncle Sam's sales of surplus army and navy supplies are getting down to the bottom of the pile. The war department, chief auctioneer, has reported covered nearly three billion dollars this way. Some of the supplies brought more than they originally cost. Others sold for less than a cent on the dollar. Most of the stuff went dirt cheap. In marketing the three billion dollars' worth of supplies, the government has spent two million dollars advertising. Personal salesmanship, without advertising, would have cost many times as much. It pays to advertise.

"I am having a most interesting trip through northern Africa," writes Col. William A. Gaston. "The cities are very modern; roads perfect. Have traveled over 1500 miles by motor. All natives pleasant and contented." That is slightly different from what we would expect from north Africa.

international constitution. But in some next attack should be against the constitution. This is the logical outcome of a pernicious teaching that to my mind is as dangerous to the United States as the soviet's doctrine of quarters if you preach the soviet brand, you are regarded, as you should be, as a dangerous individual, while if you preach the wishy-washy hands across the sea drive, you are looked upon as a very nice American indeed. But not out of such stuff was the constitution made.

After dwelling upon the war influences which have caused widespread unrest and the "widespread and vigorous reaction to the speed by which the 18th and 19th amendments were enacted," the speaker dealt with the argument that the supreme court has not the power to annul acts of congress, and checked historical attacks on the court along similar lines showing that as early as 1820 there was an attempt in the United States senate to do away with five to four decisions. In all he said, there have been approximately 80 acts of congress nullified by the court and only nine of these were by five to four decision. He then reviewed in detail the five to four decisions of the supreme court and in this connection strongly urged that there should be no change in the present system such as is being advocated by Senators Borah and La Follette. Continuing, he said:

The matters that come before the supreme court are generally matters of grave moment, requiring the keenest analysis, the most dispassionate judgment and a deep knowledge of historical and legal precedent. Such matters usually affect the rights and liberties

CONSTANCY

Out upon it, I have loved
Three whole days together;
And am like to love three more
If it prove fine weather.

Time shall moul away his wings,
Ere he shall discover
In the whole wide world again
Such a constant lover.

But the spite on't is, no praise
Is due at all to me;
Love with me had made no stays
Had it any been but she.

Had it any been but she,
And that very face,
There had been at least ere this,
A dozen in her place.

PUTTERING AROUND

Hal Cockran's DAILY POEM

The family gets set for an afternoon out. The auto is oiled up and gassed. The kids clamor in with a whoop and a shout and everything's ready at last.

Then dad takes the crank and he gives it a spin. He's greeted with rattling and clatter. The engine is stubborn, it just won't begin, and gosh only knows what's the matter.

So mother just sits while the youngsters throw fits and dad takes the tools from the rack. There's plenty of frettin' while father is gettin' right down to what's holding them back.

It's tinker with this and it's tinker with that, perhaps till the day's mostly done. The engine is fixed—then a tire goes flat when the auto is ready to run.

The family was set for an afternoon grand to go a put-putting 'round. But dad did his puttering, not as he planned, but with both of his feet on the ground.

ST. PETER'S CADETS' DRAMATIC CLUB

At the regular weekly meeting of St. Peter's Cadets last evening, the Cadet Dramatic club made its initial appearance in public, presenting a one-act farce entitled: "A Man With a Nose." The play was given under the direction of Mr. Francis Ryan and the cast of characters was as follows:

Cast of Characters

Glimme Doonut	Don. Marshall
Musaphia Bile	John Hickey
Widewake	Gerald Hennessey
His Blondie Walter	Phil MacGowan
The Man With the Nose	B. Sullivan
Officer 299	Frank Early
Judge	Joseph Howe
Clerk of Court	Francis Fanning

Other entertainers on the program were S.S. George, James Crowe, John Burns, the latter acting as stage director. The electrical effects were contrived by Michael Hamilton.

Rev. Peter T. Lynch and Rev. Francis L. Shea were present as invited guests. General arrangements were in charge of Rev. John M. Shanon, spiritual director of the organization.

of all the people and often, too, affect our international relationships—such as were involved in the California exclusion acts. Do you think such things could be dealt with more safely in the house and senate where men are lined up in party arrays, and where too often measures are voted on with an eye to the vote bank home, than in the calm, deliberative councils of the supreme court where nine men are selected from the great lawyers of the whole nation primarily for their legal fitness to pass upon such measures within the constitutional safeguards. It may be that the supreme court is not as well oiled at present as some other departments of the government, but I doubt much that the interests of efficiency or of national security would be served by the proposed change.

For almost 140 years the supreme court has tested the legality of acts by the terms of the constitution and we have fared well under its direction. Why should we change now and adopt dangerous experiments? Let us see to it that it shall not be undone, but that it shall continue to be what it has proved to be from the foundation of the republic—the most wonderful document ever evolved for the government of peoples from the dawn of history until today. Let the parties come and go according to the fluctuations of popular favor; let them champion this and that and divide the spoils of office in the well established manner, but let us leave to the supreme court the permanence of the clear in the old song:

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING

At last evening's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, held in one of the assembly rooms in the Y.W.C.A. building in John street, with president, Mrs. Rose Jordan Hartford in the chair, several important business matters were discussed.

Miss Eleanor Rivet, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. A communication from Miss Ursula K. Toomey, chairman of the Massachusetts Federation of Business Women's clubs, inviting members of the local organization to attend the convention to be held in Worcester on Saturday, May 3, was read by Miss Rivet. Among the prominent speakers at the convention will be Catherine Blackford, noted New York character analyst, M. E. Prechart and others.

The "Springfield Bloomer," a short composition bounding the convention, was also read.

erly of Chicago, well known critic, and one time editor of the society page of Morrissey's Weekly, who is now residing in this city, read an original poem, dedicated to the local organization.

"MY IRISH ROSE" AT ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Final arrangements are being made for the presentation of "My Irish Rose," the three-act comedy to be given by the St. Columba's Dramatic society in the Academy of Music on the evenings of April 24 and 25. The players are being directed by Thomas Deane and Michael Mahoney. The cast is comprised wholly of local talent.

THINGS OVER"

ret with the Davis cup committee Friday to talk things over."

In a letter of invitation Julian S. Yrick, chairman of the Davis cup committee, expressed surprise that the committee had not been asked to represent the American tennis community in the American tennis country in international competition when called upon.

"You have been invited to play for your country as an American champion and it is a disgrace to cross the minds of the committee that you would refuse or even hesitate. You are eligible to represent this country in the contests mentioned," the letter stated.

"Inasmuch as you are present at the Davis cup meetings of the American tennis committee," it continued, "it is difficult to conceive your having any doubt whatsoever with regard to all to play. If the Buffaloes think that they have a team that can compete with the Emeralds, the Emeralds now issue a final challenge to that team. If the Buffaloes do not appear on the North common next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock ready to play or make arrangements for a game at a future date, the Emeralds will accept the challenge.

Emeralds schedule. The team has flexibly arranged for two games for next Saturday at 1 o'clock. The first will be the annual All-Stars and Sunday with the "Cardinals" at 5 o'clock, both games to be played on the North common. As far as the Emeralds are concerned, there seem to be but three teams to consider themselves in the A-B level, yet old friends but they are still waiting for a word from the Maples, Grand A. C. Pawtucket All-Stars, Colburn Hustlers and the Burnards. For games call 5262-R, between 6 and 5 o'clock any evening.

Thanking you in advance, we remain,

Yours truly,

Following players are requested to be present: McVey, Connors, Quinn, Moylan, Garabedian, Nestor, McFluskey, O'Brien, Gibbons, Donahue.

The Belvidere Mohawks defeated the Tigers, 14 to 10 in their regular, "Red" Hill game, Saturday night, in a wonderful game. With the score tied and the bases full, Poltski came through with a homer.

The North End Juniors will play the Emeralds Saturday. They would like to know who the Wonders are. If the Wonders want a game with the Juniors, they will play a new Sunday game. The manager may be seen on the North common any evening this week.

The Hurd Street Blues are looking for games. Their lineup is as follows: Fred Smith, pitcher; Leonard Rogers, R. Ikegan, 1b; Hanley 2b; W. Rogers 3b; R. Hanson ss; F. Olmker c; J. Sackel, of and J. Melburn lf. Address all challenges to 14 Hurd street. All 13-14 year-old teams will be accommodated.

Are Golden Bears Due For Upset?

N.E.A. Service
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., April 23.—The western college sport-ing world will "come in" on the annual University of California-Stanford track meet April 25. It promises to be the greatest meet ever staged between the ancient rivals.

California—three national cham-pions—Is figured to lose by most crit-ics, while the red-shirted track and field men are rated as potential na-tional champions.

California and Stanford have met in this sport every year since 1891. Now, the Bears sit on top, having won 18 meets; the Cards were victors in 12, and they tied twice.

Captains Out of It
Neither Captain Nelson Van Judah

of Stanford nor Captain Bill Neufeld of the Bears is expected to take part in his events. Van Judah, expected to develop into the best coast quarter-miler, dropped from the picture when Harold Miller, a sophomore, came through with a rush.

Neufeld, a good javelin thrower and handy with the shot and discus, will lose the shot and discus to Glenn "Play" Hartman of Stanford.

Hartman threw the discus farther than any mortal had ever thrown it in competition against University of Southern California last month, but stepped over the foul mark, and thus is not an established world champion.

Hartman tosses the discus regularly around 154 feet and he is one of the three men in the world who can put the shot over 50 feet.

Becker Is Dark Horse
Hartman holds the I.C.A.A.A. record with the discus, while he won the shot-putting contest in the same meet, in 1922.

Stanford appears to be particularly strong in the sprint and distance run-ning events, while California will gather her greatest strength in the field.

Marshall Hale and Jan Campbell bid fair to win the 100-yard dash and the 220 for Stanford over Phil Barber, the Bears' best man.

And Hugo Leinster, a junior, looks to be the class of the Pacific coast in the hurdles races, though Al Becker is somewhat of a California dark horse—and may spring the surprise of the day.

Bill Richardson, in the half-mile, is easily the best man, and Stanford may even want a shutout team to the track in Richardson, Macintosh and William Swayne. Allan Charles, Stanford two-miler, has won that event in both Stanford's preliminary meets.

TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIPS

CAMBRIDGE, April 23.—The University of Southern California, recently elected a member of the I.C.A.A.A., will send a team of 12 athletes to compete in the Eastern Intercollegiate track and field championships at the Harvard stadium, May 20 and 21. A. C. Blockford, Harvard undergraduate track manager, announced today. Assurance that 50 members of the I.C.A.A.A.A. will be represented at the meet has been received.

University of California, which will seek its fourth consecutive triumph in the stadium will oppose Stanford in the objective dual meet of the Pacific coast season next Saturday and ex-pect track managers will watch the event with interest as the leading per-formers of both teams will be sent to the games here. Stanford did not compete last year.

Housh Out of Game
CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 23.—Eddie Roush, star outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, who wrapped his side in bat-ting practice last week, will not ac-company the team to Pittsburgh today. George Harper will continue to play center field through the Pacific series. Roush hopes to be in condition to re-sume his place in the lineup when the team returns to Cincinnati Sunday.

Key to Meet Martin
MANCHESTER, N. H., April 23.—Thirty-six rounds of boxing under the auspices of the 112nd Field Artillery, with the feature bout one of 10 rounds between Terry Martin, of Providence, and Leo Roy, feather-weight champion of Canada, is ex-pected to be a magnet for the fight fans in Manchester and surrounding cities. The artillery unit, with Sam Harris at matchmaker, has practically completed details for the show at the state armory Thursday afternoon, and is anticipating a huge crowd.

The semi-final bouts up as a good battle itself. This brings together Jackie Clark and Al Champagne. The preliminaries will be between George Erne, and Young Biron, of Lawrence; Clifford Mayden, of Nashua, and Al Peckey, of the service battery and Al Toole and Harold Austin.

VILLA MEETS MCKENNA
CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—Pan-cho Villa, flyweight champion, and Edie McKenna, New Orleans bantam-weight, meet here tonight in the head-liner of Cleveland's professional boxing show in three years.

Savior Friedman, Chicago, and Alex. Hart, Lorain, meet in the semi-final and Harry Gordon, New York, and Al Zie-mer, Cleveland, in the third ten round bout. All are to a decision.

WRESTLING BOUTS
Len Garrison and Bob Johnson will surely meet with difficulties as they meet next Tuesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Wrestling Show. Both claim they will win in less than 10 minutes and they are wrestling for over 40 hours two years ago to get a title. It would not be surprising if it went the limit. Garrison will finish his training doing road work Tuesday morning on the boulevard. He is working hard at Shawneen park every day in preparation for Tiger Pearson. Regard is out to meet any local man at 160 lbs. in-cluding Christ, Roberts and Savage. Butler Cleveland will officiate at these bouts and Physical Director C. B. Towne will have general supervision of the arrangements and will keep time.

CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE
Invitations were sent out today to various churches of the city for en-rollment in the Church Baseball League. Several churches have already or-ganized teams and pledged their in-terest in participating in the league. A meeting for organization and drawing up of schedules will be held at the Y.M.C.A. at 7:15 p. m. Thursday, May 1st. If for any reason a church does not receive one of the letters of in-vitation they are invited to have rep-resentatives at this meeting.

OIL THE WINNER
If the wringer works with difficulty, put a little kerosene oil on the cranks and work them for a few seconds, then wipe and put in a few drops of ma-chine oil.

WASHING LACES
Wash laces, veils, and delicate lace fabrics in water, using gum arabic to stiffen them, if they seem to have lost their original freshness.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS SEN. WALSH RETURNS CHECK FOR $200

Many Visitors Coming Here in May to Attend Fourth Degree Exemption

The Fr. Gabriel Drulleto assem-bly, fourth degree, K. of C. of South-ern Essex county will come to Lowell in May to attend the fourth degree exemption with 150 members, one third of whom will be candidates. The Bishop Stang assembly of Fall River will bring 100 men here, fifty of whom will be honored with the de-gree.

These items of business were among the important matters considered at the regularly weekly meeting of the exemption committee last night. In a two-hour session, many matters of import were considered and passed upon and when the letters from assem-bles throughout the state were read, evidencing unalloyed interest in the Lowell degree, there was much en-thusiasm. The sub-committee on the dinner, Sir Knight John E. Hart, chair-man, the sub-committee on member-ship, Sir Knight William H. Gallagher, chairman, submitted reports of a very interesting character.

Sir Knight Edward F. Saunders was designated as chairman of the sub-committee on equipment acting in con-junction with a regular committee designated by Louis Watson, master. Sir Knight Charles H. Burns was added to the sub-committee authorized to se-cure hotel accommodations for visit-ing knights. It is now apparent that Lowell will have many visitors on that day and preparations will be made to entertain them. The fourth degree knights from Southern Essex county are now making plans for a special dinner at noon prior to the confer-ring of the degree. Others are planning similar functions either Sunday noon or Saturday evening. Sir Knights Hugh Maguire and John J. Llane were designated a committee in charge of the police arrangements, and a large corps of ushers recruited from the members of Bishop Delany assembly will assist at the Auditorium and Li-berty halls on the day of the degree.

THAW DECLARED SANE

Still Held as Counsel for Evelyn Nesbit Prepares to Ask for New Trial

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Al-though he was declared sane and fully capable of managing his own affairs by a jury in common pleas last night, Harry K. Thaw today was still in the Penn-sylvania Hospital for Mental and Nervous Diseases, where he has been confined for the last seven years.

After the verdict had been brought in, William A. Gray, counsel for Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife, whose 12-year-old son was permitted to in-tervene in the trial, requested the us-ter four days in which to file a mo-tion and reasons for a new trial. The motion was granted and Judge Mon-ahan, before whom the case was heard, held Thaw in the custody of the court pending his disposition. No time was set for the hearing of the motion. Meanwhile Thaw must remain in the asylum.

In announcing that he would ask for another trial, Mr. Gray said he also spoke for Arthur G. Dickson, counsel for the trustees of Thaw's estate, who also opposed his release. Thaw said he would not make any definite plans for the future until his case finally was disposed of. He returned to the asy-lum shortly before midnight.

HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMEN PLAY ST. JOSEPH'S

The high school freshmen baseball team opened the baseball season this afternoon at Alumni field against a team representing St. Joseph's school. This year's freshmen schedule calls for more games than in former years and is as follows: Freshmen vs. Chelms-ford, May 2; St. Joseph's, May 6; Voca-tional, May 12; Chelmsford, May 13; and Vocational, June 2.

The junior high school schedule is as follows:

BOXER KAYOED LAST NIGHT DIED TODAY

BOSTON, April 23.—Frank Molnar of the Roxbury district, who was knocked out by Jimmy Picard of East Boston in the first round of the final in the 112 pound class of the open bouts in a connection with the inter-cally amateur boxing bouts in the Arena last night, died at a hospital to-day.

Molnar's head struck the floor, caus-ing concussion of the brain, and he was carried from the ring. He had pre-viously given the fans a surprise by winning the decision over Harry Gold-stein of Boston in the semi-final three round bout. Molnar's gold teeth were found three times in the first round.

TILDEN DECLINES INVITATION
PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, today declined the invitation of Ju-lian S. Myrick, chairman of the Amer-ican Davis cup committee to discuss his resignation at a conference in New York on Friday.

Mr. Tilden stated that he had a pre-vious engagement to play in exhibition games in the south.

MARJORIE RAMBEAU BETTER
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—The condition of Miss Marjorie Ram-beau, actress, who was stricken here with acute appendicitis, was reported by her physicians today to be greatly im-proved. It was said that at her present rate of improvement it was be-lieved an operation would not be necessary.

Ships plying between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the United States ordinarily handle more than two-fifths of the total cargo shipped through the Panama canal.

POP WARNER TAKES OVER HIS NEW JOB ON COAST

Pop Warner is already on the job at Stanford University on the Pacific slope teaching his new charges advanced foot-ball forms. Warner is in the midst of an active spring campaign which is to last for five weeks. The venerable Pop left Pittsburg, where he turned out a number of great teams, to sign with Stanford for three years. This picture shows Warner talking things over with his team leader, Jim Lawson.

PRES. COOLIDGE SWEEPS NEW JERSEY PRIMARIES

NEWARK, N. J., April 23.—Pres-ident Coolidge yesterday overwhelmed Senator Ilram W. Johnson in the New Jersey preferential primary. With 479 election districts still unreported, the president had a lead of nearly 80,000 votes, which was increased by belated returns.

President Coolidge captured the en-tire slate of 21 republican national convention delegates. The seven Coolidge delegates-at-large were leading their Johnson opponents by about 70,000 votes, while in the congressional districts the Coolidge candidates were well ahead in every contest.

The latest figures were: For presi-dential preference: Coolidge 90,274; Johnson 10,487.
Governor George S. Slizer was en-dorsed by the democrats for the presi-dential nomination.

OKLAHOMA Primaries
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 23.—Of a national committee, and state Election of seven delegates-at-large to the national convention, selection chairman, framing of a platform, and endorsement of a presidential candi-date are on the program of the state republican convention here today.

Several district conventions have se-lected convention delegates instructed for Calvin Coolidge and it is consid-ered certain by party leaders that the delegates-at-large will be similarly in-structed.

Destructive Fire at Plant of Wamesit Chemical Company

SCENE AT THE FIRE WHEN FLAMES REACHED THEIR HEIGHT—MEN OF ENGINE 7 FIGHTING IT AT CLOSE RANGE

Fire of unknown cause, breaking out in the ivory waste storage building of the Wamesit Chemical company in Wamesit at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, completely destroyed the waste building and seriously damaged an adjoining building used for the manufacture and storage of lactic acid, causing damage estimated at $200,000.

John H. Murphy of Lowell, treasurer and general manager of the company, was notified and requested Chief Saunders to send all available Lowell apparatus to the fire. Engine 4 and District Chief Sullivan answered the first call for aid and at Chief Sullivan's request, Engine 7 and Truck 1 were ordered to his assistance.

For over an hour the combined fire departments fought a losing battle with the flames sweeping through the two buildings just one fire wall and the fire was only brought under control when the second fire wall was reached. At this point the Lowell firemen brought several lines of hose into action and succeeded in drowning the flames. The fire was under control at 1 o'clock but it was several hours before it was deemed safe for the Lowell apparatus to leave the scene and until late in the evening employees of the plant kept several streams of water on the destroyed buildings to prevent any recurrence of the blaze.

AUDIT OF HAMON ESTATE

Thornton Denies Oklahoma Man Gave Million Toward Harding Nomination

TULSA, Okla., April 22.—Frederick L. Thornton, certified public accountant, who made an audit of the estate of Jake L. Hamon, republican national committeeman from Oklahoma before and after his death, denied last night that Hamon contributed $1,000,000 toward the nomination of Warren G. Harding as has been charged in testimony before the senate oil investigating committee. He said Hamon's campaign contributions in 1920 did not exceed $100,000.

Thornton left last night for Washington in response to a request from the senate public lands committee to appear before it and tell what he knows regarding "the business and political ventures" of Hamon. He took with him all data Hamon audits have disclosed, he said.

L. W. BATES, EXPERT ON WATERWAYS, DEAD

PARIS, April 22.—London Wallace Bates, of Mount Lebanon, N. E., engineer, who achieved international note as an expert on waterways, died here today from a stroke of paralysis, after a three years' illness. His body will be returned to the United States to be placed beside that of his son, London Bates, Jr. who lost his life in the sinking of the Lusitania in 1915. He was born at Marshfield, Vt., in 1858.

Mr. Bates became noted as a waterways expert in the early 80's with the invention of an improved dredge, which he used in connection with the dredging of the Kaw river and the filling in of the present site of the stockyards at Kansas City, Mo. Later he carried on similar operations in the Chicago Drainage canal and the delta at the mouth of the Mississippi river.

At the invitation of the Australian government, he designed the harbor for the city of Brisbane and eight other ports and made extensive plans for the regulation of a number of Australian rivers.

In the United States, one of his most important projects was raising the grade of the city of Galveston, Tex., thereby insuring the safety of the city against floods.

MEMBERSHIP LIST FULL

Lowell Lions Club Reaches Goal Which Entitles it to Organization Charter

The 60th member required by the International Association of Lions clubs before a charter can be granted to a branch of the organization was attained by Lowell Lions club yesterday, when John W. Fraser completed the list by presenting himself at the weekly luncheon at the Y.M.C.A. this noon. In observance of the event the Lions will hold a big "charity night" in Liberty hall when the International sends along the coveted document. Preliminary plans for this feature were laid of today and call for a dinner between the hours of 8 and 8 p. m., with ladies invited.

King Lion Charles Bartlett presided at the meeting today. The speaker was Thomas F. Fisher, principal of the Lowell Vocational school. He was introduced by one of his former pupils, Chester M. Runcie, and gave an illuminating talk on the objects and the methods of instruction in the training school under his charge.

The teachers in the Vocational school, he said, are trained mechanics and arrange their courses in a progressive order. The students must be at least 15 years of age to gain admittance and they must be capable of profiting by instruction. He explained the various departments in the school, the machine, carpenter, electrical and automobile. At present, he stated, there are 200 boys and 100 girls enrolled in the school, and their work has merited commendation from outside sources.

FATHER AND SON TO MARRY SISTERS

BROCKTON, April 22.—Wedding invitations were filed at city hall today by George S. Hendrick, 78 Warren avenue and Winnifred Mae Taylor, 3 Oakdale street, and Edward Allan Hendrick, 78 Warren avenue, and Pauline N. Taylor, 2 Oakdale street. The former is sales manager of the W. L. Douglas Shoe Co., and is father of Edward A. Hendrick, the latter an advertising man for the Boston Advertiser. The young Hendrick is a Yale man and has worked for several newspapers in New England. The two bride-elects are sisters and are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Taylor. Mr. Taylor is superintendent of the W. W. Cross, Inc., tack factory.

SEVERAL HURT IN CHURCH AT NICE, FRANCE

NICE, France, April 22.—Several persons were hurt in a church here yesterday between 10 and 11 o'clock on one side and members of labor unions and the Association of Victims of the Great War on the other. The trouble occurred when the unionists and war victims attempted to prevent a church service at which the Fascist flag was to be hoisted. The Fascists were rescued by police reserves.

ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

Charles T. Hatfield Eulogizes Coolidge and Discusses Political Familars

Hon. Charles E. Hatfield of Newton, present Middlesex county treasurer and active for many years in state and national politics of the G. O. P. label, appeared before Lowell Rotarians yesterday as an invited guest and speaker, joining his wide-awake hosts in friendly confabulations during the weekly dinner and addressing the Rotarians for three-quarters of an hour immediately after the repast. Attendance at today's affair was large notwithstanding inclement weather conditions.

The Hatfield speech was entirely informal, but had a wide range of vivid interest, from frank descriptions of the desyncratic presidential candidates of former campaign periods, to the fads and fancies of latter-day office-seeking down to Calvin Coolidge, who, Mr. Hatfield declared with emphasis, "is the Man of Destiny."

Stories relating to the late Theodore Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson and Harding were told in language of candor and simplicity, revealing in the course of each happy narrative some of the little known qualities and personal attributes of the former presidents of the republic.

Before delving into politics and sidelights, Mr. Hatfield, who is former baseball player, told funny yarns about old diamond days in Providence and other cities on the ancient baseball circuits, when George Wright, Lou Brown, Joe Starr, Bill Hayden, Paul Hines, Eugene Sutton and the Cuppy twins owned all the stars in sight.

Mr. Hatfield also reviewed unusual experiences he has had in Massachusetts state politics. Chats with former Governor Foss, who sought the Hatfield influence in "swinging" G. O. P. votes his way during one bout of the State political fight for the governorship, were described by the speaker, with apt allusions to Foss machine tactics and the methods of securing personal endorsements by the "letter to Foss" system.

There were reminiscences of Frank Jones, famous in New England liquor brewing circles in former years; Archie Butt, now-time aide to President Roosevelt and who lost his life on the Titanic; happy reference to "Cathery" of the Boston Post and praise for newspaper reporters who "always go more than half way with persons interviewed." Senator Lodge, when the latter was first an aspiring G. O. P. candidate for almost any Bay State office; Benjamin F. Butler and the Butler Robinson campaign; last but not least, the visits to the home of Calvin Coolidge, with Rotarian William N. Goodell of Locks and Canals proprietors' offices. On every journey both men had good time talking and joking with "Cal."

Mr. Hatfield's speech contained passages that called for thoughtful attention, when he declared that political party organization was "absolutely necessary to good government." He declared that politics was "a clean game when played clean" and he declared that it needed "better men today to make it clean." The trouble has been, he said, that the right kind of men have not performed their part in keeping politics and organized government on a plane of respectability. The Hatfield eulogy of President Coolidge came just before the close of his interesting address. It was tribute contained in but a few words, but appealed intensely to the Rotarians who heard it. He said in part: "No man in America today stands out so prominently in the affairs of our nation as Calvin Coolidge. I believe, just as surely as I stand here before you today, that Calvin Coolidge is a 'man of destiny.' Many other Americans have told me that they have felt that way about Coolidge. There is a mystery, a strange quality about the man that you cannot understand. And yet it is a figure that stands out as one that has been placed in the chair of national leadership at Washington in this period of national trial and tribulation, by some Power above us all. That is why the man Coolidge is to men of all races political creeds and stations in American life today, a real 'man of destiny.'"

Chairman of the Day William N. Goodell introduced Mr. Hatfield after a Rotarian committee had reported that the sum of $2000 for the support of the Boys' club had been subscribed in full after one of the shortest financial campaigns ever conducted by the "I.R.C."

New Rotary Memberships
New memberships were filed today at the business session of the Rotarians. They included the presentation of the names of John H. Johnson, of the T. W. Johnson company; Clive E. Hoekmeyer, of Waterside mills, and Donald C. Wallace, of Winchester Laundries, Inc. Action will be taken by the members on this list of three applications within ten days.

The drive for funds to help the Boys' club continues unabated. Only 37 members remain to be heard from, and with these "on the way," the Rotarian executives are assured that the drive will "go-over" with a "bang," as the yellow notecards distributed today termed it. The Boys' club will thus be enabled to have clear sailing through until the end of the present year.

Albert Edmund Brown was a guest of the Rotarians at dinner. His noisy reception was entirely sincere. He appeared early. In the rain, hugging a big bundle that looked mysterious. When Major Jeyes unwrapped it eagerly, it proved to be—well, it was actually a big bunch of new song-books. Mr. Brown's cheering gift to brother

ROTARIANS IN SESSION

Annual Conference of 31st District, Rotary International Opens

WORCESTER, April 22.—The annual conference of the 31st district, Rotary International opened this forenoon with a registration of nearly 1000 delegates from 59 clubs in New England. President Charles A. Barton of the Worcester club welcomed the delegates and introduced Mayor O'Hara who gave the official welcome of the city and turned over the key of the city to Everett W. Hill, first vice president of Rotary International, and Daniel P. Sullivan, district governor, who is presiding at all of the meetings today and tomorrow.

District Governor Sullivan in his address spoke of the increase in the growth of the district in the past year during which time eight new clubs have been admitted with a membership of 675.

Charles H. Simmons of the Boston club, chairman of the redistricting committee, explained the division of the old 31st into the two new districts giving as the reason "the fact that it is too much for one man to take care of the eastern part of New England and it has been done as near as possible so that the membership would be balanced."

DECLINE IN COTTON SPINNING ACTIVITY

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Cotton spinning activity declined further during March, the census bureau's monthly report today indicated. Active spindles hours for the month totaled 7,072,963,355 or an average of 187 per spindle in place, compared with 7,304,102,954, or an average of 194 per spindle in place in February this year, and 8,531,002,950, or an average of 255 per spindle in place in March last year. Spinning spindles in place March 31, numbered 37,761,370, of which 32,392,171 were active at some time during the month, compared with 37,742,143 in place Feb. 29, and 32,683,786 active at some time during February this year, and 37,308,713 in place March 31 last year and 35,500,518 active at some time during that month. The average number of spindles operated during March numbered 2,125,530 or at 82.4 per cent capacity on a single shift basis, compared with 3,879,600, or at 83.8 per cent capacity in February this year, and 40,329,022, or at 198.3 per cent capacity in March last year.

FOUR LOWELL MEN ARRAIGNED ON
SECRET INDICTMENTS

Edward R. Tryon, Harry P. Doherty, Fred G. Leary
and William G. Gray Plead Not Guilty to Charges
of Using Mails to Defraud and Conspiracy

BOSTON, April 23.—Four Lowell men were arraigned in the federal district court today on secret indictments charging use of the mails to defraud and conspiracy, in connection with the operations of the Tryon Knitter Corporation. They are Edward R. Tryon, Henry P. Doherty, Fred G. Leary and William G. Gray. They pleaded not guilty and were held in $2500 bonds each for trial. The government charges that the concern sent circulars to persons in all parts of New England in which it guaranteed to buy all stockings made by purchasers of its knitting machines and wool. The further charge is made that it was impossible to make stockings with these machines, which sold for $75 each.

DISMISSED HERE

The four defendants were arrested in Lowell several months ago on a complaint sworn by Byron S. Hall, a post-office inspector. They were represented by former Mayor James E. O'Donnell as counsel. After many continuances, they were finally arraigned in the Gorham street courthouse here before United States Commissioner Richard Bradbrook Walsh. Mr. O'Donnell at the time urged dismissal of the complaint, citing the fact that the prosecution was not represented in court, although due notice of the arraignment had been given. Mr. O'Donnell further pressed the point that the defendants had been put to a great expense and loss of time by the many continuances, as well as being under a cloud of suspicion among their fellow townsmen. Commissioner Walsh, after hearing Mr. O'Donnell, dismissed the complaints.

Each Train Driven by Two
Large Electric Engines—
Four Engineers Killed

BERNE, Switzerland, Apr. 23.—Thirty persons are reported to have been killed and 50 injured when the Zurich and Milan expresses collided near Bellinzona this morning.

Twenty-one bodies had been removed from the wreckage early this afternoon, most of them so badly burned that identification was impossible.

Americans on One Train

Each train was driven by two large electric engines, all four of which were wrecked and the four engineers killed. It was the worst train disaster in Switzerland in more than 20 years.

Both trains had some foreign passengers, coming from or going to Italy. Four Americans were reported to have been in the sleeping car on the train from Italy which car was less damaged than the others.

The Italian train had on board some French and English passengers in addition to 45 Germans and 52 Italians.

Martin Conway, deputy sheriff and court officer for Middlesex county, and intimately known from one end of the county to the other, died suddenly at 9:10 o'clock this morning in the clerk's office at the court house in Gorham street.

Death came without warning while he wore the uniform of his service and the badge of his office and simultaneously with it there came a distinct shock to the many who knew him as a man of sterling character with a heart as large as the world in which he lived.

Occurring just before the morning session of the superior civil court, to which session he had been assigned as a court officer since it opened here two weeks ago, his death had a most depressing effect. Court could not go on and justice Richard W. Irwin suspended until tomorrow. In his brief address to the jurors, court atten-

Interest in Meet at High
Pitch—Sun Sends Special
Representative

Tonight the Federal express out of Boston will carry the six Lowell high school track team members who on Friday and Saturday will represent the school in three relay events at the Pennsylvania Relay carnival at Franklin Field, Philadelphia.

The boys taking the trip are Capt. Whit Pearson, Jim Daley, Joe Slavin, Ernest Latham, Dave Latham and "Dutch" Burke. They are in charge of Headmaster Henry H. Harris and Coach George F. Haggerty. They will compete against the best high school and prep school runners in the country in the one-mile, two-mile and medley relay events, the medley on Friday afternoon and the one-mile and two-mile on Saturday.

This is the first trip of any magnitude ever taken by a Lowell high school athletic team and interest in the outcome of the races in which the local boys will compete will be at high pitch on the days of the carnival.

That they have earned the trip to Philadelphia goes without saying. As result of the most successful indoor track season in the history of the school, the invitation to participate in the carnival, along with 400 other high and prep schools, was accepted without hesitation. It is not the establishment of precedent, for only teams of the highest grade are invited to participate and then only after their worth has

Senate Convenes Two Hours

Each Speaker Limited to 15
Minutes—Dispute Over
Amendment

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Convening two hours earlier than usual the senate pressed toward a vote today on the soldier bonus bill with each speaker limited to 15 minutes.

The principal controversy centered on the amendment for inclusion in the bill of a cash option provision, offered by Senator Copeland, democrat, New York.

Although drafted by democratic members of the finance committee, the amendment was not submitted by them, leaders said, because they feared its adoption would prevent enactment of a bonus bill. Republican leaders had said they would vote to sustain a presidential veto if the bill carried the cash option proposal but would vote to override a veto if the insurance plan should be disapproved by the executive.

The pending bill, reported to the senate by the finance committee, substantially as passed by the house, would allow cash payments to veterans not entitled to more than $50 in adjusted service compensation and 20 year endowment insurance policies to others.

The Copeland amendment called for a cash payment in full to veterans preferring it to the insurance. Such a

Says Wheeler Never Acted for Campbell in Connection With Federal Question

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Reopening its inquiry into the charge of the indictment of Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, by a federal grand jury in state, the special senate committee today questioned L. V. Beaulieu, formerly of Great Falls, Mont., but now of Los Angeles, Cal.

Beaulieu was until last September, attorney for Gordon Campbell, the Montana oil man indicted with Senator Wheeler. He waived immunity, and testified that Wheeler had told him specifically he had informed Campbell he could have nothing to do with Campbell's government land matters. The charge in the senator's indictment is that he accepted money for appearing before the interior department in such cases.

The statement of the witness was admitted to the record after Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, first had questioned whether it was "hearsay" evidence, but later had waived the point.

Wheeler told him in "strong western language," Beaulieu continued, that he dants and others gathered there the preceding justice spoke feelingly of the sudden call, which had come to one of the county's most faithful servants by saying, "Gentlemen, we simply cannot turn our minds to serious business today."

This morning at his office at the U. S. Cartridge Co., where he was head of the labor department and of the safety-first division, Mr. Conway seemed in good health. He came to the court house at 9:30 o'clock and after changing into his court uniform went into the office of Clerk Roger Hurd and sat down to chat with Mr. Hurd and Attorney Jarkin T. Trull and Fren N. Wier. Suddenly he stopped talking, appeared to gasp for breath and was gone. The transition from life to death was but a matter of seconds. The men with whom he had been talking tried frantically to revive him and called in a physician, Dr. F. A. Edmunds of Woburn, who happened to be in the corridor, but he could do nothing. Rev. D. J. Hoffmann of St. Peter's church across the street hurried in to administer the last rites of the church and the medical examiner, Dr. Marshall L. Alling, responded at once to a telephone message. He pronounced death instantaneous and due to apoplexy.

As soon as Judge Irwin reached the court house he was told of Mr. Conway's death and at once said court would suspend for the day. He called in the jurors, but before dismissing them spoke of Mr. Conway's service for the county and his own acquaintanceship with him. He felt the loss keenly as one who loses a personal friend.

Although Martin Conway's home life was spent in North Billerica, where he was born and always lived, he was in many respects a Lowell citizen, for in the city he had scores and scores of friends and intimates. His work as a deputy sheriff extended his friendship circle throughout the county and in all of its towns he was known and respected. He served the town of Billerica as a constable and policeman for 25 years and at a time held the position of police chief. He also spent one year as a member of the board of selectmen. He was honored and respected by his neighbors and his integrity of character ever was above reproach. His word was binding and he never swerved from the precepts of honesty and fair dealing.

At the outbreak of the World War in 1914 Mr. Conway went to the U. S. Cartridge Co. and organized and directed as chief its most efficient police force of 40 men. He knew men and how to handle them and the absolute absence of trouble at the plant during the days of the war and intrigue is positive proof of his system and ability. After the war he continued in the employ of the Cartridge Co. and was placed in charge of the labor department as manager and also was head of the safety-first division. He spent some time at the plant daily.

Gerald Cahill, manager of the plant, said this noon that Mr. Conway's death is a distinct loss to the company. "He was a fine man—one of the very best," was Mr. Cahill's comment and tribute, "and his record here was a splendid one."

His appointment to the position of deputy sheriff came on Nov. 6, 1914. Much of his work was done in connection with the office of Sheriff George F. Stiles and their business connections ripened into a very close and intimate friendship. Mr. Stiles was visibly moved by his sudden death today and was in the court room just beyond the clerk's office when it happened.

Mr. Conway made his home at Fordway bridge, North Billerica, where he lived with his daughter, Elizabeth P. Conway, a teacher at the Lowell high school. Other relatives who survive him are two brothers, John and Capt. Thomas F. Conway, fire department electrician and fire alarm superintendent, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly of Lowell and Mrs. Thomas J. Callahan of North Billerica. His fraternal connections included membership in Lowell Lodge of Elks and the Royal Arcanum.

The body was taken to North Billerica this afternoon by Undertakers Higgins Bros., who will announce the time of funeral later.

WILL CONFORM TO DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW

Announcement is made by the management of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, effective 2 a. m. Sunday, April 27, and continuing until 2 a. m. Sunday, September 28, the train schedules of the New Haven will be changed to conform to the daylight saving law of Massachusetts and the daylight saving ordinances of the city of New York and many other cities through which the company operates. The law requires the operation of trains upon a standard of time as fixed by congress.

Effective during the period of daylight saving, the hours of all offices, including freight office, shops, stores, houses and other departments will be set ahead one hour. In other words, offices now opening at 8:30 a. m. and closing at 5:30 p. m. will open at 9:30 a. m. and close at 6:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

She's Shocking Capital!

A cabinet member's wife doing her own housework—and washing and ironing, too! It certainly is a setback to Washington's society folk. But Mrs. Curtis D. Wilbur, wife of the new secretary of navy, is doing just these very things. At the left you see her icing a cake, and at the right, hanging out the family laundry.

ESCAPE FROM ARMY PRISON

Four Men Cut Way Through Steel Ceiling and Flee
From Prison on Fort Banks

Were Serving Time for Desertion, Fraudulent Enlistment and Prison Escapes

BOSTON, April 23.—Cutting their way through a steel ceiling, four general prisoners at the army prison on Fort Banks, Boston harbor, escaped in a rowboat early today. The men were serving sentences for desertion, fraudulent enlistment and prison escapes. A corporal making his rounds at 3.30 found that Arthur L. McGuire of Holyoke, George E. Du Rother of New Bedford, Robert C. Brodie of Bridgeport and Albert M. Tolland of Portland, Me., were gone from the cell they occupied together. They had pried the lock of the cell door, cut through the corridor ceiling and leaped 15 feet to the ground. A rowboat which had been left without keys was missing from a nearby pier, and a general alarm was sent to Deer Island, a mile away, and to the mainland.

McGuire was serving time for three desertions, Du Rother for desertion, Brodie for desertion and fraudulent enlistment and Tolland for fraudulent enlistment and prior escapes.

SURPRISE PARTY.

FOR MISS DONOHUE

Fellow women employees of Miss Edith Donohue of city hall last night honored her with a surprise party at the Marlborough and presented her with a purse of gold. About thirty of the fair attendants at the hall were present at the affair and convivially reigned supreme. The dining hall was tastefully decorated with pink and white color scheme.

Miss Donohue, who is at present in the city auditor's office and was formerly in the office of the assessors and the city treasurer, is to be married on May 12 to Peter Gill. The Misses Elizabeth Donohue, Alice Sullivan and Alice McCarthy provided a musical program of rare charm and merit. The committee in charge of arrangements for the affair comprised the Misses Susan A. Flynn, Elizabeth M. Donohue and Marguerite Blackburn.

Awards for Motor Vehicles
For City Departments

Awards would be approved by him when forwarded to his office by purchasing agent. The mayor had been advised of the awards and verbally has approved them.
"In making the fire department award, which was not to the low bidder, I was influenced by the recommendation of the chief of the department and the fact that the bidder was a local man," said Mr. Donnelly this noon. "Chief Saunders, in his program for standardization of department apparatus, has strongly favored the acquisition of the chief of the department. The chief has explained to me what standardization of the department means as a step forward. He has gone fully into the principle of ready access to spare parts by buying standard apparatus. We visited other cities and I am convinced the award is made as most likely to be to the best interests of the city at large. The white concern is ready to give rapid and satisfactory service in the event of trouble and an exhaustive investigation has convinced me that Mr. McGinn is entitled to the award."

I Offer Girls

My aids to beauty, and to woman youth
By Edna Wallace Hopper

I had a rich, ambitious mother. She searched the world with me to find the supreme beauty helps.

They made me a famous beauty. And now, after 40 years in the limelight, they keep me a beauty still. Other girls in these same ways, can multiply their beauty. Other women, to old age, keep their youthful steam. I want to help them do so. The very helps that France gave me are now at your command.

I am very—very busy on the stage. But I am taking time to tell you the secrets of my beauty and my youth. And I hope the time will come when girls and women by the millions will enjoy what I enjoy.

32 helps in four
I found 32 things that women need to keep them in their best. French experts combined them in four applications. These beauty and perennial youth were made very easy for me. One is my White Youth Clay. Not like the crude and muddy clays no many use today. This clay is white, refined and dainty. Twenty years of scientific study have made it amazingly efficient.

I use White Youth Clay to purge my skin of all that clogs or mars it. It gives me that rosy, baby-like complexion. Blackheads or pimples, oiliness or blotchiness are unknown to me. It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, keeps the face skin ever like a girl's. One application of my White Youth Clay brings almost unbelievable results. Many women seem to drop ten years. Continued use does miracles, as

"The Song of Love," in which the star appears as a dancing girl who falls in love with a French officer. Miss La Plante is seen in "Excitement," a picture story, the title of which reflects just what it is—excitement. They will be seen for the last three days. Beginning tomorrow and continuing the last three days of the week the bill will include Bebe Daniels in "Darling Youth," the story of a wife who was named by a desperate husband; and Herbert Rawlinson in "The Dancing Cheat."

"Darling Youth" is a story of modern marriage in which Bebe Daniels portrays the role of the young wife and Norman Kerry the young husband. From a modern angle the film is said to leave no want unfulfilled in the way of "excitement," action, comedy, and heart interest. True to its twentieth century title it depicts the love affairs of a young married couple who have decided to live apart several days of the week in order to keep themselves from liking each other. Excellent as the arrangement may seem, it results only in a series of complications and misunderstandings that call for the services of a lawyer before matters are diplomatically straightened out.

"The Dancing Cheat" starring Herbert Rawlinson and Alice Lake, is a new brand of screen entertainment in which the stars are seen in characterizations of a new sort. You will like it for its romance, thrills and tense moments. It's the story of a dancer of fiery passions, flaming hates and feminine foibles. Don't miss it.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Miss Teria, the wonderful device which talks, acts and sings like a human being, is the unusual feature of the bill at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. And everybody who attends is at liberty to submit a guess as to just how the effects are obtained. It is an act which has an air of complete mystery. The Four Rubini Sisters are artists to their finger tips, and their work on the piano, violin, cello and flute is wholly delightful. One of the most unusual of blackface turns is "Cotton Town Divorcement," in which King and Irwin appear. Other good things are: Ed. Lowrey, comedian and dancer; Newman & Meehan, in a delightful comedy act, and Downey & Claridge, makers of a variety of entertainment. The picture is "Innocence," with Anna Q. Nilsson and a great cast.

MOM'N POP

RIALTO THEATRE

"East is West and West is East" the saying goes but in Florence Vidor's new picture which will be shown at the Rialto theatre the latter half of the week, the two do meet and they fall in love. The title of this new Associated Exhibitors attraction is "Conquering the Woman" and Florence Vidor and Dave Butler are the co-stars. "Conquering the Woman" is a romantic drama from the novel "Kidnapping Colonel" by Henry C. Rowland. It tells an interesting story about a spoiled society girl, perfectly interpreted by Miss Vidor, who acquires a foreign and "un-stage" manner and a titled fiancé, which is not at all pleasing to her father, a real American business man with lots of red blood in his veins. To break his daughter of this "fizz" craze and to make her dis-

Mailman Comes Oftener in Alaska Now

START YOUR BODY RIGHT

A sign of envy escaped Mr. Mann of Anytown as he scanned the pictures of bulging biceps and muscles in the How-to-Be-Strong ads.

While thus curiously considering what might have been, but wasn't, the physical director glanced over Mr. Mann's fat flanked shoulders and smiled at the photos.

"That stuff is all right for the boys who want to parade upon the bathing beaches," said the director, "But what the average person needs, and is capable of achieving, is a set of muscles that work smoothly."

"Get lots of muscular exercise, of course. But the principle behind such exercise is not to look like these Adonis birds. Strong muscles do give a man a comfortable feeling."

"But, physiologically speaking, this is the point; a muscle is a series of fibers made up of even smaller ones and through these run tiny veins and blood vessels. When a person exercises he contracts the muscle and this relaxes it. The contraction squeezes out blood that has been standing there, like a wringer squeezes water from clothing. With the relaxation fresh blood comes in. The result is a good, healthy cleaning out of various blood-containing chambers.

"That's what you want to think about in muscular exercise."

"So, whether you wind up by looking like a statue of Apollo isn't important. The point is to start your body out in the morning with a good fresh supply of blood in the muscles."

"And, while so doing, the muscles will automatically tone up."

MATRIMONIAL

Dr. Reginald Lafontaine of Grand-Mere, P. Q., and Miss Alice Rochette, daughter of Mr. Gedeon Rochette of St. Vernon street, were yesterday morning united in the bonds of matrimony at a nuptial mass celebrated in the chapel of St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. Louis Bachand, O. M. I. Mr. Gedeon Rochette, father of the bride, and Mr. Horace Lafontaine, father of the bridegroom, attended the couple. The bride wore a costume of blue charmeuse with squirrel neck-piece, and a blue hat. She carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father by the O. I. Page company. A reception followed the breakfast, following which Mr. and Mrs. Lafontaine left on an extended wedding trip to New York and Atlantic City. They will make their home in Grand-Mere, P. Q. Among the guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Normand Lafontaine of St. Bartholomew, P. Q., Dr.

Philippe Chenevert of Lawrence, and Mrs. Chenevert.

At a nuptial mass celebrated at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Jeanne D'Arc's church by Rev. Charles Denzot, O. M. I., D. D., Mr. Emile Sevigny and Miss Cedreline Berube were united in marriage. Mr. Omor Sevigny, father of the bridegroom, and Mr. George Berube, brother of the bride, attended the couple. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe. Her veil was held in place by a crown of lilies of the valley and she carried bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 15 Jordan street. Mr. and Mrs. Sevigny left during the afternoon on an extended wedding trip and upon their return they will make their home in this city.

REMOVING RUST
Fine emery paper will remove rust and roughness from lens. Sweet-oil or rottenstone will clean them.

It's cold in Alaska. But Pilot Eielson, who carries the mails for Uncle Sam, doesn't mind it in the least. Here he is getting set to take off on one of his trips.

WILLIAM WOOD DENIES RUMORS OF ILLNESS

Wild rumors circulating in textile and financial districts in many industrial centers of New England, including Lowell yesterday and last evening, to the effect that President William M. Wood of the American Woolen company, was seriously ill at his home in Shawshaven and that a change in the corporation's executive personnel was impending, were disposed of promptly and good-naturedly by President Wood himself, last evening, in the following statement to The Lowell Sun over the telephone from his Shawshaven residence:

"I am not suffering from any illness any more than common ailments are afflicting ordinary folks at intervals during lifetime. I am resting at Shawshaven and am not at all indisposed or incapacitated, as reported. I am talking to you now. Do I talk like a sick man?"

Mr. Wood appeared to be in a mood far from down-hearted when he came to the telephone in response to a call from The Sun office and laughed into the transmitter before inquiring for information about the source of his reported illness.

"I know you newspapermen want the news and I am always ready to give it to you about myself or the American Woolen company, if there is any to give," Mr. Wood replied, when he was informed that Lowell's textile world was anxious to know the truth, and particularly that section of Lowell where employees of both sexes labor under the American Woolen banners at the Bay State mills on Paulkner street.

Mr. Wood appeared to be deeply interested in the report that mentioned in either Boston or New York, and declared that he had not heard of it before.

At the request of the president, The Sun man read from the Boston despatch that contained a summary of some of the reports butting about Boston financial circles about American Woolen company financial and industrial affairs, and announcing that rumors had it that President Wood was "incapacitated" and "a change in executive personnel" was impending.

Mr. Wood promptly denied the reports referring to illness and executive changes, and declared it was "all news to him, as usual."

He explained his reasons for being in Shawshaven at this time. He has been resting at Falmouth nearly all winter and has only recently returned to his Shawshaven home—always his favorite recreation place except in the colder months of the year. Today, he finds Shawshaven ideal for securing the proper solution that a man of his many activities in the woolen and worsted cloth trades of America and the world, must have frequently in order to keep the pace industrial.

EARLY NEWS FLASHES BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Coolidge returns to Washington from New York city where he addressed annual luncheon of the Associated Press.

Democratic members of senate finance committee present minority report on tax bill, demanding Simmons income tax schedule in place of Mellon rates and modification of corporation and estate taxes.

John C. Conlidge, father of president, walks half mile to "listen in" on neighbor's radio to his son's address at the Associated Press luncheon in New York city.

Sir Richard Squires, resigned premier of Newfoundland, and three officials under his government are arrested at St. John's, N. F., on charges of embezzlement in connection with Squires' administration.

Former Attorney General Daugherty in statement denies specifically many of the allegations made against him at the hearings of the committee investigating the department of justice, and declares that President Harding was nominated and elected "the freest man that ever stepped across the threshold of the White House."

TAXIS THAT CARRY LIABILITY INSURANCE

In reference to an item in yesterday's Sun, relative to some cars in the taxi business, that do not carry liability insurance, Manager Desaulniers, of the Yellow Taxicab company, states that he has plus cars in the service in this city, and that they all carry liability insurance through a local agency. The manager of the Red Line Taxi company also informs The Sun that he carries liability insurance for the cars he has in the service. Some others also carry such insurance.

BETTER MOVIES HIS HOBBY

George W. Bingham, though 78 years old, still is working for better movies. He has just perfected a new sprocketless camera and projector that uses perforationless film. It will permit the use of a single film for three years, he declares, while the life of a film is now three months. Bingham has been in the movie camera game more than 20 years, starting in the old Vitagraph days.

FIRE IN PRESCOTT STREET
An alarm from box 26, located in the square, at 5:30 o'clock last night summoned apparatus to a shoe shine place at 14 Prescott street, where a short-circuited motor had set fire to a small amount of inflammable matter. The fire was discovered by Officer Owen Conway, who sounded the alarm and then investigated. The fire had practically burned itself out before the fire apparatus arrived and a single chemical was sufficient to extinguish the remaining flames. The damage was slight.

SOCIAL HOUR CAMPERS HOLD DANCING PARTY

Lincoln hall last night was the scene of a pretty dancing party held under the auspices of the Social Hour Campers, a group of local young men who have a camp at Lakeside. A large number of friends of the campers were present and enjoyed the dancing and music until midnight. The officials of the party were George Brennan, general manager; John Linton, chief aid; William Shea, Charles Irwin and William Graham, assistant aids. The club officers follow: John M. Spillane, president; William J. Gray, secretary; Edward F. Ryan, treasurer.

If she only knew that she could put on at least 5 pounds of good, healthy flesh in 30 days she wouldn't be worrying about her peaked face and run-down looks.

She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the ill-smelling, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before.

Doctors and food pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, creates appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and chases away nervousness.

But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it for doctors are prescribing and the people are fast learning that they can get better results with McEwen's Cod Liver Oil Tablets which, like the oil, are full of vitamins.

Howard, and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

It's a wonderful upbuilding medicine for children, especially after sickness, and sixty tablets only cost 60 cents.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist will gladly return the purchase price.

DEBATE TONIGHT AT LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL

The annual debate between the Lowell and Lawrence high schools will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in Co-burn hall. The subject is, "Resolved:

That the Johnson bill now before Congress should be passed." Lowell will be represented by Alphonse Achin, Amos Flemings, and Merrill Calkins, with Maurice Klegerman as alternate; all members of the Frederick T. Greenhalge Debating society.

Supl. of Schools Hugh J. Molloy will preside and the judges will be Orel Beant, Capt. Wilfred Walker of Woburn and Arthur Ray.

Prior to the debate, the regimental band will entertain with several selections and Miss Queena Douglas will provide a musical novelty. At the conclusion of the debate, a social and dance will be held under the auspices of the local debating society with the Lawrence team and delegation as guests of honor.

How I Regained Strength to do My Work

MRS. C. M. MARUKO
221 CENTRAL PARK, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

GIRLS work in mills, offices, factories, stores and kitchens all over this land, often far beyond their strength.

Frequently such a girl is the only bread winner of the family, and she must toil on, even though her back aches, she throbs with pain, has headaches, dizzy spells, is all dragged out and utterly unfit for work.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound builds health and strength for such women, as is evidenced by the many grateful letters which are received, attesting to the value of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.

How This Young Woman Got Relief

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and a displacement. This troubled me a lot when I walked and when I was sitting and a displacement. This troubled me a lot when I walked and when I was sitting and down and I had to stay away from work a great deal. It made me weak and nervous too. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound from one of your booklets and read about how it had helped so many. It has done so much for me I now recommend it to others. I am able to work in the factory now and can walk back and forth to work and enjoy it. I am very glad to have you use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. M. MARUKO, 221 Central Park, Rochester, N. Y.

Another Woman's Experience

LUDINGTON, MICH.—"I suffered every month and was very irregular, had headaches all the time, was thin and pale, with no appetite. I had taken all kinds of medicines and every doctor told me I would have to face an operation before I would be well again. I was only a working girl, doing factory work, and I had to stay at home so much that I was getting rather discouraged. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I did so with good results. I am now feeling fine. I have started to be more regular and gaining in strength and weight also. I have advised all my girl friends to take your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. THESSA McDONN, 420 S. Rath Avenue, Ludington, Michigan.

PERIOD FURNITURE

Robert and James Adam were architects, but their furniture is best known today. Their influence prevailed between 1763 and 1786. Theirs was a classic, architectural style based on antique detail. The chair above is a combination of Adam and Chippendale. The Adam characteristics are the delicate fluting, low carving and the straight square legs. The back is chiefly Chippendale, except the fluted top piece. Rococo and restorations are other characteristics of Adam furniture.

at its completion, short talks were given by Rev. Dr. Keleher and his assistants, Rev. Daniel J. Hoffmann, Rev. Francis L. Shaw, Rev. Peter T. Lineham and Rev. John M. Manion.

Comfort for All Rheumatics

Rheuma Gets to Work First Day—Drives Out the Poisonous Uric Acid and Brings Quick Relief

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma. Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family.

Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys, rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia.

It is a wonder worker; it never fails, never gives up until every vestige of uric acid poison is expelled from the body.

TO GIVE CONCERT, AT SANITARIUM

A group of entertainers, members of the Y.M.C.A., will visit the Essex Sanitarium Thursday evening and give a concert for the entertainment of disabled veterans of the World war, many of whom are Lowell boys, who are invalided there. The committee in charge consists of Rep. Thomas J. Corbett, John McConnel, and the following: Miss Alice Dacey, Miss Conway, Mabel Hogan, Bertha Choquette, Dorothy Nolan, Madeline McLaughlin, Joe Kelly, Frank Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Angelo, James Cor-

AT THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN SCHOOL

"Constantine Pueblo Jones," a three act comedy was presented in the assembly hall of the Lincoln school last night by members of the annual "annual night." The affair proved to be very successful as the hall was filled with past graduates who, prior to the presentation of the play, renewed old school acquaintances. The play was under the direction of D. Murray Cummings, master of the school, and Misses M. M. Kelly, A. C. Gray and J. T. Frawley.

The play is unusual in that it has no star, each part affording big lines and the actors proved their ability by putting over their lines in a splendid way. Those taking part in the play follow:

REMOVING STAINS
A dresser top that has been stained with white perfume may be restored to its former color and polish by rubbing it with kerosene or with oil and turpentine.

RUBBER APRONS
Rubber aprons that save the clothes irreparably and may be cleaned with a damp cloth, may be purchased ready made or made from rubber and bound with tape.

SOFA CUSHIONS
Sofa cushions that are intended for use should always be made of material that is easily cleaned and is pleasant to the touch.

TALK ON CONSTITUTION

For Benefit of High School Pupils

Joseph P. Quinn, a member of the K. of C. lecture team which has been discussing various phases of the constitution for the benefit of the pupils of the Lowell high school, delivered the fourth in the series of illuminating discourses in Room 137 of the high school last evening, his subject being: "The Undoing of the Constitution."

Mr. Quinn, who will repeat his lecture in K. of C. hall at the conclusion of the regular business session tomorrow night, treated his subject in a clear and scholarly manner, impressing on his interested audience the many fine points embodied in the famous document.

In opening, Mr. Quinn gave a summary of the many movements now on foot to amend, change or ignore the constitution and particularly those movements which are directed against the authority of the supreme court. After briefly sketching in its historical background, he continued:

A man who had always enjoyed good health and who suddenly finds himself ill, begins to hear many things

COMPETITION invites comparison which in turn creates all true values. The value of woolen and worsted fabrics can best be determined by comparison. Through competition the industry is stimulated, standards are elevated and the consumer receives greater and greater values for his clothing dollars.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

of which he had previously worried little about, his "constitution"—and so, today, in an effort to heal the ills of our body politic, the quacks and respectable practitioners alike are prescribing for our national constitution. It is not surprising, therefore, that as a consequence the constitution is suffering from its friends and from its enemies, as it shall continue to suffer until we learn to let it alone.

In the last congress, which in this respect was little different from those which immediately preceded it, there were 100 bills and joint resolutions proposing to amend the constitution and since the first congress there have been approximately three thousand such attempts. What are the sources of this agitation and in what proposals does it find expression.

Setting aside the desire for change merely for love of change, there are other powerful forces at work and before we deal with fine theories we must face the cruel and unescapable logic of fact. The United States of 1924 is not the United States of 1787, nor is the temper of our people today what it was then. When the delegates of the original colonies met they had just escaped from the tyranny of an imperial and autocratic government without conscience. In their wisdom and out of bitter experience they erected in their constitution every possible safeguard that seemed to them invulnerable against too great centralized governmental authority, going farther than any people had ever gone before or have since gone towards letting the people govern themselves. They reserved to the federal government only such incidental powers as are inseparable from its very existence. If you lose sight of this basic fact all the talk in the world about the constitution will not help you. The American constitution was designed first and foremost as a protection to the people from the possible injustice of their own federal government; it has failed in any important particular, it has failed because the people have permitted the government at Washington to forget this fact.

Today instead of guarding against the possible autocracy of our federal government we are throwing over voluntarily on the federal government purely state functions. Governor Smith of New York and Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania have largely put the restriction and regulation of the liquor traffic up to the president and congress; industrial disputes have been similarly dealt with; the Mann act gives the federal government a limited regulation of public morality; were it not for a recent ruling of the supreme court, the federal government would have had the power to prohibit child labor in all states. There is also a sinister movement to put the supervision and conduct of education into the hands of a federal department—and so on all down the line. If it were not for the fact that the federal government is a republic and may erect instead a super government of departments and bureaus without number in which the constitution in time will have ceased to be a living thing and will become merely a piece of parchment in a glass case in the congressional library, of much interest to antiquarians but of no use to the people as a shield against federal aggression. A few days ago I was pleased to read a warning by President Coolidge who urged the nation to get back to their own legitimate business.

Is there not abroad, too, a widespread movement to go light and to be less self-assertive on the strong national influences that made the United States a great democracy? Have we not all heard American men and women of much influence assert that our ideas of patriotism are old-fashioned and out of touch with the times? Is there not on foot a strong widespread and well-endowed movement to dilute our traditional American idealism with a weakening international sentimentalism. When college professors, powerful preachers and eloquent propagandists tell us that it is not good taste to read the Declaration of Independence on the Fourth of July, and urge us to put the soft pedal on the "Star Spangled Banner," is it strange at all that the

The emancipation of women as evidenced by the evolution in dress from steel stays that made a twenty inch waist and the long street sweeping skirts to the sports clothes of the present day has certainly had its effect upon the health of women. With proper attention to diet and exercise a race of better wives and mothers is assured by it. If, however, ailments develop as evidenced by irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness and irritability, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be depended upon to overcome them. Thousands of women testify to its success.—ADV.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bed-time.

"Thousands take them every night just to keep them right. Try them. 15c and 30c."

NATIONAL BALLOON RACE

Pilots Ready for Big Event at Kelly Field, Texas, TC-3 Is Safe

BELLEVILLE, Ill., April 23.—The United States army non-rigid dirigible TC-3, which left here yesterday in a flight to San Antonio, Tex., arrived at Scott field, shortly after 8:50 o'clock this morning. The TC-3 had been reported lost early this morning.

Seven Pilots Ready

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 23.—Seven pilots and their seven aides had completed all their preparations early today for the start this afternoon in the national balloon elimination race at Kelly field, except to inflate the great gas bags. This work will not be started until only a few hours before the race, and will be in charge of Lt. Frank Kehoe, hydrogen expert of the United States army in charge of gas activities for the lighter-than-air work at Scott field, Illinois.

The use of natural gas at Kelly field makes it possible to inflate the bags in a short time and because of this, Lieut. Kehoe predicted that new American and possibly world records would be broken.

Favorable weather conditions are predicted and the first balloon is scheduled to take the air at 4:30 p. m. The course is expected to be north-east. To break the world's record of 1896 miles, the winner must travel as far as Bangkok, Ind.

sample from a term on the railroad, since he has been connected with railroads for 69 years.

"I ascribe my long life to my ability to 'switch,'" he said. "I have been in the railroad business for 69 years and have associated with the successful constructive men who built up the railroad systems of this country. Nearly all have died early on account of their health has been seriously impaired."

Mr. Depew hopes to speak again this year at the republican national convention. At the last one in Chicago he spoke for 45 minutes, and he has been attending them regularly since 1864.

Mr. Depew appreciates the attention of his countrymen to his speeches, for they leave out funny stories and, according to his own statement, he'd rather tell funny stories than be president. He believes President Coolidge will be re-elected and thinks the younger generation is headed in a direction opposite from the dogs. Some time the skies of life are cloudy, he admits, and oftentimes, there are serious storms, but sunshine "is the prevailing condition."

For Raw Sore Throat

At the first sign of a raw, sore throat rub on a little Musterole with your fingers.

It goes right to the spot with a gentle tingle, loosens congestion, draws out soreness and pain. Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It has all the strength of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

FRATERNAL NEWS

The regular meeting of Loyal Wam-wait lodge, I.O.O.F. M.U., was held in Grafton hall Monday evening. N.G. Fred Corfield presided and a considerable amount of routine business was transacted. Following the meeting, which was enjoyed and an entertainment given by Brothers Waterman, Daley, Malmgren and Ferguson.

Wam-wait Staff association met in the same hall Sunday morning but owing to the small attendance, no business of any importance was taken up.

Mary E. Smith tent, 23, met last night with President Douglas in the chair. A roll call of officers took place and considerable important business was acted upon.

Monday evening, in Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, a regular meeting of Princess lodge, I.O.D. of St. George, was held with worthy President, Susan Watson in the chair. The lodge voted to attend the St. George day observance in St. John's church, joining with the Sons of St. George on this occasion.

Remarkable Discovery Banishes Gray Hair

Original Color Quickly Appears

Science again has scored a triumph in the discovery of a very remarkable liquid known as Kolor-Bak. If you are gray, just apply this liquid to the hair or scalp and your hair will soon take on the actual color it had in the past. Not a trace of grayness will remain.

Kolor-Bak comes in the form of a clean and colorless liquid, containing properties which quickly restore the lost color to the hair and give it renewed vigor. And note that the one preparation is for all colors of hair. No special solution required for each color—no samples of hair required.

You will find also that after using Kolor-Bak the hair has the same shade throughout. It does not appear streaked, faded or "dyed."

Every scientist, every physician, knows that gray hair is hair that has ceased to receive its normal supply of coloring matter or pigment from certain tiny cells (called follicles or papillae) in the scalp, because these cells have become inactive from illness, shock of some kind, scalp disease, dandruff, infection, neglect of the hair, or lack of circulation, etc. But no matter what the cause of the grayness, it is simply amazing to see how it disappears when Kolor-Bak is used. Kolor-Bak is a real substitute for the natural pigmentation.

Kolor-Bak has been proved by hundreds of thousands of people, once gray, now with hair in the original color. Get a bottle today.

MAN WHO STOLE AUTO JAILED

SALEM, April 23.—Arnold Barry, Waterville, Me., who stole an automobile in this city and was caught when the car capsized at Kennebunk, Me., April 15, was sentenced to one year in the house of correction on a charge of larceny by Judge Charles Murphy in the district court here today.

FOREIGN EXCHANGES JUMP

NEW YORK, April 23.—British and French exchanges mounted to new high prices for the year today on heavy buying from European sources, which was described by some local dealers as belated short covering. French francs touched 6.82 and demand sterling was quoted $4.40. Other European rates improved.

E. J. BABCOCK, NOTED SECRETARY, DEAD

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—Elisha J. Babcock, confidential secretary to three United States secretaries of state is dead here, aged 80. He served under John Hay, John Sherman and Elihu Root. He was born in Albany, N. Y.

SKULL FRACTURED IN AUTO COLLISION

DELIAM, April 23.—Mrs. Henry D. Langlan of the Hyde Park district of Boston, was probably fatally injured when an automobile driven by her husband collided with a car driven by Calvin W. Hastings of Brookline, here today. Her skull was fractured. Langlan was cut over one eye. Fred Watt and William Obin, also in the Langlan car, were badly hurt. Hastings escaped injury.

FILIPINOS PROTEST WOOD'S ACTION

MANILA, April 23.—Leading Filipinos are planning a demonstration, probably a parade or mass meeting, as a protest against Governor General Wood's cablegram to Secretary of War Weeks, advising against granting immediate independence to the Philippines. Committees working out plans expect it will be held within a week.

HONDURAN REBELS CAPTURE CHOLUTECA

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, April 23.—The Honduran revolutionists have captured Choluteca and routed the counter-revolutionists, says a dispatch from La Esperanza. Sumner Welles, American envoy charged with pacifying the situation, is reported to have suggested an arrangement whereby Tegucigalpa would be turned over to the revolutionists in return for equitable treatment of the defenders of the capital.

FOREMAN IS ARRESTED

Charged With Accepting Money for Jobs in Brockton Shoe Factory

BROCKTON, April 23.—After an investigation by District Attorney Harold P. Williams, William J. Pierce, 10 Douglas avenue, foreman at the Diamond Shoe Co., in the making room, was arrested and charged with accepting money for jobs from five Lithuanians.

The complaint specifies the sum of $150 taken from the five men for giving them employment in the factory. Pierce in district court this morning pleaded not guilty.

CHAIRMANSHIPS OF G. O. P. CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Selections for the temporary and permanent chairmanships of the republican national convention are being given considerable thought by President Coolidge and he is expected to make known his preferences before next Wednesday, when the national committee's subcommittee on arrangements will meet at Cleveland.

The president conferred with a number of political leaders on the subject while in New York to address the annual luncheon of the Associated Press, but desired to consider the matter further here before making a decision. He is understood to be devoting chief attention to the temporary chairmanship, since the man selected for that post usually sounds the campaign keynote.

Former Governor Lowden of Illinois, is regarded by some as a likely choice among those mentioned for the temporary chairmanship. This opinion is based on the expectation that the president will favor the selection of a western or middle western man not connected officially with the administration. Others under consideration are said to include Secretary Hughes, Senator Willis of Ohio, Charles G. Dawes, Representative Longworth of Ohio, Senator Borah of Idaho, former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Governor Hyde of Missouri and Groesbeck of Michigan, and Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

AWAIT ALL REPLIES ON EXPERTS' REPORTS

PARIS, April 23.—The reparations commission has decided to wait until the answers of all the allied governments concerning the expert committee's report have been received before meeting again. The replies had not arrived this morning, and it is possible the commission will not convene until the beginning of next week.

The French delegation is holding the reply of its government and will not communicate it to the commission's secretariat until the others are received.

CENTRAL BRIDGE BILL STILL IN LIMELIGHT

The bill of Lewis E. Moore, claiming a $2000 balance on a $4500 statement for his services as consulting engineer in the historic Central bridge case, continues to be a departmental foot-ball at city hall. Approved a few weeks ago by the board of public works, the bill reached the auditor's office where it was held up. The budget and auditing commission sent it to the mayor's office asking for information and guidance in connection with same and the mayor forwarded the letter to the legal department.

The budget and auditing commission received the bill back this morning from the mayor's office. With the bill came a letter stating that the city solicitor recommended that Mr. Moore be given a public hearing on the matter and that the board of public works and the city engineer be invited to appear and tell what they know of the whole matter.

The board took the communication under advisement and the bill will rather dust in the city auditor's pigeonhole until a decision is reached. The board this morning approved weekly bills amounting to $41,668.83.

NEW YORK CONVENTION

Report of Move to Prevent "Stampede by Tammany Hall" Unauthorized

NEW YORK, April 23.—George F. Mara, member of the democratic national committee, who said he was speaking for Chairman Coddell Hull, branded as "unauthorized" last night, the statement of J. J. Sinnott, principal doorkeeper at every democratic national convention since 1908, that "extra precautions" would be taken to prevent a "stampede by Tammany Hall" at this year's gathering.

"We wish to state," said Mr. Mara, "that the statement purported to have been given out by J. J. Sinnott to the effect that the democratic national convention was taking extraordinary and new methods to protect the doors of the democratic national convention to be held in this city in June, was not authorized nor based on facts."

Mr. Sinnott had declared the convention would be "a national convention and not a local town meeting" as he discussed with newspapermen reports of rumors that Tammany followers would pick the convention hall and try to put over their candidate by sheer force of noise.

HAVERHILL MAN HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

HAVERHILL, April 23.—Judge John J. Winn, in Central district court here last night, found probable cause to hold George M. Welling of 434 Kenosha avenue, charged with manslaughter, for the grand jury. The judge said it was up to the driver of the machine to sound the horn, take precautions, and drive carefully, which he did not do.

Welling is charged with causing the death of Margaretta Jackerotte and Edmund K. H. Wentworth as a result of an accident on Kenosha avenue two weeks ago last Sunday night. He was represented by former District Attorney S. Howard Bonnell of Peabody, while Attorney Frederick H. Magison prosecuted the case.

According to the evidence, Frank Small and Pauline Johnson, accompanied by the two people who were killed, were walking down Kenosha avenue, in the road, from the church to the Johnson home. The machine came along and struck them.

FOR PARTICIPATION OF U. S. IN WORLD COURT

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Recommendations that the American Association of University Women work for participation by the United States in the world court and for ratification of the League of Nations covenant were made in the report submitted to the organization's convention here today by legislative committee.

The report also proposed active support of the proposed child labor amendment to the constitution and of the Sterling-Reed bill providing for a federal department of education, and endorsement of a bill calling for extension of physical education through federal aid to states in the payment of supervisors and teachers.

U. S. AIR CRUISERS STILL IN DUTCH HARBOR

SEATTLE, Wash., April 23.—Three American air cruisers, the Chicago, Boston and New Orleans, still were at Dutch Harbor today, awaiting the arrival of their commander, Major Frederick L. Martin at Kanakani, Portage Bay.

A new engine has been installed in the Seattle, but since the repairs were made the weather has prevented the continuation of the commander's flight. Reports from Alaska today told of blizzards prevailing along the Alaska peninsula and Aleutian islands.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL INVESTIGATION

Councillor John W. Daly, chairman of the isolation hospital investigation committee of the city council, has written Mayor Donovan relative to the injunction into the hearings of further evidence and facts. Mayor Donovan on Monday advised the committee of the retention of William D. Reagan as counsel for Investigator Murphy and himself and the letter in the nature of a reply thereto, follows:
"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of yours of 21st instant, addressed to me as chairman of the isolation hospital investigation committee. In behalf of the committee I am pleased to make reply and say that it has been from the beginning, and it is now, the desire of the committee to glean whatever facts that may be available in order to obtain a comprehensive and intelligent survey of the situation as complained of by Your Honor in relation to the management and conduct of the affairs at the Lowell isolation hospital, and it was to that end that the committee on a prior occasion invited Your Honor's presence at the previous hearings as well as suggesting to Your Honor to send your representative.
"Your Honor may well be assured that it is the intent of this committee to receive by way of evidence, every fact and legal and orderly fact that may lead to a dispassionate, careful and just conclusion."

PINCHOT BLAMES 'WETS' FOR HIS DEFEAT

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 23.—Governor Pinchot in a statement today on the result of yesterday's primaries, declared "it appears the wets have elected Strassburger and have beaten me" and asserted "this vote does not represent the conscience and heart of Pennsylvania."
The governor said he had made no campaign and asserted the vote "is merely proof that the old alliance between liquor and gang politics in Pennsylvania remains in full force and effect." He warned the friends of law and order "to give no credence to the wet claim that my defeat is a setback for the cause of law enforcement." Asserting he proposed to take this matter in hand more vigorously than ever.

M. POINCARE REPLIES TO RUSSIAN MINISTER

PARIS, April 23. (By the Associated Press.)—Premier Poincare telegraphed today to Foreign Minister Tchitcherine of Russia, saying that in recently transmitting the appeal of the French intellectuals for clemency toward their imprisoned Russian comrades, France had no intention of mixing in the internal affairs of Russia, as M. Tchitcherine charged in his reply.

"The government of Moscow," said the premier's message, "is free to take cognizance or not of the considerations of humanity which were presented to it."
"As regards the allegation that the condemned persons at Kiev had collaborated with the French secret service, it is absolutely false."

LONDON PAPERS PRAISE COOLIDGE'S SPEECH

LONDON, April 23. (By the Associated Press.)—President Coolidge's speech at the luncheon of the Associated Press in New York yesterday has been favorably received here by the press and by the officials of the MacDonald labor government. It is expected the prime minister will take the earliest chance to proclaim, either in the house of commons or in a public address outside, his wholehearted support of the American executive's proposed conference for further world disarmament.

WILL HOLD EASTER DANCING PARTY

The first public event which Lowell lodge, N.P.O. Elks, has staged in some time is to be given tonight in the nature of an Easter dancing party in Associate hall. The local "Elks" have secured the Minor-Doyle orchestra to supply the music and many special features are planned.
The Boston convention committee of the lodge is staging this affair and its success, it goes without saying, is regarded as assured.

TRIBUTE TO 44 VICTIMS OF SUBMARINE DISASTER

TOKIO, April 23. (By the Associated Press.)—Bitterness over American anti-Japanese immigration legislation was temporarily forgotten today while tribute was paid to 44 victims of the Sasebo submarine disaster, who, it has developed, wrote notes pledging immorial patriotism while awaiting slow death from suffocation.
In connection with impressive funeral ceremonies at Sasebo, the navy department made public to the nation letters and will found in the navy submarine 43 which sank in 28 fathoms of water off Sasebo harbor, on March 18. Typical of these phrases written by the trapped and smothering men were:
"Long live the emperor."
"We die, but we guard the empire after death."
"In coming generations our spirits will serve the emperor."
One letter jotted at intervals during the death watch vividly described the suffering.

DEATHS

McClellan.—Andrew McClellan, a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish died today at his home, 22 Rock street. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Sarah, two daughters, Mrs. Eugene Vallenport and Mrs. George P. Gibbons of Forge Village, two sons, George L. and Joseph McClellan and nine grandchildren. Funeral notice later.
Bonan.—Mrs. Hanna Hart Bonan, widow of Frank Bonan, died today at her home, 85 Canton street. Mrs. Bonan was born in Fairmount, County Roscommon, Ireland and came to Lowell as a child, residing here about 45 years. The last ten years she spent in St. Margaret's parish. She is survived by two daughters, Josephine and Mrs. F. H. Marren, two sons, Julian of Lowell and Frederick P. of Baltimore, and three grandchildren.

Local Teacher Honored

The president of the Institute to Mr. Harris, was read after the presentation:
"I have the honor to advise you that the French Institute in the United States has awarded to Miss Adelaide Baker, through its Belles-Lettres section (The French Union), the Institute's Prize Associate medal (with ribbon), in recognition of her remarkably successful and unusual career in teaching the French language, and thus spreading a knowledge of French culture among American pupils, which is one of the chief objectives of the Institute."

"The city of Lowell, which is noted for its educational advances, is to congratulate an having had a teacher of such exceptional attainments at the head of the French department of its high school for the long period of years during which Miss Baker has held that position. Very few teachers of French in the United States have trained so many successful pupils in this language, and, therefore, the Institute has selected her for signal recognition."

"The Institute attaches particular importance to the increase in the study of French in the United States, as its younger generation in the past has been unfortunately handicapped by the lack of knowledge of this language."

"French may properly be called a universal language for it is spoken by almost one hundred millions of people, if one includes in addition to the great French colonies, Switzerland, Belgium, Canada and several of the West Indian islands, and in addition to the medium for the inter-communication of thought among cultured people all over the world, including particularly the Hispanic American countries, where a great deal of business is transacted in French, as well as Holland, the Balkan states, the Scandinavian countries and the east."

"It will unfortunately be impossible for any member of the executive committee of the French Institute to go to Lowell in the immediate future to present the honor of this medal to the Institute to Miss Baker, and I therefore write to ask you if you would be so good as to represent the Institute in presenting the medal to the young and promising student of the high school. Our board will deeply appreciate your good offices and our two thousand paying members, spread all over the United States, will be greatly gratified to know that a person who has so distinguished herself in the direction in which the Institute was founded has been endorsed for proper recognition by your authority."

"We take the liberty of forwarding to you the medal and ribbon in case it is agreeable to you to act as hereinbefore set forth, for which please accept our thanks in advance."

"We would be glad to have you read this letter at commencement at the time of the presentation of the medal to Miss Baker."
"Very truly yours,
"McDONOUGH HAWKES,
"President."

The honor came as a surprise to Miss Baker and for a few moments she had considerable difficulty in controlling her emotion. She finally succeeded in thanking Mr. Harris for the Institute for the great honor bestowed on her.
Miss Baker lives in the Centralville district of Lowell and received her education in the Vermont and high schools of this city and in Paris, France. For the past 30 years she has been a teacher of French in the high school and for many years has had charge of the French department. Her knowledge of French and her ability as a teacher has been recognized several times and she is now a reader for the College Entrance Examination committee.

Pins and Medals Presented
A second feature of this afternoon's assembly was the presentation of pins and medals to members of the French Institute. Greenhalche debating society teams who represented the society in the St. Joseph's debate and who are to take part in this evening's debate against Lawrence High, by Judge Frederick Greenhalche, son of the man for whom the society is named. Pins were presented to Alfred Archin, president of the class of 1924; Merrill Calkins, captain of the regiment; Anna Fleming, president of the debating society; and Maurice Klegerman, who compose the team to represent Lowell this evening; and beautifully bound copies of "The Life of Frederick E. Greenhalche" were presented the following: Greenhalche debating society, St. Joseph's school recently; Donald Quigley, Duncan McLean, James Lindquist and Edward O'Sullivan.

The final feature on the program was the report on the students' drive for $2000 for the erection of a running track at Alumni field. The amount reported today was disappointingly small and Mr. Harris announced the drive would be continued over the vacation instead of being brought to a close Friday, as was originally planned.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING

At last evening's meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, held in one of the assembly rooms in the Y.W.C.A. building in John street, with president, Mrs. Rose Jordan Hartford in the chair, several important business matters were discussed.

Miss Eleanor Rivet, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. A communication from Miss Ursula K. Toomey, chairman of the Massachusetts Federation of Business Women's clubs, inviting members of the local organization to attend the convention to be held in Worcester on Saturday, May 3, was read by Miss Rivet. Among the prominent speakers at the convention will be Catherine Blackford, noted New York character analyst, M. E. Frickert and others.

The "Springfield Bloomer," a short composition booming the convention, was also read.
Marion B. Day (Mme. Weller), formerly of Chicago, well known critic, and one time editor of the society page of Morrison's Weekly, who is now residing in this city, read an original poem, dedicated to the local organization.

"MY IRISH ROSE" AT ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Final arrangements are being made for the presentation of "My Irish Rose," the three-act comedy to be given by the St. Columba's Dramatic society in the Academy of Music on the evenings of April 24 and 25. The players are being directed by Thomas Beane and Michael Mahoney. The cast is comprised wholly of local talent.

Al Mello Defeats New York Champion — Yanks to Raise Pennant Today

AL MELLO WINS RIGHT TO APPEAR IN FINAL OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Lowell Boy Defeats Eddie Kelley, New York Champion, in Tri-City Boxing Tournament in Boston—Gus White Down to Meet Mello in Semi-final Defaulted

Al Mello, Lowell's sensational amateur boxer, who holds the New England title at 147 pounds, advanced a step nearer participation in the Olympic games when he won the honors in his class at the big Boston-Montreal Tri-City Boxing Tournament.

AL MELLO
N. E. 147 Pound Champion.

Lowell-New York tournament in the Boston arena last night. Mello appeared as a member of the Boston team.

content to work at long range. Mello kept after his man all the way, backing him into the corners and showering him with heavy blows to head and body. Mello opened up cuts over both of Kelley's eyes, but the Irishman proved a hard fight for punishment and stayed in there for the regulation three rounds. There was no doubt, however, as to the winner and the decision was Mello's. Kelley was downed in the semi-finals, but he defaulted and Mello was proclaimed the winner of the class and he received a beautiful wall-hung watch. He also won the right to compete in the final Olympic tryouts, to be held in Boston May 20 and 21. John Souza handled Mello in the final round of the tournament, but he was not in last night's Boston bout. The first number going on at 8 o'clock and it was well after midnight before the final battle was pulled off.

Tom Kirby, New England amateur heavyweight champion easily defeated Barney Zabloski of New York, though the Boston boy was outweighted by 15 pounds.

In the 115-pound class, Sammy Fuller of Boston beat Patsy Ruffalo of New York in another interesting match. Henry Wallace, New York, defeated Ted Blocker of Lowell in the 126-pound class. Red Griffin of Chelsea added another Boston victory by taking the measure of George Chabot of Montreal.

Next Tuesday night in Crescent rink, Mello will meet the toughest proposition of his celebrated career when he stacks up against Pat Austin of Boston at the amateur tournament to be conducted under the auspices of the Lishon Social and Athletic club of this city. The club has a large number of supporters in his home town who feel their man is just the one to put a crimp in Mello's chances of representing the United States in the big Olympics. Austin, they say, has never been knocked out and is hard enough to withstand anything in Mello's repertoire.

At the present time, Al is in the pink of condition. He has been training consistently and is confident of teaching Austin a few new tricks in the ring. John Souza, his friend and trainer, added today that Mello intends to dispose of Austin by the K. O. route.

Tryouts at Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Md., April 23.—Approximately 100 amateur boxers are expected to take part in the championship and divisional tryouts of the south Atlantic division of the A. A. U. which gets under way here tonight. Eight classes from 105 to 175 pounds will be contested. The bouts will be of three rounds each, unless an extra round is ordered. Early in the morning, the semi-finals and finals of the 105-pound class will be held. The winner in each class will be scheduled for the final Olympic tryouts.

TANSEY NORTON WINS CITY TWILIGHT LEAGUE

Roxbury Boxer Lands Decision Over Bobby Lowery, the "Fighting Scotchman"

BOSTON, April 23.—Tansey Norton of Roxbury brought Bobby Lowery of Lowell a long string of victories to a sudden stop last night, defeating the "Fighting Scotchman" in the principal round number of the Armory A. A. show in the Grand Opera House.

Although he used an opportunity presented by Norton's rippling upper cuts to Lowery's stomach with telling effect.

Lowery, figuring on his usual tactics, was ever trying to get his opponent against the ropes and into a corner. Norton, however, was too elusive, slipping under his arm and dodging off the ring with a hand and weaving in and out, making Lowery miss like a novice.

Lowery kept right after his man. He was as brave as a bear at all times, but was unable to land very often on the swift-moving Roxbury boxer.

The best that could be credited to Lowery was two rounds, the seventh and eighth, with the sixth round an even proposition. In the other rounds, Norton showed to the front, counting repeatedly.

The opening session the Roxbury man jabbed Lowery almost at will, sending over a number of uppercuts that shook up the Scotchman. Though to the fifth, however, both had suffered in due style. In the seventh and eighth Lowery did his best work. Several times in these two sessions he landed with telling force. It looked as if the Scotchman would weather the storm, but he did and showed reserve power. In the last two rounds he gave the Scotchman a real boxing lesson. He won by a good margin.

AMATEUR ROLLER SKATING RACE

An amateur roller skating race will be staged in the Casino this evening. Several prominent entries have been received and indications point to a hot race. The winners will be awarded suitable prizes. Friday night of this week, there will be one of the famous "rival parties" in the Casino. Everybody who has attended one of these affairs in the past knows just what to expect. The Lowell Cadet band will be on hand to furnish music. Roller skating will continue in the Thorndike amusement center until further notice.

Plans for Reorganization to Be Discussed at Meeting Friday Night

Eddie McCaffrey, who managed the Lowell league last season, announced today that a league meeting will be held on Friday night to consider plans for reorganization.

The City Twilight league went into the field when the original Twilight league quit in mid season last year.

It was composed of four teams, the Americans, Believes, Lincolns and Independents. A schedule of the league was announced and the league played out its schedule with the Americans winning the pennant.

This league played several games, several being won by the Americans, and Believes, who finished one, two, being real high class pitchers' battles. The managers of those teams, according to Mr. McCaffrey, are ready to agree on the changes in the field.

The meeting will be held at the Crescent alleys in Hurd street, at 7:30 o'clock.

A meeting of the teams interested in the league being formed by the C.M.A.C. hall committee will be held at 7:30 o'clock. In addition to the teams already registered it is hoped that representatives of the Y.M.C.A., Y.N.A.A. and Y.N.C.A. will be on hand this evening.

NOWELL SAYS SHUBERT WILL BEAT MURPHY

Len Nowell, manager of Al Shubert, is not under the collar judging from the following letter sent the Shubert-Murphy bout here tomorrow night.

Among other things Len says: "The report that Shubert is afraid to box Murphy in Lowell is absurd. Al has been boxing a great many years and he never let down an opponent. He has stepped in there against several champions. Furthermore he holds the distinction of being the first man to beat Johnny Dundee after the latter won the featherweight title. I did not win the match in New Bedford or Fall River because I felt it would draw more money, and furthermore I was anxious to let my boys have a good fight. These are the facts. Shubert has invaded the homes of many boxers since he took up the game, and he has come out of the ver of them all with the long end of the victory. That's what he intends to do in Lowell Thursday night."

Murphy is anxious to eliminate Shubert from further consideration and he has trained with Jack Malone, Terry Martin and Patsy Sweeney, latest Chicago sensation, now in Boston, every day this week. His brother, Connie Lynch, says he is a fast, big boxer and is only nine months old.

Connie further states that Jack Malone, the latter's manager, Tommy Whisk, as well as several other out-of-town boxers will be at the rink on Thursday evening. He is unable to meet his old rival Vic Rivas here tomorrow night. This bout has consequently been scratched and Wally Thorpe of Nashua and Willie Rowe of Boston will perform in the semi-final.

High School Track Stars Will Leave for Philadelphia

been proved in the rolling process of adequate competition.

Sun To Be Represented

As a means of showing its deep interest in the athletic accomplishments of the boys of the high school, The Sun will be especially represented at the carnival by Arthur F. Woodley, of its editorial staff, who leaves for Philadelphia Thursday noon. Also taking the trip for the purpose of watching the boys in action are Abel R. Campbell and Hon. Perry D. Thompson.

The boys of the track team are not entering the carnival with any false idea of their power. They realize the competition will be the stiffest ever encountered, but they feel they are in good condition and will give of their very best. It will be a fighting team as well as a fast one that lines up before the starter's gun in the three events in which Lowell is entered. Their outdoor season has not been of long duration, but it has been intense and the results obtained during the past two weeks have been very satisfactory. The boys should reach the top of their racing form the days of the meet, which is as it should be. The Lowell team will arrive in Philadelphia Thursday morning and will work out easily on the Franklin Field track that afternoon. This will give them the "feel" of foreign climes.

In the drawing for starting positions in the three events, Lowell has been particularly fortunate. In the medley, they have pole position; in the one-mile, No. 3 position, and in the two-mile, No. 2 position. These places are bound to put them in the front ranks of runners if a large number should start.

There are 33 distinct events to be run off on Friday and Saturday afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock on Friday and at 12:30 o'clock on Saturday. Forty events will be completed on the first day and 53 on the second day. In all 400 schools and 110 colleges have entered teams.

It is the biggest carnival ever held in the country and it is a signal honor for the Lowell high school to have representation in it.

1923 AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT WILL BE RAISED TODAY

Yankees Open Their Home Season With Boston Red Sox at Stadium—Hornby Scores Two Homers in Game—Carl Mays Pitches Reds to Victory

NEW YORK, April 23.—The 1923 American league pennant will be raised over Yankee stadium today when the league champions open their home season with the Boston Red Sox. The world's championship banner won from the Giants last fall, will not be unfurled until a later date.

Rogers Hornby, former National league batting champion, entered this season's race yesterday with two homers made in a Cardinal-Pittsburgh slug-gling match won by the visitors, 10 to 3. Hornby's homer in the same game was the only other circuit swat of the day.

Jack Hendricks' Cincinnati team beat Chicago 3 to 2 in a remarkably hard fought battle. Carl Mays held the Cubs to eight hits and the Reds made seven of Kaufman and Blake. Both teams played errorless ball. The Cincinnati

ZUNA NOT TO START IN INTERNATIONAL RACE

NEW YORK, April 23.—Frank Zuna, regarded as America's best runner, failed to finish the Boston marathon last Saturday will not start in the international run unless one of the six men who qualified at Boston becomes ill or suffers a reversal of form, it was learned yesterday.

Zuna's efforts in winning the Baltimore and Detroit races earlier in the year, and his victory in the Boston race, have given him a great reputation. He was designated by the Olympic selection committee as the final Olympic try-out. Zuna was said to have entered the Boston race against the advice of a member of the selection committee.

MANY PRIZES WON BY LOWELL DOG

An aristocrat in the world of Boston triers—"Lowell's Best Yet"—owned by Edward Campbell, formerly of South Street, has won new laurels since the fancy exhibition line this spring.

Up to date, the Campbell selection has captured the following honors: "Lowell's Best Yet" won the "Lowell's Best Yet" prize, six seconds, two-thirds and eight seconds. Mr. Campbell exhibited "Lowell's Best Yet" at Cambridge on April 15, and made good. The entry was called the best from the Spindle City club of bench dogs. Campbell also entered the best Lowell Boston trier puppy, prize, "The Maiden Kennel club's best" in the members' trier class competition. Second prize was captured recently in a Cambridge show for the best Boston trier bred by an exhibitor.

The local trier is coming along fast, its owner says, and is only nine months old.

The Cardinal Minors challenge the Princeton for a game at any date for $5 a side. Please reply through this paper if change is accepted. The Cardinals defeated the Kennel A. A. last Saturday by the score of 9 to 4. They also accept the challenge of the Arrows and would like to meet them on the Aiken street grounds at 8:30 a. m. Saturday, the game to be played for two 35-cent balls. All Cardinals are requested to report for practice on the Aiken street grounds this evening.

31 Wiggin St., Lowell.

Sporting Editor: Dear Sir: Please print the following in The Sun at earliest convenience: The Emeralds now come to bat to take back a statement made in these columns last week, saying that the Buffaloes were about the only ones sent out to all the teams in the city in the 15 to 17-year-old class. The Buffaloes, who were sent out to refer to the Emeralds as nothing but "loud talkers," backed out of a game with the Emeralds three times in two days.

In two of these instances the Emeralds appeared with the whole team ready to play, but the Buffaloes either refused to play or were not there at all to play. If the Buffaloes think they have a team that can compete with the Emeralds, the Emeralds now issue a final challenge to that team.

If the Buffaloes do not appear on the North common next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock ready to play or make arrangements for a game at a future date, they will be dropped from the Emeralds' schedule. The team has been arranged for two games for next Saturday at 1 o'clock with the Common All-Stars and Sunday with the Cardinals at 3 o'clock, both games to be played on the North common. As there seem to be but three teams besides themselves in the 15-17 year old class, but they are still waiting for some word from the Maple, Grand A. Pawtucket All-Stars, Auburn Hustlers and the Burnside. For games call 6262-R, between 6 and 8 o'clock any evening.

"Thanking you in advance, we remain, Yours truly, "C. Gauthier, Mgr."

The Merrimacks will practice tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock. The following players are requested to be present: McVey, Connors, Quinn, Maynes, Garabedian, Nestor, McCluskey, Regan, Dannelly, Gibbons, Donahue and Willett. For games write through this paper.

The Belvidere Mohawks defeated the Tigers, 14 to 10 in a battle royal. "Hill" pitched a wonderful game. With the throw and the bases full, Poisk came through with a homer.

The North End Juniors will play the Emeralds Saturday. They would like to know who the Wonders are. If the Wonders want a game with the Juniors, they will play them next Sunday. The manager may be seen on the North common any evening this week.

The Hurd Street Blues are looking for games. Their lineup is as follows: L. Sullivan, C. Leonard Boyle, R. Brown, H. J. Hurdley, W. Rogers, B. H. Hannon, M. F. Claker, R. J. Sack and J. McArthur Jr. Address all challenges to 14 Hurd street. All 15-17 year-old teams will be accommodated.

The Highlands would like to play the Major Juniors after tomorrow at 2 o'clock at Highland park. Answer through this paper call 2441-X and they will play them next Sunday. The lineup includes: Murphy, Bassett, Currier, Harman, Herbert, Aldridge, Collins and Dempsey.

The Lawrence Hurps, a semi-pro outfit, would like to arrange games with teams in this city and outlying districts.

TILDEN INVITED TO "TALK THINGS OVER"

NEW YORK, April 23.—William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, who resigned from the Davis cup and Olympic teams following the publication of a report by the amateur tennis committee of the tennis association which, he alleged, referred to him as "an evil influence" because of his writing, was yesterday invited to meet with the Davis cup committee Friday to talk things over.

In a letter of invitation Julian S. Myrick, chairman of the Davis cup committee, expressed surprise at the possibility that an American tennis champion would refuse to represent the cup in international competition when called upon.

"You have been invited to play for your country as an American champion and if you never crossed the needs of the committee that you would refuse or even hesitate. You are eligible to represent this country in the contests mentioned," the letter said.

"Inasmuch as you were present at one of recent meetings of the Davis cup committee," it continued, "it is difficult to conceive your having any doubt whatsoever with regard to your eligibility or to the committee's view in this regard."

AUSTRALIA EXPECTS TO WIN SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 23.—The secretary of the Australian Lawn Tennis association, commenting on the withdrawal of William T. Tilden, from his association, expressed the belief today that Tilden's chances to lift the cup were materially enhanced by the development.

1450-W and ask for Edward, or answer through this paper.

The Unity A. C. will open their season when they meet the Pawtucket Blue Juniors Sunday afternoon at Washington park. The Unity will pick from the following: Plouffe, Coops, Sullivan, Cornier, P. A. Sullivan, Kelley, Sylvester, Lipshitzky, Menner, Howles and Alton.

The manager of the North Ends would like to have the manager of the Belmonts call 1575-J this evening between 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock and ask for Luckley. The North Ends are completing their schedule for the following games: The Emeralds on the North common next Sunday. The following players are requested to report for these games: Bevis, Nadeau, Dugas, Palkoul, Murphy, Marquis, Conway, Adams, Scarbuck, Sandler and Metcalf.

The Pawtucket Stars wish to answer the Buffaloes concerning Sunday's game. The game was to have been played Saturday, but the grounds were not ready and the game postponed. The grounds were also wet Sunday and the Buffaloes claim they were not able to put forth their best effort and they now want a return game with the Buffaloes for fun, money or marbles.

The Young Minors would like to play the Major a week from Saturday.

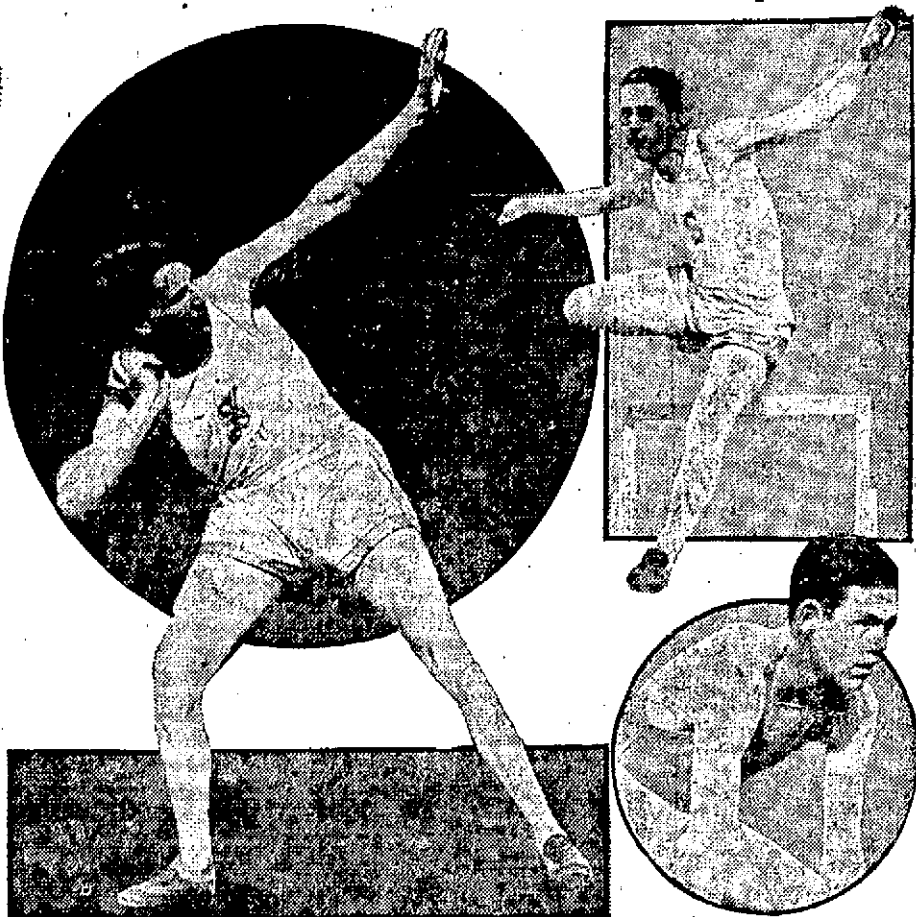

The Belvidere Pirates challenge the best team in the 14-15 year old class. Call 6467-1.

The Sheffield Juniors, a 3-11-year-old team, is looking for games with teams in that division. The lineup includes the following stars: W. Riley, A. Purcell, Fielding, Rangan, Quinn, Welch, Curtin, R. Curtin, Martin and Griffin. The team accepts the challenge of the Majors and would like to play that outfit next Saturday. Call

Are Golden Bears Due For Upset?

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif.
April 23—The western college sporting world will "tune in" on the annual University of California-Stanford track meet April 26. It promises to be the greatest meet ever staged between the ancient rivals.

California—three national champions—is figured to lose by coast critics, while the red-shirted track and field men are rated as potential national champions.

California and Stanford have met in this sport every year since 1891, when the Bears won the first of 12 meets. The Bears won 12, and they tied twice.

Captains Out of It
Neither Captain Nelson Van Judah

of Stanford nor Captain Bill Neufeld of the Bears is expected to take part in the events. Van Judah, expected to develop into the best coast quarter-mile runner, dropped from the picture when Harold Miller, a sophomore, came through with a rush.

Neufeld, a good javelin thrower and handy with the shot and discus, will lose the shot and discus to Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft of Stanford.

Hartranft threw the discus farther than any mortal had ever thrown it in competition against University of Southern California last month, but slipped over the foul mark, and thus is not accounted world's champion.

Hartranft tosses the discus regularly around 154 feet and he is one of the three men in the world who can put the shot over 50 feet.

Becker In Dark Horse
Hartranft holds the I.C.A.A.A. record with the discus, while he won the shot-putting contest in the same meet, in 1922.

Stanford appears to be particularly strong in the sprints and distance running events, while California will gather her greatest strength in the field.

Marshall Hale and Ian Campbell bid fair to win the 100-yard dash and the 220 for Stanford over Phil Barber, the Bears' best man.

And Hugo Leisner, a junior, looks to be the class of the Pacific coast in the hurdles races, though Al Becker is somewhat of a California dark horse, and may spring the surprise of the day.

Bill Richardson, in the half-mile, is easily the best man, and Stanford may even send a shutout team to the track in Richardson, Macintosh and William Swaine. Alan Charles, Stanford's miler, has won that event in both Stanford's preliminary meets.

TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIPS

CAMBRIDGE, April 23.—The University of Southern California, recently elected a member of the I.C.A.A.A. will send a team of 12 athletes to compete in the Eastern Intercollegiate track and field championships at the Harvard stadium, May 30 and 31. A. C. Bickford, Harvard undergraduate track manager, announced today. Assurance that 30 members of the I.C.A.A.A. will be represented at the meet has been received.

University of California which will send its fourth consecutive triumph in the stadium will oppose Stanford in the objective dual meet of the Pacific coast season next Saturday and eastern track managers will watch the company with interest as the leading performers of both teams will be sent to the games here. Stanford did not compete last year.

Rough Out of Game
CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 23.—Eddie Roush, star outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds, who wrenched his side in hitting practice last week, will not accompany the team to Pittsburgh today. George Harper will continue to play center field through the Pirates series. Roush hopes to be in condition to resume his place in the lineup when the team returns to Cincinnati Sunday.

Roy to Meet Martin
MANCHESTER, N. H., April 23.—Thirty-six rounds of boxing under the auspices of the 12th Middle Atlantic with the feature bout one of 10 rounds between Terry Martin, of Providence, and Leo Roy, featherweight champion of Canada, is expected to be a main event for the night. Roy is a native of Manchester and surrounding cities. The artillery unit, with Sam Harris at matchmaker, has practically completed details for the show at the state armory Thursday afternoon, and is anticipating a huge crowd.

The semi-final bouts up as a good battle itself. This brings together Jackie Clark and Al Champagne. The preliminaries will be between George Eric and Young Bird, of Lawrence; Clifford Mayden, of Nashua, and Al Flecky, of the service battery and Al Toole and Harold Austin.

VILLA MEETS McKENNA
CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 23.—Panchito Villa, former world champion, and Eddie McKenna, New Orleans bantamweight, meet here tonight in the headliner of Cleveland's first professional boxing show in three years.

Samuel Peckham, Chicago, and Alex. Hurt, Lorain, meet in the semi-final and Harry Gordon, New York, and Al Zimmer, Cleveland, in the third ten round bout. All are to a decision.

WRESTLING BOUTS
Leo Sarason and Bob Johnson will surely meet with difficulties when they meet next Tuesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Wrestling show. Both claim they will win in less than 10 minutes and as they wrestled for over 12 hour two years ago to get a fall it would not be surprising if it went the long. Sarason will finish his training during road work Tuesday morning on the boulevard. Regard is working hard at Shawshank park every day in preparation for Pique Persiani. Regard is out to meet any local man at 160 lbs. including Christo, Roberts and Savage.

Butler Goodell will officiate at these bouts and Physical Director C. E. Toomey will have general supervision of the arrangements and will keep time.

CHURCH BASEBALL LEAGUE
Invitations were sent out today to various churches of the city for enrollment in the Church Baseball League. Several churches have already organized teams and signified their intention of participating in the league. A meeting for organization and drawing up of schedules will be held at the Y.M.C.A. at 7:15 p. m. Thursday, May 1st. If for any reason a church does not receive one of the letters of invitation they are invited to have representatives at this meeting.

OIL THE WRINGER
If the wringer works with difficulty, put a little kerosene oil on the coals and work them for a few seconds, then wipe and put in a few drops of machine oil.

WASHING LACER
Wash lacer, velle, and delicate lace fabrics in water, using soap and able to stiffen them, if they seem to have lost their original freshness.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Many Visitors Coming Here in May to Attend Fourth Degree Exemplification

The Fr. Gabriel Druille assembly, fourth degree, K. of C. of Southern Essex county will come to Lowell in May to attend the fourth degree exemplification with 150 members, one third of whom will be candidates. The Bishop Stang assembly of Fall River will bring 100 men here, fifty of whom will be honored with the degree.

These items of business were among the important matters considered at the regularly weekly meeting of the exemplification committee last night. In a two-hour session, many matters of import were considered and passed upon and when the letters from assemblies throughout the state were read evidencing unalloyed interest in the Lowell degree, there was much enthusiasm. The sub-committee on the dinner, Sir Knight John E. Hart, chairman, the sub-committee on membership, Sir Knight William H. Gallagher, chairman, submitted reports of a very interesting character.

Sir Knight Edward E. Saunders was designated as chairman of the sub-committee on equipment acting in conjunction with a regular committee designated by Louis Watson, master. Sir Knight Charles H. Burns was added to the sub-committee authorized to secure hotel accommodations for visiting knights. It is now apparent that Lowell will have many visitors on that day and preparations will be made to entertain them. The fourth degree knights from Southern Essex county are now making plans for a special dinner at noon prior to the conferring of the degree. Others are planning similar functions either Sunday noon or Saturday evening. Sir Knights Hugh Maguire and John J. Linnane were designated a committee in charge of the police arrangements, and a large corps of ushers recruited from the members of Bishop Stang assembly will assist at the Auditorium and Liberty hall on the day of the degree.

THAW DECLARED SANE
Still Held as Counsel for Evelyn Nesbit Prepares to Ask for New Trial

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Although he was declared sane and fully capable of managing his affairs by a jury in common pleas last night, Harry K. Thaw today was still in the Pennsylvania Hospital for Mental and Nervous Diseases, where he has been confined for the last seven years.

After the verdict had been brought in, William A. Gray, counsel for Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife, whose 12-year-old son was permitted to intervene in the trial, requested the usual four days in which to file a motion and reasons for a new trial. The motion was granted and Judge May held Thaw in the custody of the court pending its disposition. No time was set for the hearing of the motion. Meanwhile Thaw must remain in the asylum.

In announcing that he would ask for another trial, Mr. Gray said he also spoke for Arthur G. Dickson, counsel for the trustees of Thaw's estate, who also entered his release. Thaw said he would not make any definite plans for the future until his case finally was disposed of. He returned to the asylum shortly before midnight.

OKLAHOMA PRIMARIES
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 23.—of a national committee, and state election of seven delegates-at-large to the national convention, selection chairman, framing of a platform, and endorsement of a presidential candidate are on the program of the state republican convention here today. Several district conventions have selected convention delegates instructed for Calvin Coolidge and it is considered certain by party leaders that the delegates-at-large will be similarly instructed.

BOXER KAYOED LAST NIGHT DIED TODAY
BOSTON, April 23.—Frank Mollari of the Roxbury district, who was knocked out by Jimmy Pleari of East Boston in the first round of the 11th 12 pound class of the open bouts run off in connection with the inter-city amateur boxing bouts in the Arena last night, died at a hospital today.

Mollari's head struck the floor, causing concussion of the brain, and he was carried from the ring. He had previously given the fans a surprise by winning the decision over Harry Goldstein of Boston in the semi-final third round bout, knocking Goldstein down three times in the first round.

TILDEN DECLINES INVITATION
PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, today declined the invitation of the American Davis cup committee to discuss his resignation from the Davis cup and Olympic games at a conference in New York on Friday.

Mr. Tilden stated that he had a previous engagement to play in exhibition games in the south.

MAJORIE RAMBEAU BETTER
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—The condition of Miss Marjorie Rambeau, actress, who was stricken here with acute appendicitis, was reported today as hygienic today to be greatly improved. It was said that at her present rate of improvement it was believed an operation would not be necessary.

Ships plying between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the United States ordinarily handle more than two-fifths of the total cargo shipped through the Panama canal.

SEN. WALSH RETURNS

CHECK FOR $200

BOSTON, April 23.—Senator David I. Walsh has returned to Boston the check for $200 sent him for his services as Washington-Lincoln day orator at the joint exercises which Boston conducted in February at Symphony hall. Explaining that he felt the people of Massachusetts were entitled to hear his views on public matters whenever he could accept their invitation, he wrote that he could accept no honorarium but in view of his limited finances would appreciate a check of $50 for his traveling expenses.

The payment of $200 to orators at the municipal celebrations who come here from out of town is the customary fee, according to J. Phillip O'Connell, director of public celebrations. Of this sum, $100 is intended as remuneration for preparation and delivery of the address, including "box office value of speaker." If he is of great prominence, while the other $100 is for railway and hotel expenses. The most noteworthy oratorical occasion is the Fourth of July. For this speech, the usual honorarium is likewise $100, plus expenses, but this orator is generally chosen from among the residents of Boston. Some of the most prominent men in the country are numbered among Fourth of July orators who have spoken on that day in Faneuil hall ever since 1783.

POP WARNER TAKES OVER HIS NEW JOB ON COAST

Pop Warner is already on the job at Stanford University on the Pacific slope teaching his new charges advanced football forms. Warner is in the midst of an active spring campaign which is to last for five weeks. The venerable Pop left Pittsburg, where he turned out a number of great teams, to sign with Stanford for three years. This picture shows Warner talking things over with his team leader, Jim Lawson.

The exhibition was opened by King George, to continue the celebration of the jubilee of the throne of King George V.

FREE STATE TO FLOAT $50,000,000 LOAN

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Irish Free State will float shortly an internal loan of 10,000,000 pounds, according to reports received yesterday in the financial district. The loan is to be used for various public improvements and to provide the treasury with a sufficient working balance to take care of current government expenses.

It had been reported that the Free State was sounding out the American market for a dollar loan of $50,000,000, but it was indicated today that Irish officials had determined to float an internal loan of a foreign one. It was found by the Irish officials that there is a strong demand within the Free State for tax exempt securities. Also, it was said the banks and individuals of that country have recovered somewhat from the costs of the war, and have waked against the government and have a surplus which they can invest in their own government securities.

AMERICAN LEGION'S ADVOCATE RESIGNS

BOSTON, April 23.—Capt. John H. O'Brien, of Worcester, advocate of the American Legion, has resigned today, giving press of other business as the reason. State Department Commander Edwards said yesterday that Capt. O'Brien told him some time ago that he really had no time to give the office, but said nothing about resigning then.

Captain O'Brien is a member of the bar in Worcester county, and is assistant of the staff of Brig. Gen. Thomas P. Foley, 52nd brigade, 28th division. In his letter of resignation he recommended that his successor be a man living in or near Boston, in order that the state commander could more easily reach him and in the turn would find it much easier to reach him. He was physically impossible for him to attend to his legal duties, his national guard duties, and to justice to the Legion at the same time.

CLAIMS HUSBAND ASSAULTED HER

Mrs. Dorothea Ignatowicz, of 153 Lawrence street, called today on the outpatient department of St. John's hospital, claiming to have numerous minor lacerations treated. Questioned by hospital officials as to the cause of the cuts, she said her husband had assaulted her with a knife. The police were notified by hospital officials and later arrested the victim's husband and booked him at the station on the charges of drunkenness and assault and battery. He will be arraigned in district court on these charges tomorrow morning.

Sen. Wheeler is Defended

knew nothing about government permits and had told Campbell he would handle only state court cases. He denied any knowledge that Wheeler performed, agreed to perform, or been paid for any legal services to Campbell in connection with any federal question. As chief counsel for Campbell, he said, he had "assured ground" to claim that he knew fully about Campbell's legal affairs.

Mysterious Letter
A hint of a mysterious letter about land permits said to have been written by Senator Booth of the interior department to Senator Wheeler's Montana law firm, was heard today. Senator Sterling of South Dakota, a republican member of the committee and expected to produce it before the investigation was ended. He declined to reveal the source of his information or say who prepared a memorandum with the aid of which he was cross questioning L. V. Baughman, a western attorney who said he also had "heard of such a letter."

FULL PEACE IN MEXICO NEAR

MEXICO CITY, April 23.—The recent succession of victories by the government troops and surrenders by rebel leaders have advanced the situation so that full peace in the republic is possible within two or three weeks, according to General Serrano, secretary of war. Only a few rebel bands remain scattered over the country, all lacking the proper materials for warfare, and the majority of their chieftains have applied for amnesty, he declared.

TENN. MANAGER FOR McDOWD DROPS DEAD

MURPHRESBORO, Tenn., April 23.—George Fort Milton, 55, owner and editor of the Chattanooga Evening News, and one of the best known men in business and politics in Tennessee, died suddenly of heart disease here early today. Mr. Milton was state manager for William Gibbs McAdoo in his presidential campaign and it is thought he overtaxed his energies in his effort to keep up both his political and editorial duties.

WANTED—ANOTHER GOOD SCARECROW

LOWELL HIGH TEAM MEETS SOMERVILLE

The Lowell high school baseball squad, confident after its impressive 17 to 2 victory over Townsend in the opening game of the season Patriots day, lined up against Somerville high in Somerville this afternoon.

In tackling the Somerville nine at this early date, Coach Lister's team was pitted against one of the strongest aggregations in the state. In yesterday's game, the boys downed Boston very handily, the greatest school boy twirl in these parts. It was felt that he would start against Lowell.

Before leaving town this noon, Coach Lister intimated that he would send Mike Gibbons to the mound. Against Townsend, Mike retired 10 batters with the minimum runs and allowed but a solitary safe blow in six innings. Carr was scheduled to be on the receiving end, while the remainder of the lineup was the same as that which battled against Townsend.

Vote Today on Bonus Bill

proposal would require a larger immediate outlay by the government than the straight insurance proposition and the amendment provided for issuance of $1,500,000,000 bonds under the second Liberty loan act to take care of the payments.

Underwood Attacks Bonus
Opening the debate today Senator Underwood, democrat, Alabama, renewed the attack against the bonus. He advocated a pension law, but declared it impossible to compensate the former soldiers for their service.

"You dismember these protectors of our nation by offering them 'drip dollars,'" Mr. Underwood said, "or by proposing to give them these insurance policies. The man who fought on the battle line of battle will have to carry this country in the next 20 years. You very cunningly fixed this bonus so that it won't be paid for 20 years and propose that these men instead of you will have to pay for it."

"You're adding under this legislation an enormous tax to an already heavy burden. The doctors disagree as to the chances of the man who has fought in the line of battle. The estimate said it will cost $2,500,000,000. The treasury secretary, Mr. McAdoo, says it will cost $2,500,000,000 and the treasury is probably right."

Price for Everything
"A price must be paid for everything worth having," Senator Underwood said. "That is true of government—the most essential factor in civilization. You pay in loyalty, in service, as well as in taxes. The 'bond' every citizen is born under is carried in that section of the constitution providing that congress has the power to raise and maintain armies. The duty cannot be measured in money."

"I want it distinctly understood that I shall vote against any bonus measure presented here. It would be a reflection on the men who fought in the line of battle. Yet the senator would reflect on it by letting war profiteers keep their profits," declared Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa.

Favors Cash if One Is Paid
"That is not the issue here," returned the Alabama senator. "They already are hidden behind tax exempt securities."

When Senator Brookhart insisted that those securities were only a small part of the national security issue, Senator Underwood expressed regret that he could not "keep up with that senator's incoherence."

CONFERENCE ON TRUNK TO PROTECT AMERICAN 200 PATIENTS MOVED DURING FIRE

TOKIO, April 23.—(By the Associated Press).—Reports on the American immigration limitation as it affects Japan were submitted to a meeting of the new policy council today by Premier Kiyomura and Foreign Minister Matsui. It is understood that the council generally endorsed the government's proposal.

Precautions have been ordered by the police to protect the persons and property of American residents of Tokyo. Although some "patrols" are distributed hand bills, warning of the approach of a Japanese-American war, due for there have been no untoward incidents. Many speakers, while bitterly attacking the United States as a nation, are cautioning their audiences against violence locally, pointing out this would only be a boomerang to Japan.

DECEPTION WOULD NOT BE ELIMINATED

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Deception in the sale of woolen merchandise would not be eliminated by passage of the French bill which would provide for the labeling of woolen fabrics to show the contents of virgin fiber. Albert L. Gifford, representing the Worcester Mill Co. of Lisbon Falls, Me., today told the house commerce committee.

"I can think of no interest," Gifford said, "which would be benefited by the bill, except woolen manufacturers who would take advantage to make fabrics from the cheapest grades of new wool and sell them at a greater price than could be obtained from fabrics containing reworked wool."

TO INCREASE SALARY OF CONGRESSMEN

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Members of congress would receive a salary of $10,000 a year under a bill introduced today by Representative Celler, democrat, New York. The present salary is $7500.

OUTDOOR RECREATION
WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Coolidge received today an expected to approve a recommendation by Secretary Weeks that a conference be held in Washington May 22 of representatives of organizations and interests connected with outdoor recreation. Mr. Weeks is chairman of the outdoor life commission recently appointed by the president.

paid it should be an honest bonus, paid in cash.

Time for "Repentance"
Senator Copeland said it was time for "repentance" by the government and referring to the recent senate investigations declared "we can best start cleaning house by paying our obligations to the soldiers."

Mr. Copeland said he had received messages from soldiers in every section of the country endorsing and "demanding" the cash option. The pending measure should be compared with "adjusted compensation paid by the government to every industry since the war," declared Senator Hiram, democrat, Alabama, in order that its adequacy might be appreciated.

Without a record vote a motion by Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, to hold up payment of the $50 in cash allowed by the committee bill until July, 1925, was adopted.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, April 23.—Short covering operations imparted a firmer tone to stock prices at the opening of today's market which is partly attributed to the better feeling inspired by industrial leaders, including U. S. President Coolidge's address yesterday. The place in a wide variety of oil stocks, American Can and Standard moved up and fractional recoveries shares.

Aggressive buying was nowhere in evidence but continued covering brought about steady lower prices in the general list. Motor, oil and specialty shares scored fractional gains, but American Woolen was under selling pressure, due to the unfavorable trade reports from the textile industry falling to a new low at 62 1/2. General Electric advanced two points and gains ranging from fractions to 10 points were registered by Borden, United Chemical, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Gulf States Steel, Chandler and Maxwell Motors A. General Motors and DuPont both responded to the favorable earnings news by the former corporation. The first in the latter, Congoleum and Norfolk & Western encountered fresh selling and declined from 1 to 2 points. Foreign exchanges moved higher.

Over extension of short accounts indicated by the unprecedented number of 34 issues showing "ditto" provided the basis for technical rallies in stocks which recently have been subject to selling pressure. At the same time an increase in car loadings, taken to mean that the decline in trade had been checked, encouraged a resumption of constructive activities throughout the industrial list. Under the leadership of Tidewater, which moved up 3 1/2 points, virtually all oil shares made brisk recoveries, with sugar, store, motor, necessary independent, steel and specialty stocks averaging gains of 1 to 3 points. Mexican Seaboard displayed strength on prospects that the company would be resumed on the common stock of the company with a two point gain reached a new high level at 50 1/2. Call money opened at 4 per cent.

Each attack against American Sugar common and preferred and American Woolen which forced them to new low figures for the year of 58 1/2, 53 1/2 and 62, respectively, failed to get the instant demand for other stocks. Col. S. First National, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Gulf States Steel, Chandler and Maxwell Motors A. General Motors and DuPont both responded to the favorable earnings news by the former corporation. The first in the latter, Congoleum and Norfolk & Western encountered fresh selling and declined from 1 to 2 points. Foreign exchanges moved higher.

FOR EQUALIZATION OF PROMOTION

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Assistant Secretary Roosevelt urged the house naval committee today to report the bill of Representative Andrew, republican, Massachusetts, which would provide for equalization of promotion between naval officers of the staff and line.

Rear Admiral W. L. Rogers opposed the bill, declaring it would decrease the efficiency of the navy by creating too many high ranks with no corresponding posts to be filled.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—Physical directors and experts from all parts of the country are here today for the opening of the 31st annual convention of the American Physical Education association. The meeting will continue until Saturday.

Speakers who will address the convention on subjects pertaining to physical education and hygiene include Carl Shrader, president, Boston; Prof. James W. Linn, University of Chicago; Dr. Jessup F. Williams, Columbia University, New York City.

BISHOPS' CONFERENCE

EAST NORTHFIELD, April 23.—The official pronouncement of the Methodist bishops, for presentation at the Methodist general conference in Springfield next month, is the principal business at the bishops' conference which opened here today. The sessions will continue through to April 30.

A preliminary draft of the bishops' address has been drawn up by Bishop Joseph F. Berry of Philadelphia, and will be presented at the convention for revision and ratification.

PROTESTS MUSCLE SHOALS SALE

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Appearing as a representative of the Tennessee Manufacturers' association R. H. Wilkins of Tullahoma, Tenn., today urged the senate agriculture committee not to award Muscle Shoals to any private enterprise unless the contract provided the control of the federal water power act, assured the completion of dam No. 3. The distribution of power to adjoining states, the manufacture of fertilizer in time of peace and munitions in time of war.

CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON, April 23.—An effort to set a definite date for consideration by the senate of the child labor amendment failed today on objection by democratic senators.

Senator Lodge asked that the resolution proposing the amendment be called up on May 6, but Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, said he thought the matter should be deferred.

ROTARY CONFERENCES

Prof. Libby Was Nominated as District Governor of Newly Formed District

WORCESTER, April 23.—Professor Herbert C. Libby of Waterville, Me., was nominated as district governor of the newly formed eighth district, and Elmer E. Hubbard of Pawtucket was nominated today at the Rotary conference here for the office of district governor of the 31st district, which includes Boston.

Henry S. Denison, of Framingham, president of the Denison Manufacturing Co., was the principal speaker of the forenoon. Other speakers were Harry B. Gould, Quincy, Mass., general manager of the Ford Motor Shipbuilding Co., Clifford S. Anderson of the Norton Co. of this city; and Bertrand C. Larabee, of Boston, sales manager of the Sheldon School of Business Science.

The Salem club leads the registration from cities outside the local club, which has a registration of nearly 300, with a total of 45 delegates present at the two days' conference. Providence is second with 42, and Boston third with 33.

Under the new plan of redistricting the old 31st district, there will be 32 clubs with a membership of nearly 1815 members in the new 31st district.

TO RIP BEDDING, UNLOCK TRUNKS, ETC., FOR WILL

FITCHBURG, April 23.—Permission to "rip bedding, tear up carpets and unlock trunks" in search of a missing will was granted Attorney Alvah M. Levin by Judge Frederick H. Chamberlain, in probate court today. Clarence M. Pratt made a will, according to Attorney Levin, providing for a bequest of from $25,000 to $50,000 for the establishment of a fund for aged men in Fitchburg. After Mr. Pratt's death efforts to find the will, in which Attorney Levin was named executor, were futile.

The Bone and Sinew

The readers of THE SUN are the bone and sinew of Lowell. They are practically all Lowell people who have helped to make the city what it is.

They earn their living in Lowell; they spend their money in Lowell; they are the main support of the Lowell merchants.

SUN readers are not in the habit of running to Boston for their supplies. They trade at home.

They are the largest body of newspaper readers in the city, and few of them read any other paper because they don't need to.

There is only one way for the merchant to reach this large, thrifty, industrious and intelligent body of readers, and that is through the columns of THE SUN.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 23

Jack did as suggested and instantly there came a little stream of funny-looking brown stuff. "That's rubber sap," shouted the boy. "Rub some over the hole in the tube and then blow the tube up again." Jack smeared a lot of it on the tube while the boy and Flip watched him.

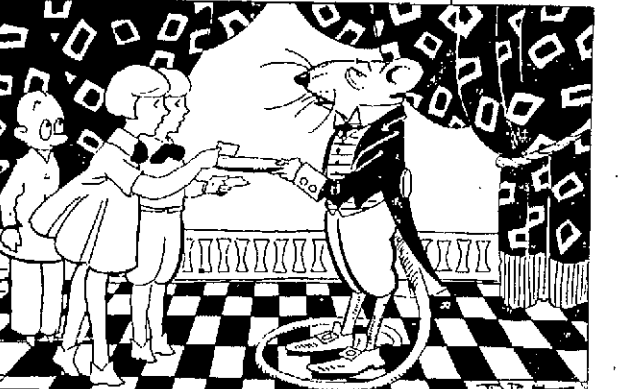

After waiting a few minutes for the rubber sap to dry a bit, the little adventurer again blew the tube up. This time the air stayed in and the tube grew bigger and bigger. "Keep right on blowing," whispered the boy, when it got enough air in it to be able to talk again.

"Gee," shouted Jack, "if I blow you any higher, you will float away." "That's what I want to do," answered the tube, whose voice was getting stronger and stronger as Jack blew it higher and higher. "It is time for me to be getting back to the machine I came off of." (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
by Olive Roberts Barton

A GRAY RAT IN PUMPKIN-COLORED SATIN TOOK THEIR CARDS

Away to Once-Upon-a-Time Land went Nancy and Nick with Mister Muggs in his magic automobile.

They rode over seven hills of seven colors, and on top of the last hill, all covered with blue forget-me-nots and violets, stood the blue castle of Cinderella and her prince.

The little car stopped at the front door of the palace and a gray mouse in pumpkin-colored velvet let them in.

A gray rat in pumpkin-colored satin took their cards on a card tray and said he would tell the queen that they were there, also the prince, who was now called King Charming instead of Prince Charming.

They all sat down in a lovely blue and pumpkin-colored room and waited, and by and by Cinderella came running down the marble stairs and burst into the room.

"Oh, I forgot," she laughed, "they are always telling me that I should be dignified now that I am a queen. But it's so hard! There!" And she spread out her train and straightened her crown.

"But I'm so glad to see you, you dears," she beamed. "Hello, Nancy! Hello, Nick! Hello, Mister Muggs! You see I know your names from your cards. And now do sit down and tell me about all the news and everything."

How is my dear godmother, the Fairy Queen?

"She's fine and dandy," said Mister Muggs. "She sent me to find out if you are happy, and if not, why, and all about it. These Twins just came along for a ride."

"Cinderella—I mean Queen Cinderella—laughed and gave Nancy a hug. Then she sighed. "I am happy all except one thing," she said. "My two older sisters live with me, and although they mean to be kind, they are always telling me what I should do—now that I am queen I suppose they think I should pull a long face and sit with my hands in my lap and all that. And when I give a party it's just awful. They just sit against a wall and make remarks about everybody, and nobody dances with them and they get cross and then they scold me."

"Is that all you have to be unhappy about?" laughed Mister Muggs. "I don't think it is a laughing matter," declared Cinderella. "And even my husband is getting tired of them sitting around croaking all the time."

"Why, it is only a laughing matter," said Mister Muggs. "Because it is so easily fixed. The trouble with your poor sisters is that they want to be young and lovely, too. So I am going to give you some beauty cream I brought along. Rub a little on their faces while they are asleep and tomorrow they will be young and as pretty as you are, and of course that will make them happy and kind-hearted."

"Oh, thank you!" cried Cinderella. "I'll put it on the minute they get to sleep. I am so glad you came."

"We must be going now," said Mister Muggs, so they all left the blue castle, Cinderella waving to them from a window.

"I always did feel sorry for those old sisters," said Nancy. "I never thought Cinderella could be so happy either as long as they were old and ugly."

mount from her "high horse," he places her aboard a merchant ship with a cowboy friend of his for a companion. When the ship is wrecked they are stranded on a desert isle. And it is right here when the fun begins.

The girl is highly offended with the cowboy and his rough manner. Why his gruffness, language and his manners are simply outrageous and she loathes him. But on the other hand the cowboy is highly offended with her patronizing and condescending manner. Many amusing incidents are registered in this scene on the island, when these two extremes of society try to make the best of it. And it's an interesting experiment. Of course, there would be no story or no picture if the two didn't eventually fall in love. The titled fiance appears on the scene and boldly kidnaps the girl, but after a series of highly thrilling incidents, the girl is rescued by the cowboy and her father. The part of the cowboy is played by David Butler in a most realistic manner.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances will be given this evening at the Merrimack Square theatre of "The White Sister," one of the season's most notable screen successes with Lillian Gish in the leading role. The usual excellent surrounding program is being shown.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Manager Peterson has arranged another program of 11 quality, with "The Fighting Coward," a Booth Tarkington tale, produced by James Cruze of "Covered Wagon" fame as the leading feature. The cast includes Ernest Torrence, Mary Astor, Noah Beery, Phyllis Haver and Cullen Landis. It's a Paramount picture.

The second attraction for the weekend will be "The Love Trap," a story of romance and adventure with an all-star cast. Surrounding attractions will include "Hollywood Bound," a comedy, the latest episode of the Boston Post prize series and the latest International News.

"The Fighting Coward" is an entertaining southern love comedy-drama. Children Landis plays Tom Rutherford who returns to his home after years spent with a step-uncle in Philadelphia. He knows nothing of the duelling code prevalent in the southern states and is ordered from the house in disgrace when he refuses to fight a duel with Major Patterson for the girl he loves.

In Natchez he meets General Orrow they will be young and as pretty as you are, and of course that will make them happy and kind-hearted.

"Oh, thank you!" cried Cinderella. "I'll put it on the minute they get to sleep. I am so glad you came."

"We must be going now," said Mister Muggs, so they all left the blue castle, Cinderella waving to them from a window.

"I always did feel sorry for those old sisters," said Nancy. "I never thought Cinderella could be so happy either as long as they were old and ugly."

CITY COUNCIL FAILS TO TAKE NOMINATIONS FROM TABLE

No Definite Action at Meeting on the Nominations of Joseph M. Dinneen as City Treasurer and John
J. O'Connell as Superintendent of Charities

There were three outstanding phases to the meeting of the city council last night. One was the attempt to take from the table the nomination by Mayor Donovan of Joseph M. Dinneen as city treasurer to succeed Fred H. Bourke, present incumbent, which was defeated by a 9 to 5 standing vote. Another was the failure to act on the tabled nomination of John J. O'Connell to succeed Joseph H. Gormley as superintendent of charities, and the third was the passage of a resolution addressed to the great and general court of the commonwealth, recommending that the $2,000,000 or more surplus from excess poll taxes be returned proportionately to the municipalities from which the moneys were obtained. Lowell, under such procedure, would receive, it is estimated, over $50,000.

Ten jurors were drawn for service in the May criminal session of the Middlesex superior court. A retirement pension was voted for Frank G. Collins, who joined the department in 1895 and on February 3 last entered his 57th year. Joseph H. Maguire, former election commissioner, was granted a license to maintain a lunch wagon in French street, near Bridge street. A $15,000 appropriation order covering the construction and furnishing of a public comfort station on the North common was passed.

Plan Civil Service Appeal
Council President Gallagher named Councilors Lambert and Stearns to serve with him as a committee to advise the Boston office of the state civil service commission. Thursday afternoon, in an endeavor to secure waiver of civil service requirements in connection with the election of laborers for the $50,000 Oakland sewer project voted last week.

Councilors Stearns, Hennessey and Genest were named a committee to procure a portrait of ex-Mayor Charles Emerson Howe, deceased, to be hung in the council committee room in company with the portraits of deceased former mayors which already grace the walls there.

For Beaver Brook Bridge
Councilors Lambert, McPadden and Stearns were named a committee to confer with the city engineer for the purpose of securing an estimate of cost for a bridge over Beaver Brook at Conduit street and to procure tentative plans and specifications for same.

On the Oakland sewer extension matter, Councilor Cosgrove made the motion that a committee of three go to Boston to confer with the city engineer on the matter. The motion was carried. A letter from Labor Director O'Neil which stated that the commission is inclined to regard the project as not an emergency matter. This would preclude the possibility of engaging needy family heads as laborers unless they be certified by the commission as eligible for such work. Messrs. Sadler, Fitzgerald, McPadden and Daly expressed the belief that the commission should also take up with the commission the manner in which requisitions for laborers are filled.

Committee Hard to Find

After much discussion Mr. Stearns moved as an amendment to the Cosgrove motion that the council president serve as chairman of the committee and name the other two members. As an amendment to the amendment, Councilor Moriarty moved that all councilors not on the committee be authorized to attend. The amended amendment was carried by voice vote. Mr. Gallagher named Messrs. Lambert and Chadwick as members of the committee. Both declined. Messrs. Dickson and Cosgrove were then named and declined. Mr. Lambert reconsidered and consented to serve. Mr. Stearns was named as the third member of the committee.

Mr. Gallagher called a meeting of the committee for 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, at the state house. The committee meets at 3 o'clock on that day.

The Dinneen-Bourke Vote
Mr. Daly moved that the body take from the table for a vote the nomination of Joseph M. Dinneen as city treasurer. A vote vote on the motion being doubted, a standing vote showed nine against and five in favor of the motion. The vote:
Ayes: Chadwick, Cosgrove, Daly, McPadden, Sullivan.
Nays: Dickson, Fitzgerald, Gallagher, Genest, Hennessey, Lambert, McPadden, Moriarty, Stearns.
Absent: Chretien.

Wouldn't Let Genest Quit
The request of Mr. Genest for relief from service on the claims committee, of which he is chairman, was disallowed because no one answered the call of the president for a volunteer to replace Mr. Genest.

Councilor Daly moved for the passage of his resolution on the proportionate refund of the poll tax surplus. Mr. Cosgrove offering the second. Mr. Daly pointed out the money could well be used to reduce the tax rate 30 cents, or for any other purpose. With but brief debate, which took the form of a question for more information rather than of an argument on the merits of the motion, it was passed, as follows:
The Resolution
"Whereas, The general court of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, with the approval of the excellency the governor, did by enactment authorize the treasurer and receiver general of Massachusetts to issue bonds and notes of the commonwealth in order to raise sufficient money to provide for the 'aiders' bonus' so-called, and
"Whereas, By said enactment a civilian war poll tax was authorized to be assessed upon each citizen of the commonwealth in order to raise the amount of money necessary to pay the principal and interest of said loan at maturity, and

"Whereas, The amount of money raised pursuant to the said enactment was more than sufficient to provide for the purposes intended, and
"Whereas, There is at present a substantial unappropriated cash surplus balance left over from the fund created to supply the said soldiers' bonus, and such balance being now in the hands of the treasurer and receiver general of the commonwealth, and
"Whereas, The citizens and people of the City of Lowell, in obedience to law as well as to the patriotic promptings inspired by the purposes recited in the act of the legislature, paid its substantial quota of the commonwealth, and
"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that it is the sense of the city council of the City of Lowell, giving its expression for and in behalf of the people of Lowell, that a proportionate share of the unappropriated cash surplus balance of the military service loan of 1919 be and the same should be paid not only to the City of Lowell but to the cities and towns of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and to be by said cities and towns appropriated for such general lawful municipal purposes as they may deem proper.
"Be it resolved, ordered and directed, moreover, that a copy of these resolutions be sent and transmitted to each member of the senate and house of representatives representing the City of Lowell in the general court of Massachusetts."

Jurors Drawn
Councilor Stearns drew the following to serve as jurors at the criminal session of the Middlesex superior court, to be convened in May:
Albert Fielding, 36 Haynes avenue, Westman; John E. Roach, 27 Chapel street, printer; William E. Reed, 13 Blinckhorn avenue, clerk; John Murray, 133 Chapel street, shoe cutter; Fred K. Burk, 5 Astor street, druggist; Michael J. Daly, 23 Agawam street, machinist; Thomas May, 1405 Varuna avenue, gate tender; Bernard O. Hagan, 451 Gorham street, clerk and Joseph F. Burns, 18 Bellevue street, clerk.

New petitions read at the hearing were laid over until May 6 for public hearings.

Council Committee Active

Councilor Cosgrove, chairman of the council committee, charged with the investigation of the assessors' office, called a meeting of the committee for Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. If this hour is found convenient for Messrs. Genest and McPadden, the two other members.

The isolation hospital committee is today visiting the isolation hospital at Middleton. This trip is made because of the statement of Dr. Simpson, director of the hospital, made before the committee Monday night that he believes that institution most suited of any in the state for comparison with the local unit.

Laying Double Track In Chelmsford Street
Continued

For the expenditure of approximately $275,000, and which it was planned to begin early in April. The delay in starting is due to the fact that the street could not be closed until the work department started on the work of paving the street and this has only been started recently.

The installation of the double rail curve at Dutton and Merrimack streets was completed this noon and the new curve put into operation immediately. While the order in which the various jobs will be undertaken this year depends upon the order in which the street department does the work called for in its paving schedule. It is believed for its paving schedule, it is believed for its paving schedule, it is believed for its paving schedule.

The street railway schedule calls for the replacement of the old double rail for a distance of several thousand yards on Lakeview avenue from West street to the New Hampshire state line. The work was split into two jobs because of its tremendous size. The first job, of New Bedford street and Lowell and Chelmsford streets, had $186,240.36 under one plan and $205,792 on a second plan. Bruno & Pettit of Boston bid $185,370.95 and $207,239.70. Bids on the other section were: R. H. Newell of Uxbridge, $184,647.15; Connelley & Co. of Milford, $195,696.25.

The department has not yet awarded the contracts.

RECONSTRUCTION OF PRINCETON BOULEVARD

Bids were opened yesterday by the state department of public works for the reconstruction of the Princeton boulevard from Livingston avenue through North Chelmsford and Tynesboro to the New Hampshire state line. The work was split into two jobs because of its tremendous size. The first job, of New Bedford street and Lowell and Chelmsford streets, had $186,240.36 under one plan and $205,792 on a second plan. Bruno & Pettit of Boston bid $185,370.95 and $207,239.70. ## COONEYS ARE JAILED

Bobbed Hair Bandit and Husband Held at Brooklyn—
Witnesses Tell of Holdups

NEW YORK, April 23.—Celia Cooney, who admits she is Brooklyn's notorious bobbed haired bandit, sat today in a cell in Brooklyn police headquarters, while witnesses appeared before the grand jury to tell of her numerous holdup exploits, the last of which ended disastrously with the shooting of Nathan Mazza, an employee of the National Biscuit Co. In another cell was her husband, Edward S. Cooney, who admits having assisted in the holdups.

Several indictments against the couple, who were arrested Monday in Jacksonville, Fla., will be asked by the district attorney. Then the pair will be taken before the county court for pleading. They have already said they intended to plead guilty. The punishment for assault and attempted robbery is from 10 to 20 years.

Mrs. Cooney, whose arrest was brought about through the death of her child, born in Jacksonville on April 1, appeared greatly relieved and almost happy after her months of excitement. "That National Biscuit Co. job was to have been our last," she said. "We had decided to give up the hold-up game. The only reason we started it was to get enough money for the baby. But we got only $100 altogether. That wasn't enough after our trip to Jacksonville, and we had to send home for money. That's how they caught us."

SUN BREVITIES

ENTIRE COMPANY OF FIREMEN RETIRED

GLOUCESTER, April 24.—The entire fire company of the Annisquam section of this city has been retired on account of old age and younger men appointed, it became known today. Some of the members of the company had been in service more than half a century, according to city records. The senior fireman look up his duties five years after the Civil war and the superior officers had a period of service correspondingly long.

TAX REDUCTION FIGHT STARTS NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Declaration of the democratic stand on the revenue bill set forth in minority report of the finance committee filed yesterday in the senate by Senator Jones, democrat, New Mexico, completed the preliminaries for the tax reduction fight expected to start next week.

The democrats, in addition to waging a contest against the Mellon income tax rates, reintroduced in the bill by the committee in the place of the Longworth compromise schedule adopted by the house, will seek modification also of the corporation and estate taxes, and public hearings for tax disputes.

Although senate leaders expected to wind up consideration of the bonus bill today it was planned to put one or two appropriation measures ahead of the tax bill.

Federal statutes fix the penalty for robbery at not more than 15 years.

THE LOWELL GUILD BALL

Memorial Auditorium Scene of Brilliant Social Event
Last Evening

The annual ball for the benefit of the Lowell Guild was held at the Memorial Auditorium last night and in every way came up to expectations and will result in substantial financial assistance to the splendid work being carried on by the Guild organization.

The program of entertainment consisted mainly of general dancing, with approximately 800 couples in attendance, but also there were beautiful interpretive dance numbers by Miss Bertie Bragazzi, well known Boston society girl, and 5 young women pupils of the Denbigh school. Supper was served in Liberty hall from 11 to 12 o'clock.

The main auditorium was attractively decorated with spring flowers, as were two booths for the dispensation of punch at either side of the stage. The table appointments in Liberty hall also were harmonious and charming.

The dance program ran, with a few intermissions, from 9 until 1 o'clock, and although the crowd thinned out perceptibly after the midnight hours, there were many who stayed on until the end.

In every respect it may be said that the affair was the most brilliant social of the spring or winter season and the patronage was at least as large as at any other formal event held at the Auditorium since its erection.

It took a great deal of careful planning to ensure the success of the ball and much of the credit belongs to Mrs. Julian B. Keyes, general manager. She was ably assisted by the following women as committee chairman: Miss Bertha Abbott, checking; Mrs. Arthur C. Spaulding, publicity; Mrs. Arthur J. Murkland, Mrs. William L. Robertson and Mrs. H. Hutchins Parker, supper; Mrs. John K. Whittier, decorations; and Mrs. C. L. Stover, Mrs. Daniel O. Swan and Mrs. Warren Mansur, booths.

LOWELL GOODWILL INDUSTRIES
At a meeting of the Lowell Goodwill Industries, Inc., last evening, a comprehensive report of the organization's activities was submitted by Mr. Alan P. Roeder, manager of the stores conducted by the industry in this city. Because of the increasing demands on the organization, new and more spacious quarters have been acquired in the vestry of the old central church in Paige street. The present business is being conducted in the building at the corner of French and Brookline streets.

DANIELS WAS OBDURATE WHEN IT CAME TO OIL LAND LEASES

Commander Stuart in Letter to Senate Oil Committee Says Former Secretary of Navy Leased Only 120 Acres During His Term

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Josephus Daniels, ex secretary of the navy, was obdurate when it came to getting any lease for lands within the naval oil reserves, Commander H. A. Stuart, U.S.N., said in a letter read today into the record of the senate oil committee.

Commander Stuart was in charge of the reserves under Mr. Daniels and is now on duty in Wyoming with the Tea Pot Dome reserve receivers.

Stating that the oil land leased while Mr. Daniels was secretary amounted only to 120 acres to the Consolidated Mutual Oil Co., and five wells to the Boston Pacific Oil Co.—all in reserve No. 2 in California—Commander Stuart said that after the result of the 1920 election "Mr. Daniels particularly refused to open up the reserves, and that he would not change that policy before leaving office."

James O. Lewis, a petroleum engineer, called by Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri, testified at the committee session that Tea Pot Dome would have been drained to a serious extent by adjacent wells, had its development been delayed. Drilling operations on the dome since its lease, he said, had disclosed geological conditions, which would have led to exhaustion of the dome's oil stores by Salt Creek producers.

Gas pressure would also have been lost, he said, making the oil left in the naval reserve irrecoverable to a great degree.

"To loosen his hold on the reserves in cases where he considered it very essential to do defensive drilling," the letter added, "it is highly amusing to see the apparent attempt to make him out as an 'exploiter' of the reserves. I recall distinctly that in the case of the Consolidated Mutual, to whom was granted eventually a lease for 120 acres, Mr. Daniels was very much afraid, we stated, that, even granting that water conditions were as bad as represented, the leasing of even this small acreage would tend to establish a precedent which might be used by others to attempt to obtain other leases."

"I feel that there is not a single naval officer who had anything to do with the naval petroleum reserves during Secretary Daniels' tenure of office, who would not testify most emphatically that his attitude at all times was to keep as much oil in the ground as possible."

Commander Stuart's letter was written from Casper, Wyo., under date of April 9, and was in reply to one sent him by Senator Walsh, cosponsor of the oil committee, on April 1.

J. A. STILLMAN APPEALS PINCHOT FAR BEHIND
Objects to Allowance of $12,500 to Guardian of Baby Guy Stillman

NEW YORK, April 23.—James A. Stillman, former president of the National City bank, served notice yesterday from the allowance made to John E. Mack for his services in defending the rights of Baby Guy Stillman as to the question of the child's legitimacy.

An allowance of $12,500 recently was made by Justice Morchabauer in favor of Mr. Mack, who is Guy Stillman's guardian, for his legal services in appearing before the appellate division which upheld Referee Gleason's report that Guy was Mr. Stillman's son.

It was reported that Mr. Stillman also intends to appeal to the court of appeals from the appellate division decision in Mrs. Stillman's favor.

DR. TIGHE SELLS HOME IN BRIDGE STREET
Dr. Michael A. Tighe, city physician, who recently purchased a home in the Belvidere section, has sold his Bridge street home to a local real estate dealer and will occupy his new residence within a fortnight.

The sale was made through the office of R. M. Hunt, real estate dealer, who was agent for Dr. Tighe in purchasing the Belvidere home. The Centralville property is located at 743 Bridge street and consists of a 2½ story house of 9 rooms with modern appointments and approximately 7000 square feet of land with a front acre of 70 feet on Bridge street. The selling price was about $7000.
